Then Act

Many people plan their whole lives to have a bank account and then leave this world without so much as a start at one. Planning isn't worth anything unless followed by action.

Good intentions never land you anywhere.

Make your plans to start an account with us this week and back up your plans with action.

Some three weeks since, Mrs. J. T. Hale ran a pitchfork into her left foot along the side, laying her up for some time. Still later she had a severe case of tonsillitis, and still later accumulated two or three other ills, from which she only a few days ago overcame so as to be up and around, but is now fast recovering from all.

It is an old adage, that misfortune never comes singly, and this has indeed proved a true saying with the good lady in question, but we trust that now she may escape all further danger of the old adage again coming true in her case by avoiding even the first misfortune in the future.

As a sort of sequel to McCarver's elopement with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. McCarver and her sons made a public sale of their household effect on the streets of Constock last Saturday afternoon and the following Monday evening left for an unknown destination in a covered wagon. A few to whom they were indebted took up their trail and succeeded in overtaking them several miles out of town and although they persuaded and threatened to serve them with legal process unless their bills were settled all of which had little effect, the creditors securing only $5 in cash and a shot-gun, the McCarvers claiming they had no money or other valuables to pay with. They were allowed to proceed and so far as we can learn, no one has learned their contemplated destination—Comstock News.
