PROGRESSIVES ORGANIZE

Bull Moosers Organize Their Party in This County Saturday Last With 117 Signers to Petition.

As per call issued for a mass convention of those interested in the formation of a Roosevelt party in this county to meet last Saturday, a number of the hero worshippers met at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, selected E. F. Jones as temporary secretary to secure the necessary 100 signatures to a petition calling for the new party organization and adjourned till 2:30 p. m. to give time in which to secure the coveted number of names.

At the hour of 2:30, not having secured the required number, recess for another hour was taken and by that time 117 names had been secured and the convention assembled to form the new party. The court room was well filled with Moosers for the most part, a sprinkling of Taft and Wilson men being present to witness the performance.

The convention was called to order by Louis Rein, and nominations for chairman brought forth in succession, the names of R. J. Nightingale, L. Rein, Rev. H. Blom and David Kay, all of whom declined the honor on one plea or another. J. Q. Pray was then named and accepted the chairmanship. After one or two nominations and declinations for the secretaryship, E. F. Jones was elevated from the temporary to the permanent secretaryship and the official directory of the new organization was perfected.

The organization being perfected, calls for a speech from R. J. Nightingale brought that gentleman to the front with a speech, who proclaimed the new political movement the greatest ever started in this country, condemned the protective tariff as a robbery of the people for the benefit of the few, the benefits of the tariff not going into the pockets of the people but into the pockets of the plutocrats. He scored the republican and democratic parties to a fare ye well, and claimed the Honest Johns and the Honest Toms of the old parties had bid good-bye to them and had formed the nucleus of a new party which would sweep the country, under the banner of progressiveness, with the grandest platform ever before an American people.

At the close of the speech, nominations for a progressive county ticket were declared in order. For representative, Jacob Albers named George Wolfe, nominee of the republicans. This brought W. J. Fisher to his feet in protest. Chairman Pray spoke to the effect that any candidate nominated or endorsed should vote for Norris for U. S. senator. H. J. Johansen also objected to endorsement; either nominate new men for each office or leave the ticket blank for those offices. A motion was made and seconded that the convention do not endorse any candidate of either old party, but this was latter withdrawn. Rein gave a talk along the line of endorsement, but the matter was left up in the air. Callen of Washington township moved that an informal ballot be taken for representative, county attorney and assessor all on one ballot to save time and separate ballots, which was agreed to.

The ballot was then spread, resulting on representative: Wolfe 19, Rein 2, Pray 22, Arthur 2; on county attorney: Fisher 26, Pedler 2, Nightingale 4; on assessor: Callen 18, Owen 14, Brewer 2 and Charlton, McCullough, Johansen and de la Motte 1 each.

One enthusiast moved that the rules be suspended and that Fisher be made the unanimous nominee of the convention, for attorney, but was ruled out because the office of representative was first on for consideration and should be settled before taking up the other offices.

Chairman Pray, having the largest vote for representative, was asked if he would accept, but declined on the plea of ill health. Geo. W. Wolfe being the next highest, an effort to make him the nominee was forestalled by a request that he be brought before the convention and be made to declare whether or not he would vote for and support Roosevelt.

The chairman selected Johansen and Albers to escort Mr. Wolfe before the convention to state, if he would, the answer to the foregoing catechism. While the committee was out on their hunt, some one made a motion to the effect that Callen having the majority of votes for assessor the rules be suspended and he be made the nominee for the above office. This brought Mr. Rein up standing, declaring that Mr. Owens was one of the original bull moosers in the county, having expressed a Roosevelt preference away ahead of the primary, and that at present from his bed of sickness he had sent word to the convention, through Mr. Rein, that he was heart and soul with them and would accept such nomination or endorsement at their hands. Callen then rose in his majesty and stated he had been with the present moose movement for a year to a year and a half and was also with them, and would see to it that every mother's son owning property in Sherman county paid his or their just proportion of taxes. The ballot was then spread, resulting in Callen getting 24 votes to Uncle Billy's 19, and he was declared the nominee.

