The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shevport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching, protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Odendahl Bros.

W. D. Zimmerman, who has been chief clerk at O. F. Peterson's general store, left this week for Litchfield where he will go in the real-estate business. His brother Valentine will take his place in the store.

The upright to the mill is all raised and sheeted and the roof is being rapidly put on again. The workmen are now about as far along with the building as they were when the structure was leveled to the ground.

Those who wish to make donations, either large or small to the fund now being solicited to aid Mr. James Parshall in the rebuilding of the mill, can leave what ever amount they wish to give at the First Bank where all arrangements have been made to receive and give due credit for the same.

Mr. W. R. Mellor showed us some beautiful views of Yellowstone Park which were taken during their trip to the northwest. There are 65 in all and were taken by a lady, one of the party, while enroute Mr. and Mrs. Mellor and companions with camping outfit, appear in several of the scenes.

Picnicers Outing.

The A. O. U. W. picnic at Jenner's park was a grand success, there being 180 people on the grounds. The park is a pleasant resort and the picnicers were afforded a great opportunity to enjoy themselves. The program arranged for amusements was carried out to the letter and the dinner consisted of all the good things which the market affords.

Lost His Foot

While working with a threshing gang on the farm of Wm. Barid, John Bone met with a very sad accident in which he lost his foot. He was working on the horse power and was in the act of oiling it when the machine was in motion. His foot slipped in the bull wheel and the toes and a portion of the foot were crushed in a frightful manner, making amputation at the instep necessary. He was brought to town at once and taken to the home of A. J. Zimmerman when the foot was amputated at the instep. Dr. Grotham of St. Paul, with Dr. Main and Dr. Hendrickson of Loup City performed the operation and the patient is doing as well as could be expected. John is an industrious young man and his many friends deeply sympathize with him in his misfortune.

Family Re-union.

Mr. John Briggs, of Stroud, Lincoln county, Oklahoma, and brother of Mrs. Geo. W. Hunter came Wednesday to visit his sister for a couple of weeks. His coming was a great surprise to Mrs. Hunter as she was not looking for him. He was here eleven years ago. Mrs. Hunter's surprise is all the more complete for having received a letter from Mrs. Twedell of St. Joe, Mo. her only sister, informing her that she will be here about Monday. Mrs. Hunter and her brother and sister are all that remain of a large family of children and their meeting again is a pleasant re-union.

A Cut and Slash.

The Weekly State Journal, which for thirty-five years has been one dollar a year, will now be sent to new subscribers a whole year for 25 cents. Every family in Nebraska that does not have a daily paper should get the Weekly State Journal at this price, 25 cents a year.

A big eight or ten paged newspaper published every Friday, with all the news of the world, all of Neb. news in particular and full of good reading matter for the whole family. At this price you cannot only afford to take it yourself, but can send it to your friends in other states. All you have to do is send your name and address with a quarter to the Weekly State Journal, Lincoln Neb. Why not send in your order at once?

Biamond & Miller have closed out their butcher shop and have turned the building and tools over to Mr. John Eggers, the owner. We understand that the shop will remain closed for at least a while. This being the case we will have but one meat shop in town. To tell the truth it is all the market affords now. Mr. Reynolds says that he will continue as ever, to sell meat at the same price as when he had competition. He is a first class butcher with many years experience. His meats are always fresh and nice. He has been alone in the business here before and the people have had the full benefit of proper weight and fair treatment and we have no hesitency in saying that he will continue to do justice to all his customers.

They Meet Again.

August Reiman, accompanied by Geo. D. Ashworth of Long Pine, Boone county, Neb. and C. B. Neteer of Columbus, Ohio made this office a pleasant call Monday morning. Messrs Ashworth and Neteer are here visiting Mr. Reiman and it is their first meeting since they parted company in 1866 when they were mustered out of service in Company K., 6th., West Va. Cavalary, where they served in the war from '61 to '66. Both Mr. Ashworth and Mr. Neteer were at one time during that memorable campaign taken prisoners and lodged in Libby prison and Mr. Reiman narrowly escaped the same fate by crawling in an empty pork barrel to get under shelter during a storm and by accident he was left behind and made his way back to his regiment without further molestation. Mr. Reiman is having a jolly good visit with his comrades.

S. A. Allen, dentist of Omaha, in company with T. L. Pilger, were pleasant callers Saturday. Mr. Allen is quite favorably impressed with Loup City and has opened up a dental office in the cloak room of Pilger's opera house. He has all the modern equipments and everything to render operations painless and satisfactory. He is a pleasant gentleman and we bespeak for him a good business. His professional card may be seen in another column of this paper.

Newton Pilger arrived in the city Wednesday and will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pilger, for a couple of weeks. He just returned from Lead City, South Dakota, where he has been working in the Homestake mines for the past three months. He reports having seen our old friend Will Nelk and says that Will is doing well.
