Our lovers of drama will be pleased to know that Sanford Dodge with his company will be here at the new opera house, Friday, Jan. 31, putting on "The Right of Way". Sanford Dodge has been here several times in the past ten years, though always heretofore in Shakespearean plays, and it will be interesting to hear him in a modern play.

Sunday night gave promise of an abundance of fluffy whiteness, but Monday morning found but little evidence, of said promise, as after the snow began to fall a cold wave and high wind stopped the decent and sent the stuff scurrying to the four ends of the compass, leaving little evidence on the morrow that the disturbance had been started at all.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Steinkamp returned Thursday from a visit with friends at Loup City and with their son John and family at Burwell, Neb. Mr. Steinkamp called on our brother J. W. Burleigh of the Loup City Northwestern and will accord him the freedom of the office and the city. —Tingley Ia. Vindicator.

The Schwaner jewelry store is no more. The past few weeks Mr. Schwaner has been auctioning off the stock and what little remained was shipped to Lou Schwaner at Loup City. Chas. says he is going out of the jewelry business and will soon leave for Texas where he will look after his landed interests. The building formerly occupied by Mr. Schwaner has been rented by Mrs. Bright who will put in a complete line of up-to-date millinery. —Ord Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Leininger and son, Donald, arrived here last Saturday noon, on their way home to Gordon from attendance on the State Lumbermen's convention at Omaha, to visit with Mr. Leininger's good mother, brother, sister and hosts of friends at their old home. They speak in highest terms of Gordon and its people, and we are pleased to know that Mr. Leininger is doing well in the lumber business there. They left for home yesterday.

Dr. F. W. Buck, the Quaker Indian Specialist of Denver, will be in Loup City again, at The Millburn, on Monday, Feb. 10, for one day only. Those wishing to consult this eminent specialist will please bear the date in mind. That Dr. Buck has made successful visits to Nebraska and has unnumbered patients within its confines, one has only to know that he has made one hundred and ninety-seven regular visits to the different portions of the state. Remember, one day only, Monday, Feb. 10, at The Millburn.

Editor Jack Rightenour and wife came over from Litchfield last Saturday, visited over Sunday with relatives and friends and returned home Monday. Jack is beginning to have that subdued look worn by all us old married he-male angels and is really becoming as thoroughly broke to double harness as though he had not waited so long to receive his blessings.

Last Wednesday Mr. Dan Magnuson and Miss Letty Hiscock sprung a surprise on their many friends. Accompanied by Miss Lena Hiscock and Mr. Paul Magnuson they drove to Aurora and were united in marriage by Rev. Hill. They then took the train for Sidney, Neb. where they will visit the bride's brother. After spending some time with the groom's parents at Loup City they will return to Marquette. We join their friends in extending to them our hearty congratulations and best wishes. —Marquette Correspondent, Central City Nonpariel.

James L. Hager, of Litchfield, and Miss Nellie M. Zink, of Mason City, were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian manse yesterday at 1:30, Rev. A. F. Ernst officiating. They were attended by Ross Hagar and Miss Beulah Zink. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a brief wedding trip, after which they will make their home at Litchfield where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Grand Island Independent, 16th.

—This editor had a pleasant visit with Mrs. O. D. Henyon of Loup City for a few minutes last Monday afternoon. She and her little son had been visiting Aurora friends for a few days, and called to see how we looked in a printing office again. Mrs. Henyon set her first stick of type in our office more than twenty years ago, she and her husband both having been employed by the writer for a considerable length of time. Mr. Henyon now holds a very good position on the Loup City Northwestern and is doing well. Mrs. Henyon states that she has not forgotten how to "stick" type and helps in the office occasionally days when the work is crowding. —Aurora Sun.

Our own Col. J. G. Pageler is getting a fine reputation along auctioneering lines, and he is proving worthy of that interesting dope. Last Friday he cried a big sale for Chas. Rousch, near North Loup, and so pleased the crowd with his good work that at the close of the sale five different men came up and engaged him for their sales which are to take place during February, one of the sales being a pure-bred Poland China sale. Then when he got home that evening he found a letter awaiting him to cry a sale near North Bend, this state, some 200 miles from here, which runs up into the thousands of dollars. Jack is surely forging to the front in his line, and we are certain he will be up among the big ones of the state in the near future.

If you have a horse or a mule to sell, call phone 20.

MYRL A. WARRICK.

