COUNTY TICKET.

For County Attorney,
J. S. PEDLER.
For Representative,
ALVIN CLARK.

The following from an honest upright, German (populist) farmer, residing in Rockville township appeared in the Times-Independent last week:

To the Times-Independent Brother Farmers, it was stated in the Times-Independent, Sept 11th, that Mr.
Mathew, the populist Candidate for County Attorney, has just received some new Volumes to his already large Law Library, which cost the sum of $10-00 per Volume. I should think if Mr.
Mathew is able to buy such expensive Books, are to pay our Cream Bills, anyhow before he is seeking for our votes.
It is further stated in the above paper that J. S. Pedler, Republican candidate for county attorney, has no law library at all and that Mr. Pedler was a Blacksmith by trade in the early days. I will say Mr. Pedler has always paid up his bills, he don't owe any to the farmers for oil iron, like Mr. Mathew does for Cream. Mr. Mathew ought not to have any public office at all, when he cannot keep his own affairs straight. Mr.
Mathew not satisfied with the cream he has already swallowed from the farmers, would like to swallow $650.00 per year mostly from the farmers on top of it, therefore the farmers are to remember Mr. Mathew on the 4th day of November to let him have only the skimmed milk.

HENRY DUNKER.

The Times, in its comment upon the above letter, insinuates that "our Joe" and honest Henry Dunker had had a conference in regard to this matter, while the facts are that they have at seen each other for a year.

Actions speak louder than words.
As soon as our Joe, the widows friend heard of the death of Billie Gorden, of Custer county he immediately sent to the widow a note and mortgage amounting to $27.00 which he purchased of Lewis Haller. This shows that he is a friend to the widows and orphans in truth and in fact. Mr. Pedler assigned the note and mortgage to Mrs. Gordon without consideration.

Whenever two or three democrats are gathered together within hearing distance of a republican they begin to talk about about this being an off year and not very much enthusiasm and but little incentive for going to the polls. But Mr. Republican, if Satan entice thee, consent thou not.
It is a part of their plans and never doubt they will be there when the time comes. The only safe way to do is to be at the polls also and cast a straight republican ticket.—Falls City Journal.

Five years ago under the Wilson bill the European countries were flooding our markets with foreign made goods, but today under the Dingley tariff those same nations are studying combinations to resist American invasion of their own markets. This seems rather significant.

The smoke nuisance from the factories has been a source of much worryment in many cities. There was a time when the democratic party and the revised tariff were in the saddle at the National Capital, and there was not a sign of smoke to be seen in the entire land. An effectual way to remove this nuisance is to re-establish the old free trade policies.

"President Roosevelt is brave, intelligent, and capable," said Senator Fairbanks of Indiana at Oak Park on Tuesday night. "It becomes us to uphold him, to uphold his hands and to make as light as possible his great burdens."

The press of the country, irrespective of party, with but few exceptions, voices the feelings of the people in praising the president's present efforts to avert the dangers which the situation in the anthracite region threatens to the country.

Whoever feels doubtful or discouraged or fear that the nation has at last come to a crisis which cannot be solved without overthrow of the cherished institutions should look at the president in Washington and then look at the American people the patient, the hopeful, the lawabiding, the real American people.

There is the president calmly, resolutely, patiently and without fear, striving to conciliate, to reconcile the most violently conflicting interests. He lets vituperation pass by him as the idle wind—he absolutely ignores public insolence to himself and the dignity of the nation—he thinks of nothing but the welfare of the people and of the old people.

And there are the people, enduring hardship patiently, abiding in the law to their own immediate injury knowing their overwhelming power, but reluctant to use it, trusting in themselves and their president, confident that he will deliver them from the necessity, but ready at his call to put forth all their irresistible force.
The American people have been exceptionally blessed that from among them brave, intelligent, and capable men always have come forth to meet every emergency. Never in their history has the occasion come and found them without the leader to meet its duties. When the hour has struck, there has come the Man.

And they are no less blessed now.
They have their president of the people for the people's welfare, and they know the man.

And against the American people and their president—the people's president—who shall stand?
Inter-Ocean.

The farmer is not seeking democratic sympathy or advice. He has a very vivid recollection of his experience during the last democratic administration.

The democratic politicians declare that the country is dangerously prosperous and promise to remove the danger in the event of their success.

WALL FOR SENATOR.

The republicans of the senatorial district south of us have nominated Judge Aaron Wall for their standard bearer. The nomination is a good one and well merited. Now if the district will only elect him it will be doing itself the best service it has done in many a year.—Ord Quiz.

Aaron Wall of Loup City has been nominated by the republicans for state senator. Had the republicans of the district sought a mere able man they could not have found one within the borders of Nebraska.
Mr. Wall is a brilliant orator, a loyal republican, and true to his friends.
If the voter of his district are wise they will see to it that he is elected.
Here's hoping that Mr. Wall will be the next senator.—Chronicle-Citizens.

We hear good news from Buffalo county in regard to the bright prospects of electing Judge Wall to the senate. Judge Wall has an army of friends in Buffalo who are out working hard for his success. They say that the republicans of that county will make a handsome record this fall. Let every republican in Sherman county, who wishes to see her represented by one of the ablest men in Western Nebraska, put their shoulder to the wheel and help elect Judge Wall. We want to see the record of every republican voter in this senatorial district stamped on the returns. There are lots of populists who are tired of fusion and are going to vote the republican ticket, and if the republicans are not derelect in their duty we will undoubtedly win out.
