The Times says vote the populist ticket so they can keep the paper up. It says: "With populist officers we receive the patronage" and "with republican officers it goes to the other fellow." Well the Times has had the patronage for the last thirteen years and we have kept our paper up during that time without it. So then it is necessary to vote the pop ticket to keep the Times up. Well, if your ticket should happen to get defeated we will occasionally lend you a column or two of second hand miscellaneous reading. New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Odendahl Bros.

ARE YOU FOOLISH?

Boy,— Say, Pa, what do they mean by saying "Penny wise and pound foolish?"

Father,— Why, it's where a man loses a dollar to save a nickle.

Boy,— Well, Pa, were you that way when you let your hogs die because you did not want to pay out money for Liquid Koal that John Solms sells so much of.

Father,— Johnnie, don't talk so much.

National Medicine Co. Coleridge Neb., Dec. 13, 1902.

Sirs:—I can say that I am more than pleased with Liquid Koal. A year ago last October my hogs took sick and I tried every thing I could think of but no good came of it. So your agent Kirkpatrick came along and I took a can of Liquid Koal. I had about 90 hogs all sick, I shut them up in a small pen and made every hog take his medicine and I saved one half of my hogs. If I had not used Liquid Koal I am sure I would not have saved a hog. I think a man stands in his own light that does not keep Liquid Koal on hand. Use this as you see fit.

Yours WM. LOMBARD.