Mrs. Everett Sicksels and baby left yesterday morning for Bridgewater, Iowa, where Mr. Sicksels had preceded her a few weeks ago, and where they expect to make their home.

Dr. Vallier, Osteopath, Grand Island Attorney R. J. Nightingale went to Aurora Wednesday morning on law business. He will go from there to Lincoln later, expecting to be home Friday evening.

Mrs. Dr. Main received a severe fall at her home Tuesday evening, and at first it was thought had suffered a fracture of her left arm, but later was found only to have received severe sprain from the fall. She had stepped out of the kitchen door at her home and down the steps, when her feet slipped causing her to strike heavily upon her back and left arm, giving severe pains which were at first thought to result from a compound fracture. However she is able to be up and around, though suffering more or less from the unfortunate accident.

Surely Loup City is having her fill of social entertainments this week.

Besides a number of house parties the earlier part of the week, last night came the big Odd Fellow supper and entertainment, and the dance at the new opera house by the Catholic ladies. Tonight (Thursday) comes a big time by the ladies of the P. E. O. and visit of some of their grand officers. Tomorrow (Friday) night comes the Commercial Club banquet at the new opera house. It is understood the O. E. S. lodge is expecting a visit some time this week of their grand matron, while various secret societies have degree work on hand, elections of officers, etc. Evidently the days and hours of the present week are far too limited.

Supervisors Proceeding

Loup City, Nebr., Jan. 8, 1913.—The county board of supervisors met as provided by law at 1 p. m. for the purpose of making final settlement with the county treasurer. All members present.

County treasurer's statement, covering the period from July 1st to Dec. 31st, 1912 was examined, vouchers and balances compared and statement found correct, and settlement with county treasurer declared. Board adjourned sine die.

W. C. Dieterichs, Co. Clerk.

Loup City, Neb., Jan. 9.—Board met at 9 a. m. for general business, pursuant to adjournment, of Nov. 13, 1912. All members, county attorney and county clerk being present. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Board proceeded to examine and approve official bonds.

The bond of County Attorney-elect J. S. Pedler was then examined and the protest of W. J. Fisher, filed by his attorney, was read, said protest praying that said J. S. Pedler's bond be not accepted or approved. R. J. Nightingale appeared before the board and argued against the approval of said bond and J. S. Pedler argued his case before the board. After the arguments had been heard, the board went into executive session and approved the bond of J. S. Pedler and declared him county attorney of Sherman county.

The following official bonds were then approved:

L. Hansen, treasurer of Loup City township.

A. J. Johnson, clerk of Loup City township.

M. Nickolaus, road overseer, District No. 15, Loup City township.

Wm. Hancock, road overseer, District No. 20, Loup City township.

Board adjourned till afternoon.

Board again convened with all members, County Attorney Pedler and Clerk Dieterichs present.

Clerk was instructed to have the minutes of last meeting in regard to allowing Paige road petition read and that Aug. Zochel give 20 feet off the west side of his land, the west half of section 13-14-14 for said road, making the width of said road along said land 53 feet and not 66 feet wide.

Road committee not having reported upon the Gudewrath road petition said road petition was laid over until next meeting.

The Loup City Commercial Club and those interested in the Johnson road petition appeared before the board, but the board was not ready to take action on said petition, it was tabled until next meeting.

The following official bonds were approved:

Max Grundzinski, clerk; Mike Kaminski, treasurer; S. S. Lewandowski, justice of peace; John Skimbinski, road overseer; Peter Grudzinski, road overseer, all of Oak Creek township.

On motion the Standard Bridge Co. was given an order for 30-24 ft. 9 inch and 10-30 ft. 9 inch Oak piling, to be delivered at Loup City.

Adjourned to meet at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Jan. 10.—Board met as per adjournment of yesterday with all members present.

On motion George Tockey's poll tax was ordered stricken from tax list, for the reason that he had been assessed a poll tax in Hall county prior to coming here.

Bids for county printing were then opened and examined, there being but three bids on file, viz: C. F. Beushausen, J. W. Burleigh and Midwest Printing Co. of York. After considering said bids the board, on motion, instructed the county officers to purchase supplies on the open market, Midwest Printing Co. having only bid on supplies. The county printing and stationery was allowed as follows:

Printing of election ballots, delinquent tax list, treasurer's financial statement and legal publications was awarded to J. W. Burleigh, and for stationery was awarded to C. F. Beushausen.

Alleman consent road petition praying for a road in Clay township was on motion allowed.
