REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- For Governor, JOHN H. MICKEY.
 - For Lieutenant Governor, E. G. MCGILTON.
 - For Treasurer, PETER MORTENSEN.
 - For Secretary of State, G. W. MARSH.
 - For Auditor, CHARLES WESTON.
 - For Superintendent of Instruction, WILLIAM K. FOWLER.
 - For Attorney General, F. N. PROUT.
 - For Commissioner Public Lands, GEORGE D. FOLLMER.
 - For Congressman, M. P. KINKAID.
 - For Senator 16th district, A. WALL.
- COUNTY TICKET.
- For County Attorney, J. S. PEDLER.
 - For Representative, ALVIN CLARK.

The Times should let up on the personal abuse it is heaping upon J. S. Pedler, and say a good word for E. H. Kittell once in a while.

Vote for J. S. Pedler for county attorney. He is a man of ability. His record as sheriff is a matter of pride to his constituents. He will make another such record as county attorney if elected.

The Times hasn't said anything about the twine trust and Little Billie Thompson for several weeks. It seems to have forgotten that there is a fusion state ticket in the field and has centered all of the fight on the office of county attorney. There is nothing mean enough for them to say about J. S. Pedler, the republican candidate for that office.

All who wish a continuation of the present good times should look well to their legislative tickets. Be sure to elect men to represent us that will uphold the republican principles and the present administration. Alvin Clark and Judge Wall represent those principles and will represent this county with credit to themselves and constituents.

The editors of the Ansley Chronicle and Citizen have consolidated their plants and are now publishing a paper, the Chronicle-Citizen, that is a credit to the publishers and town as well. Nearly every business in that thriving little city is represented in its advertising columns and the news columns are full to overflowing. Messrs. Barks and Wright are to be congratulated over the evident success of their new enterprise.

When the Times said two weeks ago that J. S. Pedler said, in conversation with a voter, "if you can not support me, shut your mouth", it told a falsehood and its editor knows it. What Mr. Pedler did say was, "if you can't do me any good, don't do me any harm". There is nothing wrong about such a statement. Mr. Pedler has been very gentlemanly all through the campaign, and such charges, from any source whatever, are without the faintest color of truth or fairness.

That Judge Kinkaid will be our next congressman is a foregone conclusion. And there is every reason that he should be. He is a lawyer of exceptional ability, acknowledged even by the opposition, as by their help, when the district was hopelessly fusion, he was elected judge several times. No one denies his ability, and not one word is or can be said to his detriment as a man, lawyer, judge, jurist, or in any conceivable way. The only hope for the fusionists in this district is to try and make succeed a "soldier" racket; a sort of "general" racket, so to speak. And what makes that so disgusting is the fact that it comes from a political fusion that in times past has yelled "bloody shirt" every time the republicans put up a soldier candidate, and never found any good among the "boys" save only when one of them occasionally had a place on their ticket. Now, we appeal to every thinking reader if this is not the case? But then, Judge Kinkaid will have hundreds of good honest democrats and populists in the district that will help elect him in utter disgust of the "anything-for-office" fusion element.—Ainsworth Star-Journal.

The Times says that taxes are only high in Loup City and Logan townships, and this is because of the Loup City and Logan township irrigation bonds. Some one should inform the Times that we have not, as yet, paid any taxes on the bonds referred to, except the $900 costs and attorneys' fees to fight them. However, as there are, by reason of this suit, several years of past due interest which has accumulated and for which levy has now been made, it is quite possible that we will get a raise in taxes soon.

The Democratic leaders ever on the alert to shriek calamity are making a strenuous effort to place the responsibility for the hard coal strike upon the Republican party. This attempt will utterly fail, for there is not a fair minded man in the entire country who does not know that the movement is far removed from politics and that the tug of war in the industrial world was inevitable. It is far better that the matter should be fought out now when there is prosperity and plenty in the land.

We wish again to impress upon the republican voters of this county the importance of using every effort possible to secure the election of our legislative ticket.

