O. Benschoter lost a red pig this week. Weight about 40 pounds. Any information as to its whereabouts will be thankfully received.

Rickard O'Bryan returned to Grand Island last Wednesday to again take up his position as breakman between Grand Island and North Platte.

W. D. Zimmerman, one of the hustling land agents of Litchfield was in the city Monday. He is well pleased with his new location at Litchfield.

C. F. Beushausen, of Ashton, and populist candidate for county clerk, was at the county seat Friday presumably looking after his political fence.

The Mason City Star has gone back to the regular newspaper form of publication. That is just what they all do after trying the magazine style awhile.

A little baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dennis last Sunday. It is the first born and in mention it Mr. Dennis naturally grows a little taller and remarks that "She's all right!"

Mrs. A. O. Hendrickson will soon move to Kearney where she will join her husband and make their future home. Mr. Hendrickson now has steady employment as mail agent between Omaha and Kearney.

Wm. Rettenmayer is papa again and has another son to manage. The little fellow is of the regulation size and weight and took up his residence at the Rettenmayer home last Saturday morning. William feels like wearing a plug hat.

The great Ravenna Carnival and Old Settlers Re-union which was held at that place last week was a decided success. Quite a good many people from Loup City were in attendance and report a very large crowd and a well conducted program.

The postoffice at Rockville was burglarized Wednesday of last week. The thief blew open the safe and got fifty cents for their trouble. We did not get any further particulars except that the safe was greatly damaged. No trace of the robbers has yet been found.

Rev. Kennedy, our Baptist minister was at Central City last week in attendance at the district association. He reports that he secured the next association meeting to convene at Loup City next August. Mr. Kennedy is to be congratulated upon his successful effort to get this appointment at Loup City as such meeting are of great public interest and have a tendency to draw people here not only temporarily but for permanent homes.

Lewis Bechthold will have a cattle sale at the Round Front barn in Loup City, Saturday, October 3rd, when he will offer for sale 30 head of cattle, one fine high grade Red Durham bull and the rest are cows, heifers and steers. The sale will be conducted by Jacob Albers auctioneer, and one year time will be given by purchaser giving note with approved security and drawing ten per cent per annum. 5 per cent discount for cash on all sums over ten dollars. All sums under ten dollars to be cash without discount.

C. H. Plambeck, of Ashton township was a pleasant caller last week. Mr. Plambeck has gone quite extensively into the dairy business. During the best months of the season he has realized from the sale of cream alone nearly $50.00 per month. He thinks that it is the best business that the farmer could engage in, but is afraid that in time it will be over done. Mr. Plambeck, or any other dairy man need have any fear of the creamery business being over done so long as the laboring men are kept employed and are earning the present high wages. They will consume all the butter that can be produced and at a good price. Even now when the production is so enormous the price of butter and cream has a steady upward tendency and the demand for the article is steadily increasing.

By special request Miss Amanda Vanscoy will relate some experiences on "Life in New York City," Saturday evening September 26, at 8 p. m., in the S. D. A. church.

Chas. Gasteyer has placed on his counter a set of the Stinson computing scales. They are probably the most accurate scale in use to-day and will prove available acquisition to the trade.

A girl's "complexion" may be stamped on her lover's heart, but most of their 'complexion' comes off unless put there by Rocky Mountain Tea. "Powder's a bad thing." 35 cents. Sold by Odendahl Bros.

J. T. Hale and S. S. Hover, having traded residence property have been busy transferring the household goods and furniture this week. Of course Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Hover had not a little to do with the transfer.

Adam Zahn of Elm township was doing business in town Monday. He says that the people of his township are pleased with the republican nominations for county office and that the republican vote in that part of the county will be materially increased this fall.

Jas. Depew has just finished making a machine for threshing cucumbers. It is the invention of Mr. F. P. Peterson and will be used on his farm south east of Loup City to thresh the seeds from a large field of cucumbers. It is said that the seed from this crop will amount to enough in value to pay for the farm.

Chas. Reidel who sold his farm some weeks ago is contemplating a trip to California this fall to look up a new location. If the country suits him he will doubtless invest in some property there and arrange to leave here some time during next summer. This community can ill afford to lose Mr. and Mrs. Reidel as they are among our very best citizens.

Report comes to us that the U. P. depot at Dannebrog was broken into last week and a gold watch belonging to the depot agent, C. R. Conger and a box of jewelry belonging to his wife, were stolen. The stolen property amounted in value to about $50.00. The thieves gained entrance to the building by prying up the window. Their whereabouts has not yet been discovered.

