

PLAN

Then Act

Many people plan their whole lives to have a bank account and then leave this world without so much as a start at one. Planning isn't worth anything unless followed by action.

Good intentions never land you anywhere.

Make your plans to start an account with us this week and back up your plans with action.

A tornado near Winnipeg, Canada, Monday of this week, killed over fifty persons, and injured scores more. The city of Regina was devastated and the wreckage of the main part of the city was awful.

G. H. Gibson is on the program at Zephyrhills, Fla., to deliver the Declaration of Independence at their Fourth of July celebration. Great Jehovah; can't you imagine how Georgie will swell out on the occasion?

E. G. Taylor autoed to Ravenna, Litchfield, Ansley and on up to Broken Bow, Monday on business, expecting to return that evening from the round trip, but guess he ran into too much rain and bad roads, as he failed to make his schedule time and took a day longer to make it.

S. A. Pratt on Monday of this week moved his pool hall from its old quarters south of the State Bank building into the room vacated by the post-office. Later, when Felix Makowski moves into his new building, the old postoffice room will be lengthened to the alley north, and the Makowski present quarters changed into office rooms, we understand.

C. Oltjenbruns, taking his big Buick touring car loaded with enthusiastic Epworth Leaguers last Thursday headed for Ansley, the seat of the district convention. Those attending were Misses Francis Sweetland, Orpha Outhouse, Florence Dewey, Maybelle and Zoe Leeper and Dr. Leeper. An enjoyable and profitable time was reported.

An elegant rain of nearly an inch visited Loup City Monday, commencing a short ways west of the city, at noon and continued a gentle falling the better part of the afternoon, and Monday night giving a downpour in addition that was a souser. The noon rain on Monday washed about three-quarters of a mile of track out just east of Schaupp's, compelling the east bound freight on the B. & M. to return to this city and delaying the passenger till a late hour before the track could be gotten into condition for the train to pass over it.

During the storm of Monday noon, lightning struck a large tree in front of Albert Johnson's town cottage, tearing it to pieces and throwing large splinters and bark across the street and into the lawn of J. P. Leininger's residence. The thunder was so loud and the lightning so sharp that everywhere over the city people looked around in the near vicinity to see where it struck. Those within a block or more of the scene received severe shocks and the telephone wires cracked like so much burning bush.

As per announcement in Northwestern columns, last week, the post-office was moved into its new quarters west of the public square in the building especially built for its accommodation by the Cement Block Co., owned and operated by Messrs. Zimmerman and Stout. The moving of the postoffice occurred late on Saturday afternoon and placed in full position that night under the full glare of electric lights furnished ahead of time by the electric light company, as promised a few days earlier. A slight hitch in getting the wires stretched by the company, caused by the strike of linemen the latter part of the week was overcome in time to put in temporary lights direct from the power house. The scene was very pretty and gave evidence of what electric lighting will do toward beautifying our city after the shades of night come upon us.

Our advertised sale is closed but still we have big bargains in dry goods and will meet any and all prices our competitors give you and then some, sale or no sale. Don't get excited at large bills being circulated, but come to Vic Swanson's where you get low prices and absolutely know you get quality. Drop in before you buy and be convinced that we can save you money.
VIC SWANSON,
The House of Quality.

Ex-Senator Burkett says on his returned from Baltimore that the newspapers have been unable to give an adequate idea of the feeling of bitterness toward Mr. Bryan among the pie hunting delegates. When one of the demonstrations was on Mr. Burkett made himself offensive to a democratic delegate by showing a good deal of enthusiasm for his fellow Nebraskan.

"Aw, shut up," said the democrat with disgust written all over his features. "We have been licked three times under that man, and we want somebody we can win with."
"I don't care," said Burkett, between hurrahs, "I'm a republican, I don't care whether you ever get up to the trough or not."—State Journal.

Girls wanted at the Bon Ton Cafe to help today (the Fourth) Call early.

H. P. Ferdinandt, who since he sold his furniture business to L.Banks Hale, has been assisting Mr. Hale in getting used to the business, leaves this noon for his future home in Elmore, Minn., where he will have charge of the furniture and undertaking departments of a large department store. Mrs. Ferdinandt and the children having preceded him to their new home some two or three months ago. Mr. Ferdinandt has been a live wire among our business men, a good friend of the newspapers, and goes from among us with the best wishes of all for his future success in all ways. Should Ferd ever take a notion to return to our city he will be given a warm welcome and our business interests will be bettered thereby.

The Northwestern is forging ahead. This week we print six pages and our merchants are showing their appreciation by giving us over twenty-five columns of advertising this week, two of our merchants, A. E. Chase and L.Banks Hale, coming out with a page each. Read the advertisements and see the big bargains Loup City merchants have for you.

Because we have not had much say the past week or two about the Harvest Festival this fall, you must not think it has passed into innocuous disuse, so to speak, as the committee has raised nearly $1300 and next week we will begin to boom the Festival. All is ready for matters to go ahead and the Festival will be held and the biggest thing ever put forth in Loup City. The Festival will occur the last of August. More next week.
