Out of the Race

On Monday of this week, Congressman Kinkaid transmitted to the secretary of state his resignation as a republican candidate for congress, giving ill health as his reason for thus doing. Northwestern editor received last week a telegram from Congressman Kinkaid stating his illness, which was so serious as to keep him closely confined. Now, we suppose, the enemies of Judge Kinkaid, with loud acclaim, will insist that he feared defeat, when the facts are that for the many years we have known, the judge he has been a sufferer to a greater or less extent from severe stomach troubles, which at times have caused him for a season to relinquish his cares almost wholly, but his iron will and indefatigable energies would not allow of him taking a much needed rest and consequently he has simply staved off till the future his final relinquishment of public life. We trust now that he has retired from public activities he may take necessary rest, and come forth renewed in body and spirit and become a new physical man, as it were.

Surprised on Their

25th Anniversary

Last Wednesday evening, some sixty friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLiray gathered at their home, four miles west of Loup City, and gave them a surprise party on the evening of their 25th marriage anniversary. Their coming was totally unexpected by the worthy couple, who had no intimation of the surprise in store for them. Some twenty were out from Loup City. The surprisers also presented Mr. and Mrs. McLiray with many valuable tokens of their friendship and esteem, and the event was one of the most enjoyable of the many occurring in past years.

Announcement

To the voters of Sherman county, Nebraska. Having been nominated by the Progressive Party of Sherman County for the office of County Attorney, I take this method to thank all who were interested in my nomination and to further solicit the support of the voters of the county, first assuring in accord with the principals and policies of the Progressive Party, holding no malice towards any man who may not view matters politically as I view them.

Personally I wish to state to my friends and supporters and the voters in general of Sherman county that my time now is materially occupied in following the duties of my business, and as a result of being thus occupied it is a matter of utter impossibility for me to see every voter personally and explain in person my position relative to the office of county attorney. Knowing me as many do, I believe that my promise here given to fully attend the duties of the office personally if elected will be accepted. I am not financially able to make a canvass of the county and my time must be directed to my present work in the effort to support my family, I must, accordingly, place myself and my candidacy in the care of my friends and those voters who believe in fair play and similar government to see to my interests. In return for such a favor I honestly pledge myself to render to the people and tax payers of Sherman county as such County Attorney my undivided time and attention to the duties of the office and to look at all times with eye and heart single to the best welfare of Sherman county and her people. In making to you this solemn pledge I ask that your consideration may be signified by your support at the polls on November 5th 1912. Very sincerely yours, W. J. FISHER

Two Fingers Cut

In Feed Grinder

Last Sunday afternoon, about 4:30, playing about the barn, the little 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Michow, living some two and a half miles south of Loup City, in some way managed to start a feed grinder, and in some unexplained manner got the second and third fingers of his right hand in the machine, cutting through the bone of the second finger just above the nail, and cutting through the upper part of the nail on the third finger. He was playing in the barn alone, the other children being on the outside. Dr. Bowman was phoned for and arrived at speed immediately, attending the little sufferer, who at this writing is getting along finely.

Will have a car load of Early Ohio potatoes on track.—Loup City Mercantile Co.

Along R. R. No. 2

Alfred Jorgenson left for Albion, Neb., last Thursday morning. Mrs. Bichel and daughter were trading at Loup City last Thursday. Jim Grow and Ralph Reed were painting Winifred Hughes' house the past week. Now is a good time to work the road with a good road drag. Ray McFadden marketed wheat at Loup City last Thursday. Ed Kilpatrick took home a load of lumber and posts last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuhl went to Rockville with Mr. and Mrs. Hans Obermiller in their auto last Friday. E. B. Corning was doing some surveying on Route 2 last Friday.