The family and house hold goods of Attorney Robert P. Starr arrived Saturday noon. Robert says he rejoices, not only in the family consolidation, but also in the fact that unlike the populist organ the NORTHWESTERN will not state that he is visiting at his home in Aurora every time he goes out side of the county. He has tried for weeks to get a house to move his family into and has only recently succeeded.

Don't forget that we have all kinds of display type, we have added over 50 fonts of display and job type faces to our plant this year and get out the finest lot of sale bills you have about ever seen. Your job of sale bills don't have to be of the old stereotyped form that was got out last week for the other fellow if you get it done at this office. We can and do change the form on every bill that goes out, unless you expressly want it like the other fellows. Come and get a sample of our work.

James Drake, of Key, Arkansas made this office a pleasant call last Tuesday morning. He drove over from Mason City where himself and wife have been visiting their son John for the past three weeks. Mr. Drake was one of the pioneer settlers of this county but moved to Arkansas a few years ago where they have been prospering both in health and in a financial way. Mr. Drake is looking well and says that his wife has increased nearly 60 pounds in weight since the change of climate. They will return to their Arkansas home next week.

Archie Todd was the victim of a most painful and shocking accident yesterday by which he loses an eye. He was plowing with a riding plow and dropped one of the lines from his hand. He bent quickly forward to recover it, bring his eye violently in contact with one of the levers, the sharp end striking in such a manner that one of his eyes was forced clear out of its place and dropped to the ground. He came into town at once to procure medical assistance, and he is doing as well as could be expected. Archie has the sympathy of all in this serious mishap.—Arcadia Champion

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

(BY MISS ELLA FOSTER.)

Winnifred Leach is a new member of the junior class.

Our school can boast of two base ball nines, namely the first and second.

Miss Lela Chase, a graduate of our school, departed for Crete, Neb., Monday noon to attend Doane College.

Mr. Nicolson is again in school after a few days absence, owing to sickness. Miss Hickman taught his room during his absence.

There are five non-resident pupils in the high school; three in the ninth and two in the tenth grades.

Dean Leach and Ervin Rowe have entered the sixth grade.

The score of the nine-inning ball game played at the school house last week was won by the second nine by a score of 23 to 20. Ray V. Kearns umpire.

Hemple Jones has entered the seventh grade.

Mrs. Geo. Leininger and Miss Lela Chase taught Miss Hickman's room the latter part of last week.

Miss Jessie Culley was a high school visitor last week.

Romeo Conger is attending school again this fall.

Clifton Rowe, Mable Daddow, Fern Rowe, Henrietta Conger, Eva Frakes, Vance Holcomb, Ray Bradley, Edna Daddow and Robert Keith are all new pupils.

The base ball game between Loup City and Boelus which was played on the Loup City grounds Tuesday, although very interesting was not attended by a very large crowd.

The Boelus boys arrived on the noon train and the game was called promptly at 1 o'clock p. m. This hour was named in the hope that the full nine innings could be played before the usual train time at 3 o'clock, and on which the boys must return home the same afternoon. However only seven even innings were played when Conductor Taylor and Engineer O'Bryan, who were among the much interested spectators announced that the great Overland was about to make her return trip southward. Thus ended a pretty contest and the Boelus boys, all big husky good natured fellows hurriedly gathered up their effects and wended their way to the depot. The Boelus team consisted of Jessen, catcher, Woten, pitcher, F. Hegdlin, Groat, Thompson, Will Quept, Walt Quept L. Hedglin, and H. O'Bryan. The Loup City nine were composed of Johnson catcher, Knight, pitcher, Waite, Pierce, Mellor, Majors, Depew, Oltman, Winkleman and O'Bryan. At the end of the last inning Loup City was credited with 14 scores and Boelus with 7.

Don't fail to see Prof. A. L. Joy, the great American Hypnotist at the opera house this week. Mr. Joy is an artist in his line and has the best of reference. Reserve Seats on sale at the first door west of opera house. Admission, 15, 25 and 35 cents. Prof. Joy wishes to employ a young man to travel with him as a subject. He will pay good wages and give employment to first of May, perhaps much longer.

The Baptist Aid Society will give a New England dinner at Society hall on Saturday, October 3rd., beginning at 11:30 a. m. Lunch in the afternoon. Supper from 5:30 to 7:30. The proceeds of this dinner is to go towards putting a furnace in the church.

Auto With a Searchlight.

An automobile seen lately had mounted on its turtle back, forward, a sizable searchlight, useful, presumably, for revealing the nature of country roads for two or three hundred yards ahead, on straight and level stretches.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Sheveport, La. says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching, protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Odendahl Bros.
