MANLOVE HAS SUCCEEDED IN CLEAN ENTERTAINMENT

Halwood Robert Manlove is known in Chautauqua circles the country over as "The Man of Many Faces." He is a character delineator who has raised the standards of make-up from the standards found today in the Halwood Robert Manlove, work of the circus clown or the vaudeville artist to the standards of art in the best music and the cleanest and best entertainment.

Manlove entertains the audience—such as the Chautauqua audience—that wants and insists upon the best—the cleanest—the most wholesome. He has presented his character delineations before some of the largest Y. M. C. A.'s and under religious auspices, and he has done this success-fully.

He makes folks laugh. "And I pride myself," he says, "that

In all the work I have done there has never been a suggestion that might offend." The Chautauqua management is using Manlove's time on Sundays same as week days because he has a marvellously interesting program with a Sunday adaptation. And it is this work of Manlove's that succeeds on week days and succeeds on Sundays that has placed him in a class of entertainers in which he is almost alone. He will appear here, Chautauqua Week.

A Very Jolly Crowd

Were the Loup City Boosters Here Yesterday Afternoon

Advertising Their Fall Festival

All Attended Loup City-Sargent Ball Game

Tuesday afternoon was set aside by the good people of Sargent in preparing for and welcoming the Loup City boosters, and that they did successfully and gracefully, and with a feeling of kindness was evidenced by the display signs in the windows, the flags and bunting, and the large crowd that greeted the entrance of the boosters to our beautiful little city on the Loup.

A number of our citizens in autos went out to escort the boosters in, and as the large influx of vehicles, headed by the band from that progressive town, lined up on main street, the people here were on the alert and in large crowds on hand ready to welcome them, and the hearty hand-shaking and the cordial greeting extended to the visitors from our neighboring city, is better expressed in the real deeds exemplified, than by anything that could be described in pen picture.

At the opportune time, and after several pieces of band music had been rendered, the speaker in words befitting the occasion, addressed the assemblage and in the course of his remarks said that Sargent of all towns visited, had given the most cordial welcome and he, on behalf of the boosters, thanked Sargent for the warm feeling engendered toward their neighbors.

The Boosters included on their trip every trade and business, and last but not least, the printers were well represented. The News on behalf of the business men and people of Sargent, feel safe in assuring the visitors the reciprocal spirit, and predicts quite an influx of our people into that town during the Festival.

It is with sincere pleasure we take our typewriter in hand to write a few lines to let our esteemed contemporary, Editor Burleigh, of the Loup City Northwestern, who sat in the grand stand yesterday p. m., know that he has our deepest sympathy because of the way the Sargent nine "kicked the Loup City ball team around." With every attitude of distinguished consideration, we admit the job was well done; and wish to offer him the consoling thought that it might have been even worse.

The game was a real battle up to the eighth inning when the baloon went up. It opened with Gilbert on the mound for Loup City. He is regarded as a phenomenon—which means a better pitcher than they have had—and it was said that he could so juggle the spheroid that it would describe an eccentric curve to the plate and then return and eat out of his hand. Our sporting editor has no doubt that this is true. But manager Brown's colts never gave him a look-in for his white alley. They batted him in regular percision throughout the game. The score being 7 to 4 in favor of Sargent.—Sargent News.

Believes in Newspapers

Fremont Banker, an Expert in Advertising

The following taken from the Yankton Press and Dakotan newspaper, shows that E. R. Gurney has full faith that newspaper advertising discounts all other forms of publicity. "The wisest man who ever addressed the Monday Noon club is E. R. Gurney, of Fremont, Neb., at least he made the wisest statement ever made before the club. He said: "I have tried all kinds of advertising, bill board circulars, theatre programs and everything else, but I have never secured as good results for so little money as I have from the newspapers. A city cannot be built up without their assistance nor can the citizens of any town be fully successful but by the liberal use of their space." Mr. Gurney is interested in many lines of trade and is so successful that he is rated close to a millionaire. He not only made a wise speech but he knew absolutely by personal experience what he was talking about."

