Three constitutional amendments were passed and will be submitted to the votes of the people for adoption or rejection at the next general election. One of these provides for tax reform and provides for an income tax and taxes on privileges and occupations; these in addition to the general taxes as levied at present. The second amendment is one permitting five-sixths of a jury to render a verdict in civil cases and in criminal cases less than felonies. It also gives the legislature authority to authorize a trial by jury of less than twelve men in courts below the district court. The third constitutional amendment is one raising salaries, increasing the governor's from $2,500 to $5,000. The secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction and land commissioner from $2,000 to $2,500; increasing the salary of attorney general from $2,000 to $4,000; the state treasurer from $2,500 to $3,000, and reducing the present salary of the lieutenant governor from two to one and one-half times the salary of a state senator.

California is in the throes of war over Japanese ownership of land in that state, or has been, and the legislature was about to pass a law against allowing Japs to become owners of realties in that state, when lo and behold Dictator Bryan was sent out there last week by President Wilson to prevent such drastic lawmaking, and the legislature giggled back and consented to let the matter lie over till next lawmaking season. Bryan said thumbs up, and up went the legislative thumbs. Oh, it's great to have a Bryan in a party to tell them what to do. And now the Japs can give up the idea of war, which has caused the democratic administration to throw seventeen kinds of fits over the fear of the little brown men.

Clare Kettle brought over from Ashton Monday a bunch of 26 horses, 25 of which he put down in Rudolph Johns' pasture, shipping the other one to Grand Island to make up a load for shipment by Warrick and Fletcher. He returned to Ashton that evening with Ed Jamrog by the auto route.

The governor has signed a bill prohibiting physicians from dividing fees with each other or from accepting commissions from persons sending them patients; also a bill prohibiting whites from marrying any person who has one-eighth blood of negro, or Japanese or Chinese blood; also prohibiting misrepresentation in the quality of any goods offered for sale.

Senator Norris has introduced a bill in the senate, the purpose of which is to make the service in the postoffice department a desirable life work that will not be subject to changes in administrations and political pull.

Loup City to Have a Laundry

Loup City is to have a steam laundry, Mr. L. Domgard, who went from here to Ord a few months ago, to operate the same, returning here bringing the plant to this point. There is no reason why a laundry could not receive ample support here and we are pleased that friend Domgard is to come to us with one. He expects his car from Ord today, and will start operations in the old pop factory building.

Along R. R. No. 2

Miss Wauneta Conger visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Patten over Sunday.

Sam Daddow has hauled several loads of lumber out to the farm this week.

Getting the corn ground in shape has been the order of the day the past week. Winter wheat never looked better.

W. T. Chase sold his plat of ground with the big barn on it just, east of Robert Dinsdale's feed yards, to Mr. Dinsdale last week.

A shower of postal cards fell on Harold Daddow at Austin from his old friends on Wiggle Creek on Wednesday.

A crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Howard Tuesday evening. It was in honor of Miss Carrie Bogseth, who has finished her term of school in this district. All had a dandy time. Miss Bogseth left for her home at Erickson this week.

A. A. Newhouser had an exciting experience with a span of mules last week. On his way to Loup City they got frightened at something just after they left home and, to use his own words, how they did run, up hill and down, until he struck the valley when he got them headed into a vacant field, where he kept them going in a circle until they had all the run they wanted. No harm done to anything.

Will Hancock is going over all his road work with the grader this spring and has a gang of men at work now. This is a fine thing, as the drifting snow in the winter keeps small streams of water running down the hill following the wheel tracks, some times making very deep ruts in the center of the road and if the roads are left until fall rutted this way all the rains of the summer continue to pass down the same ruts, causing such deep holes that it is dangerous to the public. Shaping up the roads in the spring opens up some ditches that are filled up with trash. Sometimes the water flows across the road all summer if left until fall. If the work is done in the spring and the road drag used several times during the summer it will keep the roads in good shape.

Fred Plenkney was dragging the roads from his place east last Saturday.

W. Engle, who is building Carl Anderson's new house, has it nearly all enclosed.

W. Thornton, who is working for Milo Gilbert this year, has put up a box on Route 1.

Lorin Hayden and Geo. Zahn and wife were Loup City visitors the past week.

Oaka Clark is breaking some land just north of where his father lives, on the quarter they purchased recently.

James Ling fixed the road leading to his box up in fine shape, which is surely appreciated by the mail man, as quite a little time can be saved when the boxes are in a good place to get to them.

There is a gang of men at work cutting down the brush on both sides of the road from town to the west bridge, which will surely be a great help when finished, for it was always a bad mud hole as there was not much chance for it to dry up, and it was also a bad place for snow to drift in.

ADAMS-VAN DYKE WEDDING

On Wednesday, April 23, 1913, at Bryken Bow, Neb., at the hour of 12:30 p.m., occurred the marriage of Mr. Russell D. Adams, Jr., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Adams, to Miss Ruth Gladys Van Dyke, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Van Dyke, both families residing near Huxley, Neb. The ceremony took place at the home of Lawyer and Mrs. Johnson of Broken Bow, uncle and aunt of the bride, the Rev. Sprecklin, pastor of the U. B. church, officiating. Only a few relatives were present. The young couple left the next day for Natick, Neb., where the groom has purchased a farm and where they will make their home in the future. May prosperity and happiness go with them on their journey through life.

Cupid's Calculations

April 24th, County Judge Smith issued a marriage license to Mr. Frank Kpzel and Miss Anna Holub, both of Bristol township, and so well pleased were they with his honor's celebrated reputation for joining happy couples in bonds of hymen, that they came up the 30th instant (yesterday) and had him finish his job by making them man and wife.

April 29th, a marriage license was issued to Mr. Paul Lewandowski and Miss Mary Waskowiak, both of Ashton.

Death's Summons

Mr. Mike Nickolas received the sad news this morning of the death of his good father at 2 o'clock last night at Sutton, and took the Burlington this morning for the stricken home. He only been home from the father's bedside a few days, and had intended returning tomorrow. The father was aged 70 years and death was caused from Bright's disease. The sympathy of our people go with him.

G. W. Collipriest was this morning called to the bedside of his father at Woolstock, Ia., who had just received a second stroke of paralysis and is lying very low, with practically no hope for recovery. Our entire people will sympathize with George and trust the good father may yet be spared.

Bill's Hard Luck

Jack: Hello, Bill. How are you? How are your crops?
Bill: Haven't got much since that hail storm we had last week.
Jack: You don't mean to tell me that you were hauled out?
Bill: Well, I might just as well have been cleaned as the way things look now. It sure hit me hard, and I had prospects for a bumper crop. You know, Jack, I'm renting, but I had hopes that I could buy a little piece of my own, and so much depended on a good crop this season. I had a chance to buy a forty on easy terms and if I got a crop it would go quite a ways to help me get a start.
Jack: Didn't you have your grain insured? I had all of mine insured and the insurance man was out to see me yesterday and, believe me, he treated me great.
Bill: What Company insured your crop?
Jack: Why, the St. Paul Fire and Marine. They have been writing hail insurance around here for years. I get a policy with them every year.
Bill: That's the same Company that wanted to insure my crop, but I told the agent I was too busy to talk insurance. Gee, I wish I had taken out a policy to cover at least my interest in the crop.
