

PLAN Then Act

Many people plan their whole lives to have a bank account and then leave this world without so much as a start at one. Planning isn't worth anything unless followed by action. Good intentions never land you anywhere. Make your plans to start an account with us this week and back up your plans with action.

Misses Grace and Beulah Byerly, of Anamosa, Iowa, are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. J. C. Tourtellot.
 The county fathers adjourned last Saturday as a Board of Equalization and did the handsome thing of making a blanket reduction of 25 per cent from the outrageous assessment of Loup City property. And even some properties have been lowered from that without unjust action.
 W. S. Peterson has just returned from a trip to Minnesota. This is the third time that Mr. Peterson has investigated Northern Minnesota and he has purchased a piece of land on each and every trip. He has had a wide experience in travel and looking at land and considers Northern Minnesota an excellent buy.
 The ladies of the Birthday club entertained their husbands at the home of editor and Mrs. Beushausen last Friday evening. The home was "lit" with electricity furnished by Clarence Sweetland's private plant which was attached to the lights which he has installed ready when the lights get to going.
 And this week comes the National Democratic powwow at Baltimore. To those who fear the defeat of the republican party this fall and the elevation of democracy to power, we ask that they wait the result of the Baltimore convention. If all precedents are not broken, democracy can be relied upon to make enough of blunders to cause their defeat, in spite of any mistakes the republican party may make.
 Jay Cole's big bay dray team indulged in an exciting runaway last Saturday afternoon, but fortunately did little damage. Starting near Makowski's store, they circled around the corner and started down the street west, but before they gained much headway they struck a wagon filled with dirt, parted company with their wagon and ended more scared than hurt. For a time it looked as though one horse would be killed, but beyond a few scratches the animal came out as good as new.
 We understand Mrs. Gene Patton, who went to Rochester, Minn., some time since to be operated upon for an ophthalmic goiter, will be home shortly, the physician deciding to give the lady treatment till fall to prepare her physical condition better to withstand the operation, which is claimed to be most difficult and dangerous.
 The special sale at Vic Swanson's on Dry Goods continues this week only. Do not pay high prices for Dry Goods when you can buy the same merchandise at from one-third to one-half less at Vic Swanson's special sale. Special for Saturday—shoes worth up to $4.00 per pair, your choice $1.50. Always look in our display window for Fruit. We handle the best.
 VIC SWANSON,
 The House of Quality.
McFadden-Stuthelt.
 Miss Anna Stuthelt and Mr. Ernest McFadden were married at the Methodist Episcopal church at half past seven o'clock in the morning, Tuesday, June 25. Rev. Dr. Leeper officiated with the beautiful ring ceremony.
 The affair was characterized through out by quiet elegance and the only guests were the near relatives of the contracting parties.
 The bride wore white voile over white silk and carried a shower bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley and white roses.
 Miss Lucy Fowler attended the bride and wore pink crepe de chine, carried pink sweet peas and had a band of pink velvet in her hair.
 Mr. Arthur Conger was best man, he and the groom wearing the conventional black.
 Miss Ernestine Odendahl played the wedding march, and wore a white serge gown and pink roses.
 The church was handsomely decorated with potted plants, cut flowers and white ribbon.
 Following the ceremony, Mrs. Viola Odendahl gave an elegant five course breakfast at her beautiful home. The parlors were decorated with ropes of springaria and cut flowers. And the many beautiful gifts were displayed and admired. The dining room was elaborately decorated with pink sweet peas and asparagus fern. A beautiful cluster of four white bells hung directly over the breakfast table where the gracious hostess presided in a gown of black and white Parisian tissue trimmed with black velvet and white lace. The breakfast was served by Mrs. Frederick Odendahl and Mrs. Terry Hillsbeck.
 After a trip to the southern and eastern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. McFadden will be at home in Loup City.
 These present at the ceremony besides the bride and groom were Dr. and Mrs. Leeper, Miss Margaret Stuthelt, sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Fadden, parents of the groom, Miss Ruth McFadden, sister of the groom, Mr. C. Oltjenbruns and family, uncle and cousins of the bride.