Newspaper Changes

Two newspaper changes of moment have occurred the past week in this part of Uncle Sam's domain. Thos. Wright resigning the editorship of the St. Paul Republican and goes back to Ansley, a gentleman named Fred L. Hilman of Oklahoma takes his place on the Republican, while Norm Parks turns the Broken Bow Republican back to its former proprietor, D. M. Amsberry and goes to Los Angeles.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN RAVENNA

Barking Bull Dog Arouses the Town

Ravenna, Neb., Aug. 11. (Special telegram to the Bee) The baying and barking of a dog went over the town of Ravenna early Saturday morning and awoke the citizens of that place to the most disastrous fire it has had in years.

The howl of a bull dog coming from a clothing store called the attention of the store owner, F. S. Lovitt to smoke curling from the doors and windows. Mingled with the canine's cry was the crackling and spluttering of embers.

It was 1 o'clock when the blaze was discovered and before the citizens could stop the flames the stock of the store, valued at $12,000, was entirely destroyed and the brick store, owned by Frank Havlik, was badly damaged.

The adjoining room was occupied by Frank C. Moore and company, furniture dealers. It was much damaged by smoke and heat and many pianos and other pieces of furniture suffered damage.

The bull dog owned by Frank Howard, was proclaimed a hero and made known his appreciation by a vigorous wagging of his stubby tail.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

Mary, 7-Year-Old Daughter of W. T. Baird, Falls From Top of Windmill

Last Thursday, while playing about the home, Mary, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Baird, being of an adventurous turn of mind, or rather, we may term it, being inquisitive, climbed to the top of the windmill, from which she either fell or was knocked off by the fan, falling to the ground below. Underneath was a wire line, which she evidently struck in falling, thus breaking the force of the fall and saving her life, though no one saw her perilous climb nor subsequent fall, and the first known of it was when the little tot walked into the house telling her mother about the accident. The frightened mother took her to a physician, who found that beyond a few slight bruises and discoloration on the body and a scratch on the face, the little girl had sustained no harm. It was surely an almost miraculous escape from death.

Arabs Arrested Out on Bail

On information filed, accusing the Arab, Farrah Ayoub, and his associates with the crime of arson, arising from the fire in the store of the Arabs at Ashton, Sheriff Williams went to Ashton Monday and brought them to Loup City for hearing. County Judge Smith, when accused were brought before him, set the preliminary hearing for the 19th instant, they giving bail in the sum of $300 each for their appearance. On the night of Saturday, July 20, about 12 o'clock, passers-by found said store of the Arabs on fire, forced open the doors and put out the blaze before much damage was done. According to reports, oil had been poured very generously around, the window curtains nailed down, keys bent in the locks, lighted fuses scattered around, and every evidence of incendiarism shown. A goodly insurance was on the contents of the store and attempts had been made to put on more insurance the day preceding the fire. The companies carrying the risks came on and settled their claims. It is alleged, by returning the premiums and cancelling the policies. Latter the state fire warden came on and took up the matter, which has resulted in the information and arrest as above related. It is not in the province of the Northwestern to say anything prejudicial in regard to the affair, and will be content with stating the facts as above. We will give the history of the trial and subsequent events as they may occur.

Death of Andy Gray

Just before noon yesterday (Wednesday, August 14) after a number of months of acute suffering from cancer, and several operations in the vain attempt to take the affection from his system, Andrew Gray, one of the best known men in Sherman county and one of the oldest citizens, finally yielded up his life, the direct cause being the reaching the cancer to the jugular vein, which caused him to bleed to death and fifteen minutes after the disease reached the vein death had ensued and his poor diseased, and pain-racked body was at rest. We have not at this time, nor will have in time for this issue the history of his life, but the writer, who has been a close friend of deceased for the past eight years, wishes to bear testimony of the worth of Andy Gray as a man whose friendship was a precious jewel, a man worth knowing, honest, conscientious and scrupulous in all his dealings, and in whose death we feel a distinct personal loss. The funeral will take place at the home, nine miles south of this city, in Clay township, this afternoon and the body laid to rest in the cemetery at Wiggle Creek, by the side of a son gone before. Obituary next week.

Death of Mrs. Frank Lorchick

About six o'clock on Tuesday evening of this week occurred the death of Mrs. Frank Lorchick in this city. Her death will be learned with sincere regret by the large number of friends of the family and Mr. Lorchick, who is one of our most prominent Polish citizens, will have the sincere sympathy of our entire community. The funeral was to take place this morning from St. Francis Catholic church in this city and the remains taken to the Paplin cemetery, some five miles northeast of Ashton. Obituary notice next week.