Mr. Wolfe having entered during the balloting, he was brought up on the carpet and quizzed as to his bull mooseness and replied quietly and distinctly that the convention was asking him about a question of personal privilege not demanded by the republicans at the primary. That he had received the nomination before the presidential question was brought into controversy. He had not stated, nor been asked to state, previous to the present time, his personal preference, and denied the right of any one to demand this of him. As to whether he would vote for Taft or Roosevelt, he reserved that as his own private and personal right, the same as any other man, whether a candidate for any office or not. As to his vote on U. S. senator, he had signed statement No. 1, and would vote for either Norris or Shallenberger, as a majority of the voters decided at the regular biennial election this fall.

At the conclusion of Mr. Wolfe's statement a formal ballot on representative was spread, resulting in Arthur 28, Wolfe 9, scattering 1.

On motion of Mr. Rein, a committee waited on Mr. Arthur asking him if he would accept the nomination, receiving an affirmative reply and his nomination was accorded.

Following this a motion was made that W. J. Fisher receiving the highest number of votes for county attorney, the rules be suspended and he receive said nomination, which was given him. He, just before the close of the proceedings of the convention, came forward and accepted the nomination, thanking them for the same.

The nomination of the ticket being dispensed with, the following central committee was selected:

Chairman, Louis Rein.
Oak Creek, Stanley Kuharski and Thomas Stanzky.
Logan, J. Q. Pray.
Washington, J. H. Welty.
Elnor, G. Curry.
Webster, G. S. Fross.
Loup City, F. E. Brewer.
Ashton, Thomas Jamrog and Frank X. Badura.
Rockville, John Malefski.
Clay, James McBeth.
Harrison, J. C. Wall.
Scott, W. H. Douglas.
Hazard, Carl de la Motte.
Bristol, James Novy.

There were motions galore made by members of the convention on one thing and another, some withdrawn, some doubled up and others knocked out, showing the convention was not a unit on many propositions and had not got together as a harmonious whole. The state chairman of the moosers had desired that the republican be ticket endorsed, but the convention bucked like an outlawed bronc on anything of the kind, members excitedly proclaiming that they would not stand for fusion to any extent; that fusion with the democrats was what killed the pops and that in all history every new movement which fused with either old party had got it in the neck and been wiped off the map, so to speak, and that if the new progressive movement did so it would be absorbed by time or the other of the old parties, and the sentiment was so strong as to rule out every form of endorsement, so far as the county moosers were concerned.

Amended Complaint With Intent to Kill

Last Friday, County Attorney Starr filed an amended complaint against Glen Farnsworth, reading "Shooting with intent to kill," in the tragedy of last week, the sheriff re-arresting Farnsworth and bringing him to town on said amended complaint. Farnsworth was taken before County Judge Smith, who placed him under $500 bonds, C. C. Carlsen of the State Bank being his surety, and he was allowed to return to his farm and work. The case will come up at the December session of the district court. Holmberg, the man whom Farnsworth shot, is reported as getting along nicely and his physician thinks will get well and without the loss of the limb.

Cupid Catches Our German Minister

Rev. P. Juelling, our popular young German minister, left last week for Bible Grove, Ills. where he is to be married the 10th instant to Miss Johannann Baumgaertel of that city, the Rev. Dr. Miller of Alton, Ills., to officiate at the nuptials that shall make him a good and wise Benedict. The bride is a sister of the German minister at Bible Grove, and has captured for her life partner a young man who, as a rising young minister, has made a host of friends here, both inside and outside his church, who will wish for them a long and happy married life. They will return within a short time and occupy the new German parsonage lately completed for their occupancy. The Northwestern adds its congratulations over the important step taken by our talented pleader for better things in this life and in the great hereafter.

"Bridges" Not "Breeches"

A rather good story is told of one of our leading bull moosers. The story goes that his motive was questioned by one of a small knot of men gathered together and discussing political questions of the hour. A friend of the leading bull mooser being present, replied that the man was in fact good faith in his changing from the democratic to the bull moose movement, in fact, said he, "He has burned his bridges behind him." An old line democrat, listener to the discussion, not understanding the language and intent of the old saw, turned away with a puzzled air, exclaiming, "Huh; what's that got to do with politics, 'burning his breeches behind'?"
