The supporters of the temperance cause in this town met at Society hall last Monday afternoon and placed the following ticket in the field: W. R. Mellor, E. A. Brown and W. H. Hickman. We hear it talked on every corner that this is a good ticket and it is believed that it can be elected.

W. G. Odendahl and T. H. Eisner returned last Friday from a weeks hunt on the Platte. They were near Grand Island and while their hunt was not attended with the best of success, yet they brought home a nice lot of ducks. Mr. Eisner has our thanks for a mess of this species of the feathered tribe.

The Odd Fellows and Woodmen clubbed together and gave Ira Foster and Family a pleasant surprise party at their hall last Wednesday night, and during the evening presented him with a gold watch chain and charm. This was done because of the high esteem in which he was held as a member of both these orders, and because he is about to leave for Arcadia, where they will permanently locate. Success to you Ira.

The Modern Woodmen of Loup City held their meeting, as advertised, at their hall Tuesday night, for the purpose of discussing the readjustment plan as proposed by a committee appointed by their head officers. A good delegation from the camps of Ashton and Rockville were present and at 8:30 the doors were thrown open and all concerned in beneficiary work invited in. The discussion was opened by G. H. Gibson in a 30 minutes talk after which all present were invited to speak. Some ten or a dozen short speeches were made and nothing but condemnation for the proposed readjustment plan was heard from any one. At 11:30 sandwiches and coffee were served after which everybody went home feeling that a profitable evening had been spent, and much information gained by all present.

German Empress' White Hair.

The German Empress has hair almost snow white, and while really only a year older than the emperor impresses the beholder as being his senior by a much greater margin. William II. does not look his 43 years.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

M. H. Smith Meets Sudden Death by Falling From a Wind Mill Tower.

We are called upon again this week to record another very sudden death by accident which happened last Friday afternoon.
 Mr. Smith of this city and a man of nearly 60 years of age, it seems had gone out to the farm some eight miles west of town to attend to some business and among other things he wished to fix the wind mill. The wind was very high at the time, but he got on top of the mill house and climbed to the top of the tower, a distance of some 30 feet from the ground. Mr. Wakenight who resides on the place says that when last seen on the tower he was just under the platform. After that the parties about the place went into the mill house and it is thought from indications that he must have got up far enough for his head to get above the platform when the heavy steel fans were caught by a raging wind and, whirling it around in such manner as to strike him with great force in the head, thereby causing almost instant death. He fell heavily upon the mill house roof and from there rolled to the ground. Mr. Smith has been a resident of Sherman county for many years having moved here in 1882. He was a man of noble character and in his death the community mourns the loss of a truly good citizen. His remains were brought to his home in this city on the evening of the accident and on Sunday, March 16th., 1902 at 2:00 P. M. the funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church. Rev. Madely officiating. The church was filled with sympathetic friends who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed.
 As he was an honored member of the Eastern Star and Masonic lodges, the local members concluded the ceremony by officiating at the church and grave.

He leaves a wife, a son and two daughters to mourn his loss. The children are Mrs. Pappendick of Spokane, Washington and E. A. Smith and Mrs. J. I. Depew of this city.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the Masonic and Eastern Star members, Ladies Aid society and all friends. We desire to express our heartfelt thanks for your kindness, sympathy and help in the death and burial of our beloved husband and father. We deeply appreciate the help and sympathy extended to us in this trying hour.
 Mrs. H. M. SMITH.
 Mr. and Mrs. JOHN PAPPENDICK.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. A. SMITH.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. I. DEPEW

Chas. Gasteyer has been growing rapidly worse from the serious trouble in his head and of which we spoke last week. He became greatly alarmed and went to Omaha last Friday to consult the best physicians and secure the best treatment possible. On Sunday his nurse at the hospital phoned for Mrs. Gasteyer to come, but as we learn said that there was no cause for alarm, and merely stated that Mr. Gasteyer desired that she should be at his bed side. She went to Ravenna Sunday afternoon and took the B. & M train at that point in the evening. Since her arrival his condition has been much worse and on Monday evening word was received that he was very bad and on Tuesday there was practically no change. Up to the hour of going to press there is still no change for the better.

The M. E. choir took a jolly hay ride on Monday evening, to the home of L. N. Smith and sister where St. Patrick's day was appropriately celebrated by a "Potato party." Much merriment was the result of the guests trying to walk through potatoes thickly strewn on the carpet, guess measurements of a trio of good sized tubers, throw potatoes between others potatoes placed on the opposite side of the room, etc. The crowning feature of the evening was a poem written by each guest, containing the word potato. A sample poem.
 O lovely woman, sad but true,
 Went to the garden potatoes to hoe.
 The garden was reached, the hoe sharpened,
 But the woman was tired and returned disheartened.

After refreshments had been served, the company was entertained with music by Mrs. Hotchkins, Mr. and Mrs. Leininger, Mr. Mellor and L. N. Smith. Mrs. Leininger and J. W. Long won the prizes of the evening.

DRESS MAKING. I will do dress making and sewing at my residence and will guarantee good work at reasonable prices. If you wish any work done in this line call at residence in east part of town.
 Mrs. T. M. REED.

Blind Boone has completed his arrangements and billed this town for an evening entertainment which will be given at Pilger's opera house on the evening of Saturday, March 22. Mr. Boone has been to this city twice before, and has played to a crowded house, giving great satisfaction. He is a pianist of great ability and can reproduce any piece of music he ever heard. The Omaha Bee says of him: "The Broadway M. E. church was crowded at the Blind Boone concert last evening. The marvelous skill of the gifted genius attracted many who had heard him before as well as hundreds of others. The program was very interesting and was admirably rendered, and the player responded to several hearty encores." Reserve seats for sale at the opera house

CLERK'S WISE SUGGESTION.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, leading pharmacist of Attleboro Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results. I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily. You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food For sale by Odendahl Bros.

THE LAST HEARD OF IT.
 "My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house" says F. D. Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and act immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. For sale by Odendahl Bros.
