J. W. BURLEIGH, Ed. and Pub

The republican county convention will be held Saturday, July 27th, in Loup City. See call on first page.

What name will Teddy's new party take if the prohibs capture the "progressive" title?

La Follette is "agin" or "yit" a candidate for president, and is fixing his political eye on the nomination four years hence. No wonder the pompous gentleman is not in favor of a third party.

LaFollette was not satisfied with his first attack on the devoted headgear of Roosevelt, and again rubs it in last week in an article in his paper. The first thing Bobby knows, the president will get his war paint on and annihilate the Wisconsin statesman.

Gov. Eberhart of Minnesota runs the risk of wounding Teddy's feelings by refusing to have anything to do with the third party idea. Teddy will now have the same opinion of Eberhart he has of Gov. Osborn of Michigan.

Eugene Chafin has again been nominated by the prohibs as their candidate for president. He seems to have as strong a cinch on the dry fellows as Eugene Debbs has on the socialist following. It is possible the two Eugenes are the only big men in their parties.

"Harvest Hands Needed," is the cry of farmers at the present time. Never mind. Perhaps this country may conclude this fall to go over to democracy, and then farmers can secure all the help needed by feeding them on soup. That's what democracy can do to relieve the situation.

It must be in the air. The republicans caught it at Chicago, the democrats were innoculated at Baltimore, the national prohib convention had their specimen performance and the national teachers showed that fighting, fusing, fuming, fault findings, and merry hell generally was not to be confined to party politics, but that the he and she school-maams had certain inalienable rights in the same direction. Now if the "kissing bug" could only supercede the "fighting bug" in the coming campaign, what "smacking times could be had."

We see by dispatches in the dailies that the noted Pat Crowe, who kidnapped the son of Millionaire Cudahy in Omaha some years since, is serving a 30-day sentence in jail at Davenport, Iowa, for intoxication. After Pat had spent the $20,000 he skinned Cudahy out of, he turned evangelist and made a great spread in Chicago as a gospel shark, but the natural hellishness of the scoundrel could not be shaken off and subsequent reports showed him to be an unregenerated scoundrel still and after repeated troubles in his latter stunts it seems, has returned to his original vomit. Why will church people be so easily confounded and disgrace the cause of Christ by countenancing men of the Pat Crowe class, as they so often do?

The World-Herald seems the only one of the great dailies that persistently tries to ignore the fact of Bryan's domination of the Democratic national convention at Baltimore. The W.-H. is about as badly off in this regard as Sandy Griswold, its sporting editor, was in reporting the Johnson-Flynn fight.

July 13 was a hoodoo for Lorimer, as on that day the senate, by a vote of 55 to 28 concluded he was guilty of bribery in securing his election to the United States senate and retired him to private life. In this they over-ruled the "bunk" committee that had given him a clean bill. It is to be hoped this will be a wholesome lesson to other millionaires who intend buying their way into the upper house of American lords.

Along R. R. No. 2.

Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Burwell and daughter visited last Sunday at the home of James BeBeth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Daddow, Mr. and Mrs. Don Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burt spent last Sunday at the Clark Allenman home.

Albert Snyder and family, and Miss Lulu Brodock took dinner last Sunday with Alfred Jorgensen and family.

Mr. Iossi spent Monday last with Jesse McFadden.

N. T. Daddow and family spent Sunday at the home of Henry Kuhl.

Miss Lettie Pugh visited with her sister, Mrs. B. Emery last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cash visited last Sunday at W. H. Brodock's.

J. E. Roush and family, Robert Hamer and wife and Roland Goodwin Sunday at Henry Goodwin's.

The ladies aid society will meet with Mrs. Goodwin Thursday afternoon, July 18th.

John Ohlson helped Art Wilson with his wheat harvest last week.

Miss Lulu Brodock is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Daddow.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daddow visited last Sunday at the Vern Allenman home.

Ira Daddow and family and Wilber Curry and family visited at Frank Daddow's last Sunday.

There was a good attendance at the Wiggle Creek Sunday school last Sunday, some 80 in all.

Herman Jung lost a horse by lightning the afternoon of the Fourth.

Edgar Foster visited at Russel Curry's last Sunday.

