

BRINGS OUT A CROWD.

A FARMER FIGURES IN THE CASE.

AN ALL NIGHT TIME OF IT

On Tuesday afternoon a farmer drove into town, and putting his team up at the Round Front barn spent a few hours taking in the town and apparently surveying the lay of the land preparatory to engaging in a well laid plan to carry out some particular object in view.

He was well dressed and had the appearance of a gentleman instead of a suspicious looking character as is sometimes wont to travel through the country. His deportment did not cause any alarm or suspicion as he seemed to be friendly and familiar with those whom he met and with any and all subjects introduced. But as the shades of night wore on it became apparent to a close observer that his stop over was being made for some special purpose. Another noticeable circumstance was the presence of two full uniformed soldiers in town and who had suddenly appeared on the scene.

Those who noted the actions of the first named gentleman was free to express an opinion that he was bent on doing something out of the ordinary. The editor's attention was called to the circumstance and we being of an inquisitive nature, as most editors are, at once approached the gentleman to learn what we could of him and the mysteries surrounding the case. We at once recognized him to be a person of no less importance than A. L. Baillie, who, as he stated to us, was going to spend the night in the city, and meet, for the first time in six years, with his brother masons at their festive turn-out. When this became known Mr. Baillie was given the freedom of the town, took supper with ye editor and family, took in the Masonic banquet and spent the remainder of the night with his brother mason, John H. Travis, thus making an all night stop-over in the city.

Two well dressed, full uniformed government soldiers came in town last Tuesday and of course our people were a little curious to know who they were, where they came from and why they came. It was not long however until they made known their business, which was to give themselves over to the sheriff of this county for having deserted their post at Fort Niobrara. They are bright looking young men of perhaps 22 years of age, one by the name of Hamilton and the other Hopeman, formerly of Pennsylvania and New York. According to their own story they left home soon after they became of age and deciding to join the army at once enlisted and was soon thereafter stationed with the troops at Fort Niobrara. After being on duty several months they became tired of the work, and one day while out on a spree deserted camp. For several days they have been traveling on foot through the country, keeping most of the time in the hills and out of sight as much as possible. Nearly all day Wednesday they were in the hills not far from this city when they made up their minds that it would be better to be a true soldier than to try longer to evade the officers under such difficult circumstances and so gave themselves over to Sheriff Snyder. They were at once placed in the county jail and the intelligence was at once communicated to the head officers at the Fort. In due time the order came to hold the prisoners until the arrival of the officers who would take them in charge and pay the reward usually given in such cases for their arrest and detention. Later the sheriff was notified to take them to the government officials at Omaha when he would receive a reward of $30 each and all expenses. He started this morning.

Much information has been placed before our readers during the past few weeks concerning The Millard, the leading hotel of Omaha, the great improvements that have been made through remodeling, renovating and refurbishing throughout; its central location, first-class cuisine, high grade service and the fact that our townspeople can stop at this first-class Omaha hotel at as low a rate as $2.00 per day on the American Plan and $1.00 on the European plan. There is still much more to be said concerning the hotel and its management that our readers are certain to be interested in. It is part of what is known as the Markel Hotel System, and very few people of this state know of its vast extent. It comprises The Millard at Omaha, The Lincoln at Lincoln and all the railroad hotels and eating houses from the Transfer eating house at Council Bluffs and the Union Depot at Omaha, along the Union Pacific Railway, to Ogden and Salt Lake, Utah; and from Granger, along the Oregon Short Line, to Huntington, Oregon and thence on to the Union Depot at Portland, Oregon. And this is not all of it. The System, through another chain of hotels and eating houses, extends southward from Kansas City, Missouri, along the Kansas City Southern Railway, to Port Arthur, Texas. Thus the name of J. E. Markel, the head of this great hotel system, is indelibly impressed upon trans-continental travel, from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean, and upon another line of travel from Kansas City to the Gulf of Mexico. Nearly three thousand people are on Mr. Markel's pay roll. One item alone, out of very many, will give an idea of the vast expense connected with the supply department of the Markel Hotel System. During the year 1901, more than One Hundred and Fifty Thousand dollars was expended for fresh meat beef, pork and mutton only. That explains why every one who stops at The Millard or The Lincoln, or any other of the Markel hotels or eating houses, speaks so highly of the fine cuts of fresh meat that are without exception served to them. It is always the best that can be had in the market. Mr. Markel will have nothing less than that served at his tables. The next time our readers visit Omaha, they should stop at The Millard or if in Lincoln, they should stop at The Lincoln, the only first-class hotel in that city, and most conveniently located opposite the railway depots and the Post Office. The rate at The Lincoln is also as low as $2.00 per day on the American Plan.

There will be a joint discussion between all the fraternal lodges of this city, at Pilger's opera house, on the evening of May 21st., the object being to have two speakers from each organization to represent the merits of the order. All the best speakers of the different organizations have already been selected for the occasion and the committee is busy arranging a programme that will interest you. All are cordially invited. Come out and enjoy a grand good time.

DANGEROUS IF NEGLECTED.
Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yanketown, Indiana. After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore. It cures all skin diseases, Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits.—Odendahl Bros.

WANTS OTHERS TO KNOW
"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure safe pills. Odendahl Bros.

LIKE A DROWNING MAN.
"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes George S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nocona, Tex. "I took quantities of pepin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble.—Odendahl Bros.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1902.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