The prospects are exceeding bright this fall to elect Judge Wall to the senate. He has the unqualified support of a number of leading populists in this county, as well as a handsome majority republican vote of Buffalo county, and now all that remains is for our boys to get out to the polls and vote. And now we especially urge you to do so. Pull off your coats and help to elect Judge Wall. It can be done. Nothing but the stay-at-home republican vote will defeat him.

The Republican organ will undoubtedly publish Dunker's letter and credit it, "Henry Dunker in Times-Independent," but unless our comment is also published it will show the editor to be a coward.—Times-Independent.

Dunker's letter to the Times was short and to the point and of course we published it. The Times' comment on it was long, silly and windy and we had no room or time to bother with it. Besides, we do not care to fill our columns with such rot. Yet we are to be called a coward. Well, the word "coward" has helped Ed. out many a time when he gets stumped for an argument. Brown is a brave fellow when he swells up and uses the word "coward".

An interesting test of the prosperity of the country was shown in the recent annual encampment of the G. A. R. at Washington. The biggest crowd ever in attendance upon a Grand Army encampment was present. It must be remembered that most of them had to come from distant states, New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan furnishing the greater number, but Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, California, Minnesota and Wisconsin being well represented. That meant that the old veterans had to have money. Of course they had money; they had it from the result of selling their crops at good prices, because protection had made business good and created a demand; they had it from their little investments, which had been safeguarded under wise republican laws; some of them had it as gifts from their boys who are working in the great industrial system built up under the protective tariff and are glad to send the old folks on this jaunt to Washington; they had it because the republican party, in the face of constant democratic opposition, had passed pension laws that were both just and generous, as a grateful nation wanted them to be. In the stormy days of '93 to '95 the veterans did not attend national encampments unless they were "mighty close to home". We are, all glad so many could attend this year; and we are all thankful for the measure of prosperity which enables these old fellows, beloved of the nation, to see some good times in their old days.

The Ord Quiz says in one editorial that we were wide of the truth last week in our statement as to the M. E. church conference and the Mickey affair, but we will say that our information was obtained from a personal conversation with one who was there at the time. The Quiz in the main only objected to the statement which we made that the trustees of the church were all pops and instructed the pastor to object to the speech, adding that the local pastor made the objection on his own motion. We stand corrected on this point but it would appear that our article in the main is true as in another column, and another editorial, of the same issue, under the head of "Johnson and Mickey" the Quiz continues to say:

"When it was proposed that V. O. Johnson be invited to make the address of welcome at the Methodist Conference, the most honorable and complimentary position that a man could be placed in before that body, no republican thought of objecting. Our opinion was asked as to the advisability of his being accorded that honor, and we presume other republicans were also consulted. No one objected although he was a candidate for office on the populist ticket. Is it any wonder then that republicans are not a little incensed at the objection raised by a few populists against Mr. Mickey being invited to speak at that conference. Compare the two situations. Both Mickey and Johnson are Methodists, both are good citizens and neither sought the privilege of speaking. Further than this, comparisons can not be made. Johnson is strictly a local citizen in whom the members of the Conference had no concern. Mickey is a man of state reputation, in whom all are concerned. Johnson is a valuable member of the local church. Mickey is a man of like relation to the church at large, and has been one of the chief backers of the Wesleyan University. When Johnson was placed on the program and advertised as the chief speaker for Ord, no republican objected. When the president of the evening invited Mickey to speak a few minutes on "Christian Education", enough populist protest was made to keep him from doing so. We give the pastor credit for having done this through an error of judgement, but this does not relieve the populists from their fault of offering an insult to so prominent a citizen as Mickey, nor does it remove the odium under which Ord rests because of this most unfortunate affair. Let it be said for the Conference, however, that the members greatly deplored the incident expressed themselves on the affair in their resolutions."

The Best Remedy for Croup.
This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost in case of croup as a revolver is sure to be lost, in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup known as hive syrup and told out some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better and don't cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Odendahl Bros.
