The wife of a farmer near Kenney had a liniment she used for everything. The other night she was sick and her husband got up in the dark, got the liniment and rubbed it over her body. The next morning it was discovered that he had got a bottle of blaing instead of the liniment.—Saybrook Gazette.

Loup City and Sherman county is not having a great boom this year, but we note with pleasure a steady and substantial growth, both as to enterprise and population. Quite a number of substantial farm houses in various parts of the county have been built within the past year. New comers have been arriving daily and many have bought property here and shipped a large amount of household and farming goods.

The Royal Highlanders gave an entertainment Monday evening. Recitations were given by Miss, Bechthold Miss, Ada and Charles Minshull, also several of the little folks. Songs were sung by W. R. Mellor, L. N. Smith, and Zoe Reed and sister. The entertainment was closed by J. W. Long. Refreshments were then served after which a few hours were spent in dancing. The entertainment reflects credit on the order.

Herman Jung started baking in his new brick oven last Tuesday and for the first time had good success. He brought a sample of his work to this office which was good, although Herman says that his oven is not thoroughly dry and that he can do much better after a few trials. His first effort however, was attended with good success and we bespeak for him a good business. His bakery and lunch rooms are now open to the public and with his conveniences and experience in the bakery line all customers are assured of prompt and courteous attention. Such an enterprise has been long needed here and now that Mr. Jung has spared no pains or expense to give us a first class bakery he should be liberally patronized.

SAVED HIM FROM TORTURE.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds it is unequalled. J. Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1895 I suffered with the protruding bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeiters. For sale by Odendahl Bros.

BIG HORN BASIN.

Are you interested in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming? It's a rich but undeveloped portion of Northwestern Wyoming. It contains marvelous openings for small ranches along good streams in the valleys, with one million acres of government land open for settlement under the United States land laws.

The Burlington Route has just published a folder descriptive of the Big Horn Basin. It is illustrated and contains an accurate map. It tells about the lay of the land, character of the soil, products, yield, irrigation and opportunities. If you're interested, better write for a copy. It is free.

CLERK'S WISE SUGGESTION.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, leading pharmacist of Attleboro Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results. I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily. You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food. For sale by Odendahl Bros.