Joe Blaschke has bought a fine auto the past week. No school was held in the Allman district Monday. Harry Rutherford was at Loup City Saturday to have some repair work done. Ogle's threshing machine outfit pulled down on the eastside of Wiggle Creek last week. Claud Burt got a finger on his right hand badly cut in a corn binder last Wednesday at Henry Reed's. The latest report from the bedside of Grover Huston, who is in the hospital at Kearney, where he is undergoing an operation, is discouraging. It seems that a cancerous growth has set in and small hopes of his recovery are entertained. Homer Ogle traded for Beccard's threshing outfit some time ago. Sam Daddow was out to his farm last week. H. M. Herbert of Henderson, Neb., brother of Mrs. R. P. Ratslaff, has been visiting here the past week. Frank Daddow lost a good horse last Thursday from running on green alfalfa. Oliver Brodock and R. D. Hendrickson attended Canton lodge at Loup City last Tuesday night. Will Garner sold his farm to Will Albers last week for $8,000. Carrier is glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Will Albers on the route. Frank Papernick has had a serious case of blood poison in his right hand for the past ten days. He is better now. J. W. McLaughlin was seen on his way home from Ravenna Tuesday morning. J. S. Pedler attended the funeral of Mrs. Clark Allman Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cash will say goodbye to route 2 in the spring. They expect to locate near Albion, Neb. Hugh's brother will take his place. Mr. and Mrs. Art Wilson and family got back from Omaha last week. Harry Rutherford commenced to thrash for Joe Bogard Tuesday. Carrier has his old mail wagon fixed up with new wheels and automatic axles, a fresh coat of paint on it, come out and see us shine. W. H. Gunn will be up from Kearney next week. There will be a dance west of Will Miller's Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. John Heasler from the Valley county line, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Iossi, Sunday. Virgil Weller left for the sad hills last Friday. He stopped at Sargent to visit his cousin, Miss Devoe, who is teaching at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Parsley and daughter, Winifred, Teresa Weller and Miss Poor were at Grand Island shopping Saturday. They went by auto. There was a surprise party at Ira Vian's Friday night. Lunch was served and everybody enjoyed a delightful evening. The new minister, Rev. Zike, preached his first sermon at Beulah Chapel last Sunday. The Demaratoskis are hauling lumber for their new house. They have the foundation laid. Frank Kusek was hauling lumber from Loup City Saturday. Jim Hager is visiting with relatives at Alliance, Neb. Ross Hager and Dor Spencer started for the sad hills Sunday. They expect to bring back a few chickens to their friends. Frank Adams lost a valuable horse last week. Mrs. M. Bauman threshed Tuesday. Harvey Butner and Mr. Stouffer, near Henry Bichel's, sold Blomond & Son three loads of hogs Tuesday. Mr. Lundy took his team out to Myrl Warrick's for the winter. Mrs. E. M. Marvel is almost well again. Mrs. Jorgen Plambeck and daughters are visiting at Ashton this week. Miss Hannah Bichel is working for her sister, Mrs. Henry Bichel, this week. O. G. Hunt was out to Clark Hiles' Tuesday.

Supt. L. H. Currier visited Dist. No. 4 Monday afternoon. He expects to visit again in the near future.

All the patrons of Dist. No. 4 will do a great favor to the pupils and the teacher, as well, if they would visit the school at any time. B. T. Snyder attended the funeral of Mrs. Clark Allman last Monday. Jim McBeth and Frank Blaschke were hauling hay Tuesday. Tom Garner left for the sand hills on a week's outing at Pony lake. If you want a good place to hunt and fish and a good camping ground, with flowing water 100 feet from the tent, go up to Pony lake. Frank Grow and Will Garner are going in the same car with Tom. The carrier was up there this fall and had a big time fishing. Seeding wheat has been the order the past week. The farmers have been rushing the seeding early and late and at this writing the majority of it is in the ground. Potato digging has commenced and the crop is poor. Hundreds of acres of corn has been cut this year. There never was a year when the farmers were more careful about getting plenty of feed. Corn is poor to good.

