George Tockey and John Huerty of Rockville were pleasant callers at these newspaper headquarters when in town on business one day last week, and ordered a line of job work. They are prince of good fellows and live business men.

Earl Thompson returned last Friday evening from Beatrice, where he had been called a few days previous by the dangerous illness of his grandmother. However, his worst fears were not realized, and he left the dear old lady much better and on the fair road to recovery.

Finally after nearly a year of waiting, Mr. Joseph Daddow was able last week to move to town and into his property purchased of Mr. T. L. Pilger. Our people will extend warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Daddow as city home maker.

Mrs. Louis Goodrich of Fairmont, this state, who has been at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Emma McCray, for the past two weeks, was suddenly called last Saturday to Pecatonica, Ill., to the deathbed of her brother. Surely, misfortune never comes singly. May a kind Providence be the consoler of the sisters in their sorrow and distress.

Our young friend, Henry Lee, of the moving picture show, and brother of A. O. Lee, went to Broken Bow last Friday. A little bird whispered to us that our young friend may have went to our sister city with intention of capturing one of the belles of that city and return a joyous Benedict. We hope the little bird was correct and if so we offer congratulations in advance.

Last Sunday, the employees of the U. P. along the nearby branches of that road were taken by special trains to Grand Island to pass examinations in the rules of the road. Agent G. W. The electric light company, finally yesterday afternoon finished the work on the flume and turned on the water about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and soon thereafter the city was getting its electric power from the big turbine wheel and water power. The writer was present down at the mill race and watched the water turned into the race and starting of the big wheel. General Smith, Col. Conger, Captain Lofholm and Lieut. Briggs, with their army of active soldiers in the field have certainly done a good job.

The many friends of Archie Kearns will be pleased and interested to learn that this bright, energetic and talented young man has chosen as his life work the ministry of the church. Last week, having made a decision to place himself, his life, his all in the work of the ministry, he appeared before the Presbytery in session at Fullerton as a candidate and was taken under their care for preparation for his chosen work. This makes the second son of Dr. and Mrs. Kearns of this city to dedicate his life to the service of the Master, and now the good doctor and loving wife and mother, having given both their boys over to the work of divine calling surely are most blessed in their giving and have a right to give praises for the blessings God has showered upon them in giving to them such sons. The Northwestern, which has followed the boys for the past ten years with its best wishes and predictions for their wise future, can now extend to both parents and sons his sincerest congratulations over the happy finale.

The Hastings Glee Club, composed of 9 ladies and 14 young gentlemen of the Presbyterian college of Hastings, who gave a concert at the First Presbyterian church in this city last Friday evening, certainly gave one of the most enjoyable entertainments ever in our city. No adverse criticism could be made of the various numbers nor in any particular save possibly the lateness of the hour in commencing and the rather too many numbers given, which did not close till the hour of eleven.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Mr. C. C. Perry, the piano tuner, who is and has been making regular visits to this city for the past number of years, and one of the finest in the country, who asks your patronage. Mr. Perry needs no introduction at our hands, as our people who have had their pianos under his charge for years past are his patrons as long as his services can be secured. The writer can speak from experience as to his qualifications, as the editor's piano has been tuned by him and kept in excellent shape for the past five or more years. See him when your piano needs tuning.

Mrs. Mook of Lincoln, who has been here for a fortnight or more visiting her brother, Dr. J. E. Bowman, and her sister, Mrs. Adolph Newhouse, and families, left Tuesday morning for York to visit her good mother.

Buy at Home, Trade at Home Boost for Your Own Town

Do you know there's lots of people Settin' round in every town Growin' like a broody chicken, Knockin' every good thing down?

Don't you be that kind of 'cattle Cause they ain't no use on earth: You just be a booster, Crow and boost fer all you're worth.

If your town needs boostin', boost'er, Don't hold back and wait to see If some other fellow's willin', Sail right in, this country's free; No one's got a mortgage on it— It's just your's, as well as his; If your town is shy on boosters, You get in the booster biz.

If things don't just seem to suit you And the world seems kinder wrong, What's the matter with a-boostin', Just to help the thing along.

When you want to buy a stove, buy at home and boost for your own town;

When you want to buy a suit of clothes, buy at home,

When your wife wants a suit or cloak, buy at home,

Always be a booster.

When you take out your insurance, —take it at home; boost fer home

When you want a sack of sugar, buy at home and boost fer you're own town,

When you want a pair of shoes, buy at home and be a booster.

You just keep the horn a-blowin'— Boost'er up with all you're might, If you know some feller's fallin', Just forget 'em, cause you know That same feller's got some good points Them's the ones you want to show.

Cast you're loaves out on the waters, "They'll come back," 'a-sayin's true; Mebbe, too, they'll come back buttered When some feller's boostin' you. * *

For Rent—Good five room house and barn, on four lots, city water and sidewalk. See W. F. Mason.
