RINER SISTERS AND MISS LATHROP CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

The Riner Sisters and Bernice Lathrop are coming as one of the musical companies Chautauqua Week. There are two of the Riner sisters. And this is by no means their first summer in Chautauqua work. They

The Riner Sisters, made a tour last summer, filling sixty or seventy Chautauqua engagements in the largest Chautauquas of Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota and Wisconsin, what is "the East" in affairs Chautauqua. Their home is in Chicago and that is where they received their musical training. Their week-day program is clever and novel all the way through. Their Sunday program, in towns where they appear on Sunday, is finely appropriate to the day.

Bernice Lathrop with the Riner Sisters.
Miss Lathrop—also a Chicago girl—comes from a thoroughly musical family. She is the accompanist of the company. She toured the South last winter in a series of engagements with Sophia Stephall, a soprano of more than national reputation, and scored a big success everywhere. She is a petite and dainty little miss who knows music and knows what a piano is for. The Riner Sisters and Bernice Lathrop will be here one day Chautauqua Week, one of the delightful features in music.

A Protest From the Chautauqua Baby.
Dear Mamma and Papa:
I have never been given a square deal at the Chautauqua, and I thought I would tell you about it this year before it was too late. Please don't take me 'way down into the tent and sit me on your lap away from the good air. My lungs are not as large as yours and it's awfully hot and stuffy down there, because I can't get the breezes as you do, and then I soon have to fret and cry. I am not used to wearing hoods or hats at home and when I have to wear these tight things for two or three hours they make my ears burn and my head hot. I hate to cry and disturb the Chautauqua, but just can't help it. If I decide to take a little nap someone near gets tickled and claps, or the man talking is a little loud and disturbs me, but it is the only way I know to do. If you would just put a little cotton in my ears I might sleep on, and then no one would be disturbed. And want you please get a Chautauqua night gown and put it on before the night lecture, so when it gets my bed time I can go to sleep without cooing so long to be undressed. If it wasn't that it is such a long hot week for us little fellows, I would not ask for these little favors.
Your loving
BABY.

Helen Bradford Paulsen, in charge of the Junior Chautauqua, Chautauqua Week, is the head of a large school in which playground instructors are trained. She is one of the greatest exponents of children's play, as placed on an intelligent and not an altogether scientific basis. She believes that with a little care boys' and girls' play can be directed in a way that will be of great benefit in after years. And she believes in more fun for boys and girls, not less fun. The Junior department will be a big feature of the Chautauqua.

The redoubtable Mike Harrington of O'Neill has taken another hitch in his political pants and gone over into the Roosevelt camp. Mike is a democrat and like so many of the democrats of the north is always ready to get into any new political camp which has for its aim the defeat of the "domed old republican party," and in this Mike never disappoints the people. He went off with the howling pups, was an ardent greenbacker, had the anti-monop fever, got the grange itch, swapped everything for free silver at 16 to 1, and when there was nothing in sight to "jine," raised merry sheel with his demo candidate s (see one Harman for particulars). Yes, Mike is a true Irishman's flea, and way in the lead among the brainiest men in the state, barring his non-staying political qualities. Perhaps Mike is afraid of being called a standpatter by standing Pat in one political position too long at any one time.

The State Fair, Sept. 2-6, grows bigger and better every year. In addition to all the exhibits, and attractions of the great fair of 1911, the management have secured the entire Cheyenne Frontier Days Show to move bag and baggage down to Lincoln. That includes a tribe of real Sioux Indians, Champion Lady Rough Riders, Real Cowboys, 70 of the greatest outlaw horses of the world, the only team of Buffalo broken to drive. This will all be given in front of the grand stand afternoon and evening each day.

Sweet Singer of Schill

We have been afraid of it. Our old friend, Geo. E. Benschoter of Schill, Neb., has broken into the ranks of the dreamy-eyed poets. And he used to control the destinies of the North-western, too. Wonder if the thing is catching? We hope not. So far, we have been immune. However, the the inspiration is worthy of note. Hop to it:
Now that Taft has gained the day,
I feel inclined to holler,
And as my sub is in arrear
I send to you (and a half) a dollar.
Please give me credit on your book,
It has eased my mind already.
Just whoop'er up for Howard Taft
And shoot it into Teddy.
Give Col(?) Bryan a little praise
For being abie—hark!
To swing to Wilson delegates
That Nebraska sent for Clark.
For the G. O. P. we all will shout,
Keep the Taft campaign a-humming
Now check me up with running gear
And keep the paper coming.
