Another battle is in progress in the hills south of Rawlins, between a posse of citizens and from twenty to forty escaped prisoners. Two men have been killed in the streets of Rawlins, one is desperately wounded and two convicts have been recaptured following the escape of from ten to thirty prisoners Saturday afternoon. The town is in a panie. Frantic telegrams have been sent to Governor Carey, now at Sheridan, imploring him to send troops to protect the citizens. Townspeople are barricaded in their homes or, heavily armed, are patrolling the streets guarding their own homes and the houses of those engaged in the man hunt in the hills or in the vigil before the prison walls. A mass meeting of terror-stricken citizens held at nightfall sent a telegram to Governor Carey demanding the protection of the state militia. The mutinous prisoners were sub-