J. Plambeck cut John Kocimb's wheat last Saturday.

Misses Lulu and Maggie McFadden, and Bernice Casteel, in company with several other ladies, will leave Saturday night for several weeks' outing at Dorris Lake. Pete Ogle will take them in his auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Criss and family spent last Sunday at the Lofholm home in Loup City.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Snyder and family came near having a serious accident going down the Cemetery Hill last Sunday. Mr. Snyder was driving a colt, which shied at the holes in the road, and before the team could be stopped they had broken the neckyoke and the wagon landed against the side of a cut and the team broke loose from the buggy. Had the vehicle continued down the hill some of them would surely have been injured.

Another light shower visited the south part of the route Sunday. South of the route three miles, there was water standing in the road the next morning.

In ordering packages from Loup City, always meet the carrier at the mail box to receive them.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Obermiller visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rainsforth last Sunday and while there their little son who was kicked by a horse some time ago, while playing on a shed fell off striking on his head, receiving an ugly wound in the neck, and hurting one of his arms.

Wm. Rutherford has had the foundation laid for an addition to his house this week. He is also having a foundation put under the entire house.

W. H. Horn, on a pleasure trip through Illinois and Michigan reports the oat crop the best in 20 years and all crops just grand, with corn selling on the market at 63 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Reynolds visited over last Sunday at the home of his parents in Webster township. Mr. Reynolds' mother being quite poorly.

Andy Gray is about the same. Some days he feels pretty good, while others he suffers very severely. He has the sincere sympathy of all who know him.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conger and Gracie Conger visited at the home of Ray McFadden last Sunday.

Miss Minnie Oltjenbruns' Sunday school class was taken out to her home last Friday for dinner and had a jolly time, and taken home in the Oltjenbruns auto.

Please do not forget to put up the signal when mailing your letters.

Hans Obermiller was the first on the route to begin stacking grain.

Russell Snyder has been cutting his wheat the past week.

Lou Spahr was doing some work on W. O. Brown's new residence Monday.

Winter wheat and early oats all cut. Second alfalfa cutting in stack soon. Threshing begun. Potatoes fair to good. Winter wheat better than expected and will average 15 bushels, some fields going 30 and over. Corn tassel and doing well. Pastures fair. Hay about holding its own. Cattle and horses looking well.

Warrick has been buying a car of horses the past week.

Tom Parsley has been quite sick the past week, but is better.

A Mr. Garnett is driving Route 4 out of Litchfield, vice Mallory resigned. Patrons of the route were sorry to lose Mr. Mallory, as he has been most kind and accommodating. Carrier on 2 will miss the visits on Bichel's corner.

A surprise party was given on Miss Elsie Oltjenbruns last Wednesday night.

Miss Arlie Corning and Miss Emma Rowe visited several days last week at the Stewart McFadden home.

R. I. Barrick marketed a load of hogs at Loup City Saturday.

Suryeyor Corning the past week found the old government corner between the Gunn and Goodwin farms.

Miss Minnie Oltjenbruns was surprised last Thursday by a house full of young people coming in on the day before her birthday, a jolly time resulting.

The carrier was down to Seward in attendance on the district meeting of the Cantons last week and found the corn best between here and Central City, while around York and Seward crops looked poor and badly in need of rain.

Another rain covered Route 2 last Thursday night. Its eastern limit was near Will Miller's and heavier to the westward. At Ed Flynn's an inch fell and west of there an inch and a half. The central part of the route got from 35 to 50-100ths of an inch, while the southwest portion received only a light shower. On Route 1 from Zwick's to the Custer county line, there was a good rain and at Andy Coppersmith's an inch and a half fell. No rain on Route 3 to speak of.

One of Mr. and Mrs. Ratzliff's boys came near being killed last Wednesday while riding a pony to Loup City. In some way the pony stumbled and fell with the boy underneath. Clark Hile on his way home passed just after the fall and at once resqued the boy from his perilous position, placed him in his wagon and took him to the parents' home on the old Squires place. The lad on the way home slept heavily and was with difficulty aroused but seemed all right. Later, however, he again slipped into heavy sleep from which it was almost impossible to awake him. At the present time, however, the boy seems to be getting along well, with no serious results following. It surely was a close call.

Joe O'Bryan is nothing if not patriotic. His engine was nearly covered with American flags when he came home from Grand Island Thursday evening. Joe says he never did see such a big crowd as was there that day. He is well acquainted in Loup City and there was an excursion from there to the Island. He knows most everybody in Ord but he says in all of his wandering around Grand Island on the 4th he remembers meeting but two parties from either one of these towns.—Ord Quiz.