Chas. Gullfords, who lived on Route 1 four years ago, but now of Cortez, Colorado, buried his oldest daughter, Ethel, who was married since going to Cortez. She was brought back to Aurora, Neb., for burial. The township officers, when they meet to transact business for next year, should have each road boss set aside enough money to drag the roads after the fall rains. Not one dragging but two or three and then the road work would go into the winter in good shape. As it is a great deal of the new road work is damaged before winter sets in. If there was more dragging of the roads there would be less road work in the fall and the road would be in good shape at all times. District No. 72 has 24 scholars attending school and the following were neither absent nor tardy during the month of September: Miriam Draper, Fritz Schwaderer, Bertha Blaschke, Johnnie Blaschke, Viola Kilpatrick, Sophia Schwaderer, Helen Draper, Emma Adams, Robert Henderson, Bessie Kilpatrick, Louisa Schwaderer, Miss Lula McFadden, teacher.

Mrs. Minnie T. Alleman, wife of Clark Alleman, died at the hospital in Grand Island, Neb., Saturday afternoon, Oct. 5th. She leaves a husband and three children and a brother and sister to mourn their loss. This was the second operation she had undergone, the other occurring about two years ago. Of late she had been a constant sufferer, and about a week ago was operated upon a second time. The operation proved her condition was more serious than suspected, and she had been so low at intervals since that hopes were almost abandoned for her recovery. However, she was so much improved the day previous to her demise that the physicians advised Mr. Alleman he could return home. A short time after his home coming he received a message his wife had suffered a relapse and to come at once. Being too late for a train, he was taken by Ernest Daddow by auto to Grand Island. The funeral took place from the Wiggle Creek church on Monday, Oct. 7, and her body laid to rest in Verdurette Cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Ladies' Aid Society and an earnest worker in the church, beloved by all who knew her, and her death will come as a personal loss to the community in its entirety. The carrier, with all patrons on the route, sympathizes with the bereaved husband and motherless little ones in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Parsley and daughter, Winifred, Teresa Weller and Miss Poor were at Grand Island shopping Saturday. They went by auto. There was a surprise party at Ira Vian's Friday night. Lunch was served and everybody enjoyed a delightful evening.

The new minister, Rev. Zike, preached his first sermon at Beulah Chapel last Sunday. The Demaratoskis are hauling lumber for their new house. They have the foundation laid. Frank Kusek was hauling lumber from Loup City Saturday. Jim Hager is visiting with relatives at Alliance, Neb. Ross Hager and Dor Spencer started for the sad hills Sunday. They expect to bring back a few chickens to their friends.

Frank Adams lost a valuable horse last week. Mrs. M. Bauman threshed Tuesday. Harvey Butner and Mr. Stouffer, near Henry Bichel's, sold Blomond & Son three loads of hogs Tuesday. Mr. Lundy took his team out to Myrl Warrick's for the winter. Mrs. E. M. Marvel is almost well again. Mrs. Jorgen Plambeck and daughters are visiting at Ashton this week. Miss Hannah Bichel is working for her sister, Mrs. Henry Bichel, this week. O. G. Hunt was out to Clark Hiles' Tuesday.

Badly Burned

Is Now at Her Home in Ravenna Suffering From Burns and a Nervous Shock. Miss Ethel Diffeffaffer of Ravenna, teacher at the Sweetwater school, had a very narrow escape from serious injury, Tuesday, of this week. The young teacher went to the school house Tuesday morning and was in the act of building a fire when the stove sleeves she was wearing caught fire. She jerked the sleeve off, burning her hands badly in the process, and then fainted. The pupils already in the building, or who soon after arrived, found her lying on the school house floor and ran for help and Dr. Penn of Ravenna was telephoned for. Miss Diffeffaffer soon recovered from her swoon, but the nervous shock was such that she has since been confined to her bed. Dr. Penn brought her to her mother's home in Ravenna where she is getting along nicely and it is expected that she will soon be able to resume her duties.
