L Hansen is tearing down the old fence around his residence property and proposes to replace it with a new one.

Geo. Brill, of Council Bluffs, and son of Mrs. A. Wall is visiting in the city. Mr. Brill made us a pleasant call Wednesday.

Spring is the time to use Rocky Mountain Tea. Keeps you well all summer. Great spring life renewer.—Odendahl Bros.

Those wishing to contract with Conger Bros for ice for the season should do so at once. No contracts will be made after the first of April.

An Eater Supper will be given by the Royal Highlanders at Society hall on Monday evening, April 13, Supper to be served from 6 to 9 o'clock.

Biemond & Miller have placed a new phone in their meat shop and also run a free delivery to every part of the city. All orders promptly filled.

Martin Bydalek of Ashton was at the county seat last Saturday, straightening out some land business. He took occasion to subscribe for this paper.

Polished finish on new plow lays at Depews blacksmith shop and don't cost a bit more than when finished in the old rough way. Can be done just as cheap, quicker and a heap better.

John Larson of Aurora is here looking after his landed interests on the west side of the river. He took out some lumber to make some very substantial improvements.

W. G. Odendahl, and Henry Eisner of this place and Ernie Millburn of Arcadia started Wednesday for a duck and goose hunt on the Platte. The objective point is between Grand Island and Chapman.

Swanson & Dahl have a complete line of groceries and you should call and see them. That Yale coffee they handle is immense. The editor has tried it and thinks it good for the money. 15, 20 and 25 cents.

The business men on the Swanson, Roberts, St. Elmo, and Wilson block and the block south have petitioned the village board for a new crossing from the Swanson Shoe Shop corner to Herman Jung's bakery. The crossing should be built.

Grand Popular Moving picture entertainment to be given at the opera house, Tuesday night, April 7th. Principal feature of the entertainment will be the Martinique Disaster. This alone is worth the price of admission. Reserved seats 35 cts. at Froelich's. General admission 25 cts., children 15 cts.

Mr. and Mrs Henry Ransink, of near Divide were pleasant callers at this office last Friday afternoon. Mr. Ransink raised a fine lot of corn and oats this year. His oats are of the White Russian variety and yielded him a good crop. In another column he is advertising seed corn and oats for sale.

We are sorry to note that Uncle Joseph Simmons has become mentally deranged and is also very feeble in health. He is about eighty year of age and has been sick nearly all winter. Last Friday his son Alley came to town to consult the county attorney about the advisability of taking him to the asylum.

R. D. Hendrickson has his new brick house completed. This is the second house that Mr Hendrickson has built within the last two years, he having sold the first soon after it was completed and then started building the second one. If everyone in the county had as much push and enterprise as R. D. there would be a farm house on ever quarter section.

Mrs Paul Johansen is reported sick. Go to Swanson & Dahl for your groceries.

Henry Wilson went to St. Paul, Tuesday, to consult Dr. Grothan. Read E. G. Paige's interesting letter on the Ashton page this week.

Johnson Lorentz & Co. have just received a full line of spring shirts. L. Strankman came in last Friday and ordered the NORTHWESTERN for a year.

Wm. Jakob called on us Friday and enrolled his name on our subscription list. Henry Plumbeck who has been so very sick for some time past is reported to be getting along nicely.

The janitor reports that there has been about forty tons of coal burned so far this winter at the school house. Don't forget the Grand Popular Moving picture entertainment at the opera house, Tuesday evening, April 7th.

Biemond and Outhouse shipped three car load of stock the last of the week, one from Rockville and two from Loup City. If you have butter and eggs to sell take them to Swanson & Dahl. Highest prices for produce. Lowest prices for groceries.

H. Lewis started for his home in Harrison township last Sunday morning. He left $2.00 to insure a weekly visit from the NORTHWESTERN.

D. C. Grow, of the Northern Milling company feed store wants to buy a car load of oats. He also has a fine grade of whole wheat flour for sale.

C. H. Plambeck, of Ashton township while at the county seat last Monday called at this office and renewed his subscription. Mr. Plambeck doesn't get to the county seat often but hardly ever fails to come and see us when in town.

Sheldon, Iowa, Dec. 11, 1902.—I have used Liquid Koal to clean my stock tanks and the underground pipes that connect them, with success. I put in a few drops of Liquid Koal every 10 days and they were kept clean and healthy by its action.—D. M. Merwin.

Fred Schneidreit was hauling several loads of corn to town last week. His corn was among the best in quality that come to the Loup City market. He received 23 cents per bushel, but was told that he could get more if a car load of the same quality could be secured.

Henry Wrehe, living about a mile and a half north west of Ashton was at the county seat last Monday. He gave us a five dollar bill to pay arrearages and a year in advance to this paper. Mr. Wrehe owns a half section of land and is farming 180 acres, and has 50 acres of winter wheat that is looking nice.

