

Give Warning of Approach of More Serious Trouble.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability, bordering upon hysteria? Are your spirits easily affected so that one minute you laugh, and the next fall into convulsive weeping?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threaten-ing to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the ovaries, and especially between the shoulders; sometimes loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy, with a tendency to cry at the least provocation?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Undoubtedly you do not know it, but in nine cases out of ten this is caused by some uterine disorder, and the nerves centering in and about the organs which make you a woman influence your entire nervous system. Something must be done at once to restore their natural condition or you will be prostrated for weeks and months perhaps, and suffer untold Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for this purpose than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women have written us so.

How Mrs. Holland, of Philadelphia, suffered among the finest physicians in the country, none of whom could help her - finally cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: - For over two years I was a constant sufferer from extreme nervousness, indigestion, and dizziness. Menstruation was irregular, had backache and a feeling of great lassitude and weakness. I was so bad that I was not able to do my own work or go far in the street. I could not sleep nights.

"I tried several splendid doctors, but they gave me no relief. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I soon began to feel better, and was able to go out and not feel as if I would fall at every step. I continued to take the medicine until cured.

I cannot say enough in behalf of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine, and heartily recommend all suffering women to try it and find the relief I did."-Mrs. Florence Holland, 622 S. Clifton St., Philadelphia, Pa. (Jan. 6, 1902.)

Another case of severe female trouble cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after the doctors had failed.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I was in poor health for several years. had female trouble and was not able to do my housework alone. felt tired, very nervous, and could not sleep. I doctored with several doctors. They doctored me for my stomach, but did not relieve me. read in your book about your medicine, and thought I would try it. I did so, and am now cured and able to do my work alone, and feel good. I was always very poor, but now weigh one hundred and fifty pounds.

I thank you for the relief I have obtained, and I hope that every woman troubled with female weakness will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I have recommended it to many of my friends." - Mrs. Maria Bowers, Millersville, Ohio. (Aug. 15, 1901.)

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all of the virtues of this medicine?

How shall the fact that it will help them be made plain? Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, and sick, and discoveraged, exhausted with each day's work. You have some derangement of the feminine organism, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as surely as it has others.

PATHOS IN CAREERS OF HORACE GREELEY AND FATHER

Are we so scon forgot when we are gone? The Tribune on Saturday save prominence to a telegram from Corry, Pa., which ran thus: "Fire early to-day destroyed the old Horace Treeley homestead, six miles from here. In this house Mr. Greeley spent the early years of his life." All the years of Horace Greeley's life up to the twentieth were spent in New Hampshire and Vermont. After he had taken to the road as a "jour" printer he visited his father, who had removed to the place near Corry, Pa., and worked on the farm there, a little, in the intervals of his typographical tasks. Not only was the place in no sense Greeley's early home, but he never really lived there. It was so little associated with his name that his friends and admirers, who knew his Yankee beginnings well, never connected him with it at all.

Premier Balfour and Golf.

It is an old golfing joke about the clergyman who was ready to give up the ministry for the game, but how about giving up the prime ministry? To that pitch of devotion Mr. Balfour came very near pledging himself the other day. Many can play the game as well as Mr. Balfour, but few can philosophize about it so satisfactorily. It "leads to no abuse," he maintained in the andress referred to, and then, mounting with his theme, he added: "It is capable of no excess!" That earnest golfer whom his wife caught at 2 a. m. practicing putting on the billiard table will thank the author of the "Foundations of Belief" for stating In due course, however, he buried the truth, without a particle of excess.

Eskimos' Sealskin Church.

The Eskimos possess the most remarkable place of worship in the world. It was a sealskin church. Forty sealskins were stretched over a little framework, and in this tent, 18 feet by 12 feet, services were held every Sunday. But the church came to an untimely end. One hard winter the Eskimos' dogs, being half famished, dined on the sealskins, and only the frame was left. The Eskimos have now erected a dog-proof taber-

Whitehall, Ill., June 8th.-Mr. Lon Manley had Bright's Disease and after his home doctor had treated him for some time he finally told him that he could do nothing more for him and that he would surely die.

A friend who had heard of what Dodd's Kidney Pills had done in cases of Kidney Trouble, advised Mr. Manley to try a treatment of this remedy.

He did so and everyone was surprised and delighted to see an improvement in a very short time. This improvement gradually kept on as the treatment proceeded, till now Mr. Manley is well. He says:
