A NEW DARKEY MUSIC BY THE NASHVILLE SERENADERS

And Yet There is a Retaining of the Sweet Melodies of the Old South.

The Nashville Serenaders is the opening musical attraction on our Chautauqua this summer.
The old southern darkey melodies have always been popular. There have been jubilee singers on the Chautauqua platform almost since there was a Chautauqua. They sang plantation melodies and songs of the old darkey
camp-meeting.

And although there was much in the

The Nashville Serenaders
music of the southern darkey of a score of years ago that appealed to popular audiences because of its native richness, its popularity might soon have died out.

The jubilee company was first a novelty and "it took." But there was a lack of training apparent. And as is the case in the presenting of music
from year to year whether at a Chautauqua or at any other time, standards must constantly be raised, because tastes are being educated to a better and better music.

And the old jubilee company's lack of training failed them.
Now we have a new jubilee company.
They have been trained. The members of this company were selected from the largest and strongest negro schools of the Southland where large and powerful conservatories have been built up and the negro has had the advantage of a refining and cultivating influence.

Ralph Dunbar is the organizing genius at the head of the department of organization for the Redpath Lyceum Bureau.

He is the organizer of the Nashville Serenaders, and their success has been phenomenal in the presenting of a new class of darkey music, retaining the sweet melodies of the old South.
In their ten weeks' engagement with the Redpath-Horner Chautauquas, this company makes ten Sunday appearances. This Sunday program is made up altogether of sacred music.

They will be here one day only.

The East Waking Up.
Even the old staid East has become alive to the Chautauqua's worth. The Chautauqua was started in the East fifty years ago on old Chautauqua Lake in New York. But it was the one Eastern Chautauqua that amounted to much. It is the West that has made the Chautauqua what it is today. The State of Nebraska alone has eighty-one summer assembles. The Redpath-Horner Chautauquas number one hundred and thirty-five, all between the Missouri and the Rockies; there are more than sixty Redpath-Horner Chautauquas between the Missouri and the Mississippi, and the Redpath Lyceum Bureau manages thirty-six Chautauquas out of Chicago.
That makes a total of two hundred and forty. This summer a Chautauqua system has been started in the East, which already has a healthy growth.

Let up for a Week

You like music, entertainment and lectures by big, brainy men.

A week of letting-up in your work—of mixing recreation and care—is none too much.

If you are a busy person, you need the inspiration of this Chautauqua. You will get a thousand new ideas, and old ideas you will see in a new way.

It's worth what it costs—15 cents a number—IF you have a season ticket—worth that much to you and every member of the family.

Get the tickets and all go.

Loup City to get Canada-to Gulf Line

President Beushausen, of the Commercial Club, has received a letter from the promoters of the Canada-to-the-Gulf Line to be placed before the club to ask for the following information:

General statistics and information about Sherman county and Loup City.

Plat showing the best route for railroad grade from either Pleasanton or Ravenna to Loup City and from Loup City northward to a point on the north side of Davis Creek township in Valley county, say at the northwest corner of Sec. 3-17-14 and the northeast corner of Sec. 4-17-14, giving special reference to an easy grade and slight curvature and notations, or a letter stating why it is the best route.

The above is asked for to be made into exhibits and with a large amount of similar information forwarded to London.

The projectors write: Loup City is almost the only city between Hutchinson, Kas., and Carrington N. Dak., that we have not had the pleasure of meeting the Commercial Club, but when we passed through your city we were in somewhat of a hurry and only met two or three of your gentlemen—Mr. L. Hansen and yourself. We are trying to get this road built and believe we now have the money secured. We have just returned from Carrington. The London men were highly pleased with the entire route. They are about now arriving in England and expect to return in August with engineers. The route you advise should be the best obtainable and the one that will stand the test when tried out by the engineers. Keep in mind that the desire is to find the best route from Kearney to Loup City and Ord by the most direct route.

Who can read between the lines and fall to see that Loup City has the best of chances for being on the line of the new proposed Canada-to-the-Gulf road?

The prohibition party is going to beat Teddy Roosevelt's new party to it, by capturing the name "progressive" as their new party title.