A very severe accident happened to the little 12 year old girl of L. Strankman, living on Oak Creek. It seems that while out in the yard she slipped, and fell, breaking the short rib on the left side. At first it was thought that it was only a severe bruise but later it developed that the bone had been broken. Dr. Main dressed the wound and although she has suffered very much is getting better.

We are now sending out a good many sample copies. You may get one every few weeks but don't think because of this that we intend to force it onto you. If you are not a subscriber your name will not go down on our list until you order it. The sample copy simply means that we want you to look the paper over, and that we hope to get you on the list soon. There will be no charges to any one unless he is a bona-fide subscriber.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case which has resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Odendahl Bros.

The B. & M. R. R. Co. paid into the Sherman county treasurer $800.00 back irrigation tax. Thanks to the county board who instructed the county attorney to notify said company that if the taxes were not paid by their next meeting date, April 14, proceedings to collect would be instituted. It appears that upon receipt of this notice the said taxes were promptly paid. It was the refusal of the payment of these taxes by this railroad company that got Logan and Loup City townships into trouble and through ill advise of railroad and other attorneys, was put to a cost of over $800, and for which we are now paying a double levy to meet.

Fritz Cornrumph is able to be out. Ed. Draper now sports a new buggy. T. M. Reed fitted him out last week.

C. L. Drake is in the city and expects to remain a week or ten days. You can save money by grinding your feed. T. M. Reed sells feed grinders.

W. H. Brown of David City has been visiting relatives and friends at Ashton. District Court has been adjourned until May 12th. It will be a jury term.

Mrs. Hilsabeek, of Theyer county is here visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Outhouse. If you want a good span of young mules see Troy Hale at the Round Front barn.

Mrs. Madely is enjoying a visit from her brother, Mr. Cyrus Smith, who arrived Monday. Flour and feed exchanged for wheat at D. C. Grow's store. South side public square.

R. S. Triplett, the young man just recently from Ky, has secured a position in Odendahl Bros. drug store. You should not forget the annual town ship meeting which is called to meet at the office of W. R. Mellor next Tuesday April 7.

If you want to swap horses be sure and stop at the Round Front barn. Troy Hale, the proprietor has some good western horses. Rev. Madely went to Rockville last week Thursday to preach the funeral sermon of the little six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendrickson who died with lung fever.

Parker Bros. are to give a Grand High class moving picture entertainment at Elmer's opera house on Tuesday, April 7th. They have a fine lot of up-to-date pictures and will give the people a grand treat.

G. H. Lindall, wife and sister, of Norfolk, Neb., and who have been stopping at the Hotel Wharton for several days past, have rented the Morris residence and moved therein Wednesday.

We erred, it seems in stating that French and McNulty finished their contract of grading the approaches to the new Round Grove bridge. Burnett and Thresher had the contract. French and McNulty assisted them.

J. M. Taylor has been tearing down M. Iesevsky's photograph gallery. Mr. Taylor also has the contract to build Leschinsky's new house on the farm, the dimensions of which are 14 by 26, story and a half high.

The time for getting your disc sharpened is at hand and you should remember that J. I. Dewep is fixed, with all necessary machinery to do you a first class job at a reasonable price. He can do the work quickly and satisfactorily.

W. C. Wharton gave a dance at the Hotel Wharton last Thursday night. They had just enclosed the new addition to the hotel and the young folks took advantage of the opportunity to try the new floor. A good time is reported.

Mr. Shafer of the Curtis Enterprise came up Saturday and visited over Sunday with his father-in-law, Mr. T. A. Taylor. Mrs. Shafer has been here several days during the stay of her brother, Bid. They returned home Monday morning.

John Leininger went out to his Washington township farm last Friday with a load of lumber and a windmill and pump. He is now putting down a well and erecting a windmill that will be a first class job when completed. L. A. Rentfrow is doing the work.

For liver troubles and constipation There's nothing better in creation Than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They always effect cures and save doctor bills.

Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the System, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. — Odendahl Bros.

Mrs. A. J. B. Fairbairn was a pleasant caller Saturday and renewed the subscription to this paper both for her husband and son. Mr. Fairbairn went to Whiting, Jackson county Kansas last week where he has purchased property and will make their future home. Mrs. Fairbairn left Monday and will join her husband this week. We are sorry to lose them as they were among the best citizens of Sherman county. Chas. Fairbairn, their son moved to Kansas about a year ago and is very comfortably located and of course the parents wished to be near him. The NORTHWESTERN wishes them all possible success.

Wm. Jakob, supervisor from Bristol township was at the county seat last Friday. He had been over on the Buffalo and Sherman line to look after the lumber in the bridge near Sweetwater which had been wrecked by the flood of two week ago and reports that all the lumber was saved and only a few planks broken. He went in company with bridge contractor, W. T. Gibson Saturday to figure on a new bridge and ascertain what lumber is needed to construct a new bridge in its place. This bridge is on the county line and partly belongs to Buffalo county. It was originally 60 feet long but in building a new one will be made 80 feet in length, and will be, as before, an upper truss bridge.
