Little Orpha Outhouse accidentally fell down three steps to the cellar way and broke her arm near the elbow. It is a very bad injury. A physician was called and reduced the fracture and the little sufferer is resting easy.

Arthur Lane of Arcadia is in the city with his house moving outfit and gang engaged in moving the T. M. Reed implement building from the east side of the square to his newly purchased lots on main street and where the bowling alley now stands.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Henry, who have been to Omaha for several weeks where Mr. Henry has been at the hospital for medical treatment, are expected home in about ten days. We understand that he is much better.

J. I. Depew seems to be a big relief to the carpenters and wood workers of the town. With his engine and circular saw stand he is able to shape wood into any design desired. He has done considerable sawing for the Conhiser brick store buildings.

J. I. Depew, our all around blacksmith and wood worker is assisting Walter Smith with the carpenter work on the Conhiser store building. And while we are speaking about it you should call and see the artistic job that Smith is doing. It is a credit to him and to the trade.

Fred Boek, living north of town in Logan twp. brought two fat hogs to market Monday for which he realized $39.60. Last week he took a load to Arcadia and realized the handsome sum of $84.00. Only last week he purchased another eighty acres of land adjoining his hundred and sixty on the east and was able to make a handsome payment on it. Mr. Boek has raised a good crop and now is feeding and fattening ten head of steers this winter.

Appropriate Thanksgiving services were held at the M. E. Church last evening.

You are right at home when you order a suit of Johnson Lorentz & Co. and can be fitted while the suit is being made. Thats what home patronage means.

It is said that every bride has many friends, but in a few years, they dwindle down to one. Thats Rocky Mountain Tea. Makes and keeps her well. 35c. Odenahl Bros.

W. R. Mellor is building an addition to his house. This is the house that was originally built by J. R. Scott. It has here-to-fore been remodeled and painted at a large expense and now this new addition with a basement and furnace under it makes it a very desirable property.

There will be a county Sunday school convention held at the Baptist church in Loup City, November 29 and 30, services to begin at 2 o'clock, p. m., Saturday. Sessions will be held afternoon and evening Saturday and morning, afternoon and evening Sunday. Speakers from abroad will be present. Delegates from all Sunday School of the county expected. All are invited to be present and take part.

J. H. Travis has closed out his business and will now devote himself to collecting up his accounts. He has not yet determined what he will do in the future. Mrs. Travis who has sold her residence property has gone with her daughter, Nellie to Lincoln, where they will live for two years at least while Miss Melhe continues her music studies.

At the invitation of Mrs. S. S. Hoyer a number of friends gave Mrs. William Hoyer a birthday surprise on Monday evening. The guests were entertained with ping pong and other games. After refreshments had been served, music was called for and several solos were sung. At the close of a pleasant evening, the guests wished Mrs. Hoyer many happy returns of the day.

Milo Gilbert of Webster township met with a very severe accident on Wednesday of last week, by falling from a corn crib. He had climbed to the top to fix some boards when his footing gave way. He fell, striking on the corner of the wagon box and breaking two ribs loose from the back bone and badly fracturing a third. It was greatly feared at first that his injuries would prove fatal. Dr. Main was summoned and the wounds properly dressed. He says that although the injuries are of a very serious nature he will get along all right if nothing else sets in.

Mrs. M. H. Mead died at her home at 11 o'clock last Tuesday night after a very painful illness of about 3 weeks duration. Her death was very sudden and unexpected as it was thought by her relatives and friends that she was slowly improving up to within a very short time of her demise. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss, the youngest, a boy of about three years. The funeral will take place at the Mead residence to-day (Friday), at 10 o'clock a. m. We will give a more extended notice of the death of this much beloved lady in our next issue.

For Sale or Trade.—160 acres of land in Platte Valley. Will trade for horses or cattle. Price $7,000.00. Address Steve Gray, Loup City, Neb.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson when getting his usual Saturday evening bath stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by Odenahl Bros.

Next week is the last week for low rates on cabinet photos. Gallery will be closed on Dec. 6th.

Cured of Piles After 40 Years.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors nor dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, lacerations, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. THEODFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Theodford's Black-Draught has saved doctors' bills for more than sixty years. For the common family ailments, such as constipation, indigestion, hard colds, bowel complaints, chills and fever, biliousness, headaches and other like complaints no other medicine is necessary. It invigorates and regulates the liver, assists digestion, stimulates action of the kidneys, purifies the blood, and purges the bowels of foul accumulations. It cures liver complaint, indigestion, sour stomach, dizziness, chills, rheumatic pains, headache, backache, kidney troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, biliousness, piles, hard colds and headache. Every druggist has Theodford's Black-Draught in 25 cent packages and in mammoth size for $1.00. Never accept a substitute. Insist on having the original made by the Chattanooga Medicine Company.

I believe Theodford's Black-Draught is the best medicine on earth. It is good for any and everything. I have a family of twelve children, and for four years I have kept them on foot and healthy with no doctor but Black-Draught. A. J. GREEN, Illwaco, La.

For a Bad Cold.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. For sale by Odenahl Bros.

I have new and second hand wagons for sale. T. M. REED.

A THANKSGIVING DINNER

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membrane lining the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour rising and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach.—Odenahl Bros.

MAKING HENS LAY.

Hens will lay if they have the right kind of food and plenty of it. Lee's Egg Maker supplies meat food and other elements needed for egg production and has the well earned reputation of being the best poultry food in the world. It makes hens lay, prevents and cures colds, cholera, etc. It is the biggest 25 cent package on the market. Sold by W. T. Chase.

Do you want a piano, organ or sewing machine. If so call and see T. M. Reed.

FARM FOR RENT.—320 acres about five miles from Loup City. Good house, well barn, etc. A large tract under cultivation. Apply to A. E. CHARLTON, Ord, Neb.

If you are bilious and seeking advisers, Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Just before going to bed, You will find on the morrow, You are rid of your sorrow.—Thats all; just enough said.

These famous pills do not gripe, but move the bowels gently and easily, cleanse the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, preventing a return of the disorder.

A NECESSARY PRECAUTION.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Allays inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it.

E. H. Grove