The Fourth of 1912

This year's glorious fourth was received in this section with a goodly quantity of moisture, enthusiasm and happy feeling. The day opened fine, and because of the rains preceding on a couple of days, everybody welcomed the day with gladness and it seemed to continue one round of pleasure. But the people made no reckoning with Jupiter Pluvius, who without consulting the people, concluded to give them one of his glorious downpours. Old J. P. waited till the afternoon, when everybody was everywhere he, she or it wished to go in their holiday attire and good feelings, when he opened his flood gates and let 'er went with a good and plenty.

Jenner's Park opened early for the big crowds, which came in on the early trains, and wagons, autos and other conveyances, filling our streets and the boulevard leading to the park and the day continued in its best behaviour till about the middle of the afternoon, when a heavy cloud came up from the south and shortly after gave old nature and humanity at the park and all who were not fortunate enough to get under shelter, a splendid drenching, splendid because it provided the thirsty earth with a moisture at once welcome by both drenched and dry humanity. The ball game between Loup City and Ashton second nines had reached the second half of the sixth inning and stood 3 to 3, when just as Loup City had scored one inning the rain came, the game was called off and the home team was declared winner in as pretty and closely contested game as had been seen on the Loup City diamond. And you should have seen the crowd at the finish—dainty white dresses bedraggled, hats ruined, fine clothes soaked, shoes resembling mud scowts—those of the male sasion, we mean, stalking through the moist mixture of clay and water—oh 'twas fine. Down in the park, the vaudeville show had just gotten under full sway the booths were parting the kids from their money, glee and merriment in full tune, when all at once a change came over the spirit of their day dreams of a big day and the booths opened in full force. However a half hour later Old Sol came out, began his drying process and by nightfall the park was again alive to the festivities of the day and brought a good finish of fireworks and the dance and the amusement features were kept going, the latter lasting till midnight and after. The fireworks were the best ever given by Mr. Jenner, and equal in number and splendor to those given at Grand Island the same day. The park was beautifully lighted with electricity furnished by our electric lighting plant, and while the whole day was a losing financial game to the park management because of the rain god, yet it did not deter Mr. Jenner from giving the patrons of his fine resort everything possible on the program.

Owing to the numerous Fourth of July celebrations over the county and in other towns, the crowd in Loup City was correspondingly smaller. Comstock caught a goodly number of our town people, because our first baseball team was on there to beat Arcadia, which they did to a nicety, winning by the general slaughter of the Arcadia innocents by a score of 15 to 0. This took the Arcadians to Comstock, who usually come to Loup City to celebrate, besides taking away so many of our own people.

Numerous celebrations throughout Sherman county also depleted the crowd here, Wiggle Creek having one on which was a success, despite the fact that they caught the same big rain which visited this city.

Up at Batille grove the celebrators were more fortunate as they escaped our big rain, it not reaching beyond the river on the west. They report a fine time there.

Grand Island failed to take a large number from here, only some 31 round trip tickets being sold, but the extra train up from there made up for the loss from Rockville, Boelus and other points nearer the Island. Those who went down, however, report a big time.

Only one accident has been reported as occurring at Loup City the Fourth, being caused by the heavy wind attachment to the storm blowing out the temporary board front of Makowski's new building, injuring the back of Mr. John Trompke, a farmer living down near Austin, who was struck by the falling boards in passing the building. However, he was not seriously injured. There were no other accidents from any of the nearby celebrations so far as reported.

All in all, the day was a most enjoyable one in the main, and will pass into history as the most safe and sane on record.

Notes of New Road

A mass meeting of citizens was called at Minden last week to further consider the proposition of the Kearney & Beloit railroad and in getting them to change their survey and enter Minden. The question of getting this road is one that Minden regards with a good deal of importance.

The Broken Bow people and officials of the Commercial club there are looking up the question of the proposed north and south line for which Kearney recently voted bonds. The Broken Bow people are asking for information on the project, and if the road is to be built, will work to secure it for their town.

The promoters of the Canada-to-the-Gulf railroad were in Atsworth last week. A mass meeting of the citizens met at the Commercial Club rooms to hear from the promoters and what the road proposes to do. A committee was appointed to investigate the proposed route and see what could be done to interest officials in running the road through Brown county.
