PRIZE PUZZLE

The Loup City Merchant, "Don't-go-elsewhere-to-get-cheat" advertises 25 lbs 50-60 Prunes $2.25 as a special low price offer.

Leschinsky sells prunes 50-60 size, the same same goods and bought of the same wholesale house as the "Don't-go-elsewhere-to-get-cheated" Prunes, at the regular retail price of 3 lbs for 25c. Out of how much money does "Don't-go-elsewhere-to-get-cheated" beats his customers, in his 25 lb deal as compared with Leschinsky's regular price.

To every child, boy or girl, 8 years of age or under, who will hand to us the correct answer on a slip of paper, giving their name and age, on or before the 1st of March '13, I will make a present of a 1-4 pound of my best Cream Candy.

Stork Visitations
 A little daughter was born Saturday, Feb. 15th, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rossa. Mrs. Rossa was formerly Miss Anna Bartunek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bartunek of this city. Congratulations. Grandpa Bartunek may be pardoned for the seraphic smile on his face these days.

Jewett-Smalley
 On Monday of this week, his honor, Judge Smith, officiating, occurred the nuptials of Mr. Mont Joseph Jewett of Giltner, Neb., and Miss Bertha Ellen Smalley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Smalley on Route 2. We understand the happy couple will make their home at Giltner. The Northwestern bespeaks for them a happy and successful married life.

Exciting Runaway
 Yesterday (Wednesday) morning, as Judge Wall and his farm hand, Frank Januelwicz, were starting from the residence for the farm with the manure spreader to which was attached three of the judge's horses, they became frightened at the noise of the cogs of the spreader and ran away. They headed for Jenner's Park and from there swung around through town down to the residence of Mrs. O. Odendahl, thence west around the J. T. Hale place and back to the E. G. Taylor residence, where they were stopped, with no damage save the breaking of a few cogs in the spreader. From the start, Frank held to the lines like grim death to a dead nigger, so to speak, and was there with the goods at the finish. It was one of the most exciting runaways occurring for many moons.

Special Prizes Offered

To the Hustling Candidates in The Northwestern's Auto Contest

The Northwestern is more than pleased with the interest being taken in our automobile contest, and in order to show our appreciation of the work done so far, are offering as special prizes to those who are desirous of winning an extra prize for a little effort. First we are going to give to the candidate who turns in the most money on new and renewal subscriptions, from the beginning of the contest up to and including March 5, a beautiful diamond ring. To the candidate who turns in next to the largest amount of money, we will award a handsome la Valliere, with pendant attached. To all the other candidates who turn in at least $25.00 on subscriptions, and who do not win one of the above special prizes, will receive for her efforts a beautiful gold locket. It is to your advantage to work for the diamond ring, for this ring is worth working for. All of the special prizes offered are worth a strong effort. You are sure of a special prize, by turning in $25 and what candidate can't collect that amount of money by March 5th. Your friends around close will gladly help you with their subscriptions. Seventeen subscriptions for one year each will win you a gold locket, and any amount over $25 is bettering your opportunity to win the diamond ring. The regular votes are issued on subscriptions paid in, and these will go toward winning the fine automobile. These special prizes were purchased from Lou Schwamer, one of Loup City's leading jewelers. He carries a complete line of rings, watches, cut glass, in fact has the best equipped store in this part of the country. He is an expert in watch and clock repairing, and we request that you call on him and see the special prizes we are offering, and whenever you are in the market for anything in the jewelry line. Get busy, and win a special prize and better your opportunity of winning the Ford roadster.

Charley Sundstrom

Former Rockville Boy Killed at Edgemont, S. D., Last Saturday Morning

Funeral at Rockville Yesterday.
 Last Saturday, Mrs. Ida M. Ogle of Austin received a telegram from the fearful news of the death of her sister's husband, Charles Sundstrom, while brakeman on a Burlington freight train, near Edgemont, S. D., about noon that day. The accident was caused by the explosion of the engine of the freight train on which he was brakeling, and also caused the death of the engineer and fireman of the same train. Charles Sundstrom was formerly a Rockville boy, and at the time of his death was living at Alliance and working for the Burlington. Mrs. Sundstrom is a sister of Mrs. Ida M. Ogle of Austin and Mrs. Della Keeler, now of Big Creek, Cherry county, while Mr. Sundstrom was a brother of Mrs. Homer Hultz of this city and has a number of relatives now living at Rockville. The Daily Bee of Sunday morning contained the following account of the horrible accident under date of Feb. 15th, from Edgemont:

Three Burlington trainmen whose homes are at Alliance, Neb., were instantly killed at noon today, when the boiler of a freight engine exploded near Provo, the first siding east of here. The train was westbound and running less than fifteen miles an hour when the accident happened. The dead:

ENGINEER S. F. JOHNSON.
FIREMAN GEORGE WHEELER.
BRAKEMAN CHARLES SUNDRAM.

The body of the engineer was blown into an adjoining field, the fireman was caught in the coal tender and the brakeman's body was unrecognizable. All have been brought here awaiting action of the coroner.

The train carried sixty-five loads and was within thirteen miles of the end of the division when the accident occurred. The engine was of the compound mallet type and one of the most powerful now in use. No damage was done to the train and the engine trucks did not leave the rails, but the force of the explosion sent the mammoth boiler entirely beyond the right-of-way.

Superintendent Weidenheimer and motive power experts from Alliance are on the scene and the wreckage is left scattered over the ground without being touched until a careful search for the cause is concluded.

LATER—The cause of the accident was low water in the boiler, as shown by inspection immediately after the explosion.

The body was brought to Rockville Monday from Alliance, accompanied by three trainmen and the funeral was had at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Rockville schoolhouse. Rev. J. C. Tourtelot of Loup City officiating, interment being made in the Boelus cemetery.

Deceased, Lewis Charles Sundstrom, was born in Howard county, this state, Feb. 23, 1885, and at time of death was 27 years, 11 months and 23 days old. He was married Oct. 17, 1905, to Miss Eva Blanche Carpenter of Austin, Neb., and to this union were born two sons, Vernon, aged 5 years, and Floyd, aged 3 years, who with the wife, are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and indulgent father.

Above are the few facts gleaned in regard to deceased at this time, but full obituary will be given later, if furnished us for publication. The Northwestern, with the many friends of deceased and family, will deeply sympathize with the bereaved wife and little ones over the awful calamity which has so suddenly come upon them.
