Fined $25 for Violation of Corrupt Practices Act

Dr. Norden of Lincoln, representing the prosecuting committee of the State Veterinary Medical Association, was here on Monday of this week and in accordance with evidence submitted to the effect that J. R. Gregg of Litchfield had violated the veterinary corrupt practices act, in that he has unlawfully engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine and advertised himself as a veterinarian and using the degree conferred by a recognized veterinary college to which he is not entitled, instituted proceedings against Gregg in the county court on that day, at which defendant pleaded guilty and was fined in the sum of $25.

This is the second case of the kind prosecuted under this law, the first case coming up at Lincoln about two weeks since, with like result.

In an interview later with Dr. Norden, he claimed these were but beginnings in numerous suits over the state, and will be prosecuted as fast as complaints are made and evidence secured to insure positive convictions.

Keegan is to go on the mat at 135 pounds, while Robinson will weigh 142 pounds. As Keegan holds the diamond belt as lightweight champion, but has put on added weight which places him in the welterweight class. If Robinson can pin Keegan to the mat he will have established a nation-wide reputation. "Farmer" Burns, who was also here in the mat game last week Wednesday, will referee the big battle. INTELLIGENCE and stability in the making; and style and refinement of finish; precisely the characteristics you want in your new overcoat.

On a foundation of thoroughly-shrunk, all-wool fabric, hand-tailoring means Clothes Satisfaction that to a nicety meets the ideas of the modern Beau Brummel.

Sounds expensive? But it isn't—if you come here.

For we've gone straight to headquarters—to the model clothes factory of America, the leading and largest makers of hand-tailored clothes—and we can sell clothes of this description at no higher prices than you are asked to pay for ordinary sorts.

Kirschbaum Hand-tailored Overcoats—$15, $20, $25.

Positively none elsewhere like our Kirschbaum $15, $20 and $25 specials, at anything like the same prices.

The Kirschbaum label is the maker's guaranty to refund the money if the clothes are unsatisfactory.
