

PLAN

Then Act

Many people plan their whole lives to have a bank account and then leave this world without so much as a start at one. Planning isn't worth anything unless followed by action. Good intentions never land you anywhere. Make your plans to start an account with us this week and back up your plans with action.

Farmers: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Feed your horses Sal-vet and prevent them taking the new disease that is killing thousands. Come in and let us tell you about Sal-vet. The Rexall Store. Vaughn & Hinman.

The Big Four Co. began the excavation for the new Odendahl hotel Tuesday afternoon of this week. Contractor Almquist arrived from Central City Monday evening and will rush the building to early completion. In spite of reports to the contrary, Mr. Almquist will have all the labor on the building done by home people who can possibly be secured, only filling out with men from elsewhere necessary to carry forward the work.

Believing that the business men of Loup City uphold and appreciate good clean sports, showing other towns that the business men join hand in hand in sending out a good representation of what we have here in Loup City and that we can keep pace with other good towns of the state. The foot ball season is near at hand and we will soon have some of the best games that has ever been played on the Loup City gridiron. But first of all we must have more wearing apparel, such as suits, head-gear and etc., and it is up to the business men of Loup City to make this a successful year.

A special sale of Palm Olive Soap and Cream is on at Swanson & Lofholm's Drug Store.

Go to Reynolds for your meat for thrashing.

Henry Lee, who has been assisting his brother, A. O. Lee, in the pop factory, is attending the Broken Bow fair this week.

Miss Orel Young returned to her home in Loup City Monday after a visit of several days with her aunt, Mrs. F. R. Nash—Central City Non-pareil.

We understand A. O. Lee, besides having his moving picture show in the new opera house, has rented rooms in the basement of the same for his pop factory.

Lem Knapp lost a $200 horse by lightning Sunday, Sept. 1st, at his farm in Logan township. This together with the loss of several hay-stacks by fire during the Harvest Festival, is a rather hard streak of ill luck.

Will Criss was among those who slipped away to the State Fair without the knowledge or consent of this news emporium, and seems ashamed of his neglect in not at least letting us know. And there were others.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Pray attended the State Fair, going down the Saturday preceding and visiting over Sunday at Marquette with a brother of Mr. George Zeigler. Mr. Pray reports the corn crops in Hamilton and York counties ruined by the drouthy spell.

Mr. Will Ford of Kearney, a cousin of Mrs. D. L. Adamson, and brother of Mr. Geo. Ford, deceased, so well known to the older residents of this city, is here with a car of Ogden, Utah, fruit which he is disposing of to our monied aristocracy. He is a jolly, whole souled, all-wool and a yard-and-a-half wide sort of a fellow and one you enjoy meeting. And he knows how to talk fruit so you can taste the flavor.

Your faithful horses are certainly entitled to your careful consideration and protection. Give them SAL-VET and thereby fortify them against the strange new disease that is killing thousands. Come in and let us tell you about Sal-vet. The Rexall Store. Vaughn & Hinman.

Last Friday, our German Evangelical friends accepted the new German parsonage and paid Contractor Ohlsen in full for building same. The trustees wish the Northwestern to return their thanks to those who donated to the funds for the building of the same. We understand that their talented young minister, Rev. Jueling will soon wed the girl of his choice, and he and bride occupy the parsonage at an early day.

At last, after many weeks of drouth, and the past few days of threatening weather, old Jupiter Pluvius opened the heavens, as it were, and gave this section the most generous out-pour of wet-stuff it has received the present year. The rain proper began a little before midnight Monday and continued intermittently till past daylight, flooding Mother Earth in fine shape. It came as a welcome relief from the torrid weather we have had to endure till patience ceased to be a virtue, and the most equitable minded had lost its nerve to almost the limit. The rainfall was 1.54 inches.

F. E. Kennedy spent Sunday with the family of his father-in-law, John Youngquest, being on the return trip from Excelsior Springs, Mo., to his home near Loup City. Mr. Kennedy was a resident of Hamilton county for many years, but removed to Sherman county about two years ago on account of the land being cheaper there, and is well satisfied with the change, although he still has a warm spot in his heart for the scenes and associations of his youth. He has been seriously afflicted with rheumatism for several months and his trip to the Springs was in search of relief, which he believes he found.—Aurora Republican.

Wanted—A girl to learn typesetting at this office. Only one who is industrious, anxious to learn and capable need apply. We need no office adornment. The editor supplies that feature.

Rev. P. Jueling left Tuesday morning for Lincoln and Seward, attending the conference of his church at Seward, and to return Friday evening. Rev. G. A. Neumann of Lincoln returning with him and preaching Sunday morning and afternoon.

Farmers Attention! Thousands of horses are dying, all over the country, from a strange new malady. It will pay you to protect your horses by giving them Sal-vet, the great Tonic, Blood Purifier, and Worm Destroyer. The logical preventative and conditioner. Come in and let us tell you about it. The Rexall Store. Vaughn & Hinman.

Mrs. Dr. Bowman was called to Litchfield last Saturday on professional services. Dr. Bowman went over Sunday to bring her home, accompanied by W. D. Zimmerman, when the doctor's machine concluded to stay there, necessitating the sending home to Loup City for another auto to bring the party home. All of which show that the plaguey horseless affairs need much doctoring to make them sure goers and comers.

W. E. Henry on Tuesday of this week sold his home property in this city to L. N. Smith. In the deal, Mr. Henry purchased a quarter section of Mr. Smith a mile and a half east of town, Mr. Henry will occupy the home this winter, Mr. Smith we understand, intending to move therein from his farm in the spring.

The Northwestern office will soon be equipped with two new electric motors, one for the big newspaper cylinder power press and one for our big jobber. They were purchased yesterday and will be installed within a few weeks at the longest. We have been hampered by lack of power for a long time, but with the advent of an electric plant in our city giving 24-hour service, and the adding of motor power equipment, we will soon be in position to give our patrons the swiftest as well as the best of service desired.

Farmers Take Notice.
We have just received a car load of ground oil meal. And the State Veterinary advises using oil meal as a preventive of the dread disease, spinal meningitis, that is killing so many horses in surrounding counties. Better try a few sacks.
Loup City Mill & Light Co.
