Ancients Used Glass Mirrors.
That the ancients did not exclusivly use mirrors of polished metal, as generally believed, has just been proved by the finding of a number of small glass mirrors in a graveyard at Laibach, Austria. They are said to date from the second or third century.

IMPERIAL GUARDS, BAND OF SOLOISTS

Organized With Big Music in Mind, and Not Big Numbers.

HAVE PLAYED FOR THE KING.

Director, a Former Master of Creators—There Are Graduates From the Royal Conservatory in Naples.
The Well Known Royal Conservatory
in Naples.

If there can be said to be a featuring of any one thing in the Chautauqua program to be here this summer, it certainly is in the musical offerings.

There will be five companies on this five-days' program.

And that is unusual. The average old Chautauqua program would string along for a week or ten days with but three or four musical companies, because each one was contracted for three or at least two days.

Our Chautauqua is going to have variety, and there is no question about that.

A different musical company each day. And often the appearance of these musical companies is only a half of the afternoon's or evening's program.

The program usually runs something like this: Afternoon, prelude, So-and-So Concert Company; lecture or entertainment, So-and-So Lecturer or Entertainer. And the evening program in the same order, with a different offering.

There are nine distinctly different attractions at least.

But referring again to the music.
The big attraction in music, of course,
is the band from Italy.

The Imperial Guards is not the largest band in America. That is not claimed, even by the most enthusiastic of Chautauqua supporters. But it is claimed most persistently that the Imperial Guards is an organization of very celebrated musicians—men of wide fame in their own country. It is a band of soloists. The organizer, Victor, the great New York musical organizer, has built this band on the theory that quality in the character of work would be emphasized rather than the number of men, and yet there has been no sacrificing of numbers.

The Right Plan.

The band has been brought all the way from Venice in Italy for this ten weeks' Chautauqua engagement. It is filling a series of sixty-five engagements in towns like ours—good, prosperous towns in Nebraska, Kansas and South Dakota.

Most towns in this list have bands of their own. And there are a lot of fairly good bands in these towns.

Why should a band be brought from Venice that is not better than all of these others put together?

Why, the director of this band—he has a very difficult Italian name—was at one time the assistant director of Creator's band, recognized everywhere as one of the largest and most celebrated bands in the world.

This band director has played for the King of Italy—"a very great indeed honor," as he proudly says. And the men playing with him in the Imperial Guards, have played in the King's court on many a notable occasion, in a land in which music—and particularly band music—is a recognized profession.

There are graduates in this band of the Royal Conservatory at Naples, and that means fifteen years of hard study, and it is the highest honor in musical scholarship in Italy.

This is not an ordinary band that is coming here to the Chautauqua this summer. There never was such a band in this city, and you'll be making a mistake if you miss hearing it.

Some of the fifty men on the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua tent crews are training for college athletics. They sell tickets at the gate and see to the general comfort of Chautauqua patrons.
They are college men off on a vacation. They sleep in a tent within the Chautauqua enclosure, which they call the "dog" tent. Of course everyone supposes they lead a merry life, and it may be they do.

With a playground expert from West Virginia in charge of the Junior Chautauqua, the boys and girls are promised a big time Chautauqua week.

There will be a big crowd in today Chautauqua week.

Get the Chautauqua season ticket
today.

At the Chautauqua we have the offerings of a whole summer's amusement park crowded into one week.
And it is a better class of amusement than the big city offers.

A thing that puts this city in the class of progressive towns is the Chautauqua.

Republican County Convention

The republican county convention was held in Loup City last Saturday for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention and selecting a county central committee. The convention was called to order at 11 a. m., by County Chairman Wall and a temporary organization was effected by the election of Geo. W. Wolf chairman and J. W. Burleigh secretary.

A committee on credentials composed of Aaron Wall, W. M. Hurlbert, and James McBeth was appointed and recess taken till one o'clock p. m.

