To the Republican Electors of Sherman County Nebraska

The Republican county convention in and for Sherman county is hereby called to meet at Loup City on the 27th day of July, 1912, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of electing Five Delegates to the Republican state convention to be held at the city of Lincoln in the state of Nebraska on the 30th day of July, and also to choose and elect a republican county central committee in and for said county for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as shall properly come before such county convention.

The basis of representation in said convention has been fixed upon the vote cast for the Hon. Francis G. Hamer for Justice of the Supreme Court of the state of Nebraska at the general election held in November, 1911, as follows to wit: one delegate for each ten votes cast for Francis G. Hamer, and one delegate for each fraction of ten votes so cast.

Upon said basis the several precincts will be entitled to the following number of delegates to wit:

- Oak Creek 2
- Logan 4
- Washington 5
- Elm 5
- Webster 5
- Loup City 8
- Ashton 3
- Rockville 4
- Clay 4
- Harrison 7
- Scott 2
- Hazard 5
- Bristol 3

It is hereby recommended that the committeemen in and for the above named precincts promptly attend to the calling of the several precinct caucuses in their respective precincts and that due and proper notice thereof be given to the end that said precincts be fully represented in said convention.

AARON WALL, Chairman
Wellington Hawkey Secretary

The republican caucus for Loup City precinct will be held on the court house lawn tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, July 26, 1912, at 1:30 o'clock should not support a candidate because he favors Presbyterian doctrine, or any other as unassailable a reason. Of course democracy will work overtime to create division in republican ranks on this and other prejudices, but we believe republicans as a whole will not be deceived into turning the state government over into their hands.

By order of A. J. JOHNSON, Precinct Committeeman.

The editor of this paper is the most generous and accommodating man on earth. He has a choke cherry tree planted close to the sidewalk for the benefit of the public so they may pluck bunches of its fruit without going out of their way, or having to go to the courtesy of request for same. He has also put in a garden for the benefit of neighborhood chickens, and provided current bushes for them to rest under away from the hot sun, after they have filled up on garden truck and apples fallen from trees, the editor being well able to buy all these things on the market. He has also started a lawn for the express purpose of providing a playground for dogs of all species, sexes and conditions of life, and where the four-legged nuisances can bury and dig up food at their pleasure. Oh, yes; he is here for the benefit of humanity. P. S.—The above is undoubtedly reason why E. E. Brewer places his fine rosebushes so near the street.

Loup City will be full of "dolgers" for the balance of this year. She has now the contract on hand of being the busiest, liveliest, most bustling little city in central Nebraska, and is in the lead now of any city of her size in the state in the number, cost and extent of improvements completed, commenced, carrying forward and in contemplation. She has a better and cheaper water system, better business blocks erected, going up and to be erected; an elegant electric lighting system nearly completed; two railroads, and a north and south line coming; one of the biggest brick manufacturing establishments in the state; two of the most extensive lumber concerns; one of the greatest flouring mills; the head of a half dozen of more elevators living here; a disc foundry; the best amusement park in central Nebraska; about the only two banks in any town in the state that did not feel it necessary to force the clearing house certificates on their patrons during the panic; a new and commodious postoffice building; a $15,000 opera house in process of erection; a modern, up-to-date hotel block in contemplation; a big business block to be begun in a very short time; our business streets and roads leading to the city to be graded and oiled; as fine a cement sidewalk system and as extensive as any city in the state double its size; a proposed new $30,000 high school building assured; a new Carnegie library building in the closing process; a court house—phew! a commercial club that does things, and all surrounded by an agricultural county that has increased in value over a half million dollars the past year. And we have coming in the amusement line a 5-day Chautauqua, Aug. 17-21, the Harvest Festival on Aug. 21-22-23, the biggest, biggest stunt ever pulled off in Loup City and the coming political campaign. Oh, yes! you bet we are the very center of the active universe—the hub, so to speak.

Suspect Incendiarism

Last Saturday night, about midnight the store of one Farrah Ayoub, an Arab doing business at Ashton, was discovered on fire and an alarm quickly answered succeeded in putting the incipient blaze out of commission. It was discovered on forcing entrance into the store, according to reports, that the window curtains had been fastened down, keys bent in the locks lighted fuses reaching here and there and the few remaining goods thoroughly saturated with kerosene. Most of the goods, are reported to have been removed from the building. It is also reported an effort had been made just previous to the fire to increase insurance on the stock. We learn that representatives of the insurance company holding the risk arrived in Ashton Tuesday, and interesting developments will be forthcoming.