Convention was called to order at 1:15 and the credentials reported delegates present from the following townships: Clay, C. W. Burt, J. A. Peugh, Jas. McBeth, and Fred Johnson; Harrison, F. F. Richmond, G. W. Wolf, W. M. Hurlbert, V. Engleman, A. E. Marsh, E. S. Chipps and J. C. Wall; Loup City, J. W. Burleigh, C. H. French, S. A. Allen, J. S. Pedler, W. D. French, R. P. Starr, Aaron Wall, C. E. Lundy, T. A. Taylor, L. Bechtold, A. J. Johnson, O. L. Swanson, L. A. Williams, F. M. Henry, A. R. Outhouse, L. Hansen and C. C. Carlson; Rockville, M. Wizek, Ben Von Krosigh, Emil Cords and John Hehnke; Logan, E. E. Tracy, and Wm. George; Webster, W. Hawks and S. S. Reynolds.

The matter of the resignation of T. Hermanson of Kearney as candidate for state senator, on account of leaving this district for a home in the west, coming up for hearing and recommendation of the convention being asked as its choice for a candidate to succeed him, the selection of such man by law being left to the chairman of the county central committee of this senatorial district, the convention recommended the candidacy of R. P. Starr of Loup City, as its choice of candidate for above office, and so recommended to the chairman for their reconsideration.

The following gentlemen were unanimously chosen for the coming year as our county central committee: Aaron Wall, chairman; Oak Creek, Mike Kominski; Logan, J. Q. Pray; Washington, L. W. Callen; Elm, Adam Zahn; Webster, Fred Pinchney; Loup City, H. S. Nightingale; Ashton, A. Wanek; Rockville, Ben Von Krosigh; Clay, James McBeth; Harrison, Geo. W. Wolf; Scott, John Witt; Hazard, Walter Fletcher; Bristol, Wm. Jacobs, Sr.

There being no further business before the convention, adjournment sine die was taken.

Democratic County Convention

Our untrifled democrats of Sherman county met in convention in Loup City last Friday afternoon and selected seven delegates to the democratic state convention, to be held in Grand Island the 30th of July, as follows: Henry Beck, E. Dwehus, S. S. Polski, C. F. Beuschausen, R. H. Mathew, H. H. Ager and Hans Johnson.

The convention was a warm Bryan output, and some democrats, who were not in attendance claimed the Bryan steam roller worked with such smoothness that they did not hear it coming till after the caucusses, hence could not be present to be mashed flat, as they undoubtedly would have been had they put on their fighting togs and got into action, as the Bryans had the roller in perfect running order. They also selected the following county central committee: C. F. Beuschausen, Chairman; Oak Creek, Rensel Rewolinski; Logan, Wm. Jung; Washington, A. E. Charlton; Elm, R. E. Dale; Webster, J. A. McIlravy; Loup City, R. H. Mathew; Ashton, S. S. Polski; Rockville, E. Dwehus; Clay, Albert Snyder; Harrison, C. C. McCormick; Scott, J. J. Elise; Hazard, John Beckoning; Bristol, Mike McKime.

HERMANSON OUT OF RAGE

Word was received here last week that Mr. T. Hermanson, who was nominated at the late primaries as candidate for state senator from this district, had tendered his resignation as such candidate, as he was about to move to the Pacific Coast. Mr. Hermanson has for several years been the official stenographer for Judge Hostetter, and genuine regret will be expressed over both facts—his resignation from the senatorial race and his proposed removal from this district and from the state, as he has proven one of the most popular of men in his official position which has placed him within the knowledge and gained the warm friendship of a large number of our people. It is to be hoped he may prosper in every way over his removal to the far west.

A Judge Gaslin Story

A Lincoln lawyer says the political squabble reminds him of an incident which occurred many years ago in the court presided over by the late Judge Gaslin in one of the western counties of the state.

A criminal case was on trial and the attorney for the defendant was making his argument to the jury. The judge with his back to the jury was looking out of a window, apparently paying no attention to the argument. Presently an altercation arose between the attorneys during which uncomplimentary epithets were passed.

Suddenly the judge wheeled about in his swiveled chair, hit the desk a resounding blow and shouted, "Sit down! I never heard such a hell of a row in my life; neither of you fellows know what you are talking about and I don't either."

STILL VOTING R. R. BONDS

Several More Localities Give Overwhelming Majorities
for the New North and South Road

Last Tuesday special elections were held at Franklin for the purpose of determining whether bonds should be issued by that city in support of the new north and south railroad and the vote was overwhelming in favor of the bond issue of $10,000. The vote in favor of the bonds was 197 to 33 against.

At Beloit a special election was held the same day and the vote in favor of the bond issue was about as unanimous as it was at Franklin, the vote in favor of the issuance of $20,000 was 254 to 60 against. So far as our knowledge extends there has not been a single failure in securing an overwhelming majority in favor of granting bond aid for this road wherever asked along the proposed line.

BOOSTER TRIPS

Next Tuesday will be the first of the booster trips of the Loup City Commercial Club and those citizens outside of the club, who have given subscriptions towards financing the Harvest Festival, to boost the Festival. The trip will be made with automobiles, taking in Ord, Sargent, Comstock and Arcadia, returning home in the evening. The start will be made from Loup City at 7 a. m. sharp, and some thirty-five autos have been engaged to carry the boosters, some ninety odd in number. The second trip will come off Thursday following, with the same number of autos and people and a 7 o'clock in the morning start. The second trip will take in Ashton, Rockville, Ravenna, Sweetwater, Hazard and Litchfield. All those intending to go with the boosters are warned to be on hand at 7 o'clock a. m. sharp, or they may get left. The band will be taken along and several thousand tags will be distributed, besides plenty of literature, relating to the Harvest Festival. A great time is anticipated and a whoop-up crowd will make big advertising for the coming big Harvest Festival.

U. P. to Build from Hast- ings to Gibbon

It is announced in Thursday morning papers that the U. P. will build from Hastings to Gibbon, a company having been incorporated under the name of the Hastings and Northwestern Railroad Co., with A. L. Mohler, W. B. Scott, R. L. Huntly and other prominent Union Pacific officials as the incorporators. The new line will form a short-line connection between the U. P., and the Grand Island and St. Joseph line, and the effect will be to divert a good deal of business from Grand Island, where the junction is now maintained.

Obituary.

Kristina Victoria Kron, wife of E. T. Kron, died suddenly Saturday, the 29th, and was buried Sunday, the interment being made in the Evergreen cemetery, Rev. Blom conducting the services. Mr. and Mrs. Kron came to Loup City in the spring of 1911, locating on a farm northwest of town, where they have made their home ever since. Mrs. Kron leaves a bereaved husband, an aged father and four brothers and sisters in Sweden, and a brother in this country. That the Kron family is highly esteemed by neighbors and friends was manifest at the funeral, there being a large attendance and a liberal floral offering. The profound sympathy of the entire community goes with Mr. Kron to his home made desolate by the loss of his beloved wife.

Obituary.

If you are interested in political speculation, here is an interesting problem: If Roosevelt goes through with his third party scheme and becomes its candidate, will he hurt Wilson or Taft most? There are several arguments to be presented on either side. If he and Wilson run as simon pure progressive candidates with Taft as the conservative candidate, will they not divide the progressive vote and make Taft's election certain? Or will the progressives wait until it is seen whether Roosevelt or Wilson develops the most strength and then vote largely for that man, who will undoubtedly be Wilson? Or will Wilson, holding the progressive democrats, be an easy winner because Roosevelt's candidacy will deprive Taft of the united republican support? Or will Wilson while running as a progressive, drive the conservatives of his party to Taft, thus overcoming the defection from the republican party due to either Wilson or Roosevelt's appeals to the progressive republicans? Or are there so few conservatives left in the country that if they do unite on Taft it will be either Wilson or Roosevelt.

Woman's Costly Fit of Temper.

Convict Makes Odd Request.

A convict in the Auburn, N. Y., prison who has 12 years yet to serve, asked the warden for a time table. In reply to the warden's question as to why he wanted it, he said that he might be able to identify the trains as they pass through the station, and know what train to take when his time is up.

Look for the Light.

Learn to look for the light. Positively refuse to harbor shadows and glooms, and the deformed, the disgraced, the discordant. Hold to these things that give pleasure, that are helpful and inspiring, and you will change your whole way of looking at things, will transform your character in a very short time.—Orison Swett Marden.
