Rev. R. F. Scott of Arcadia will fill the M. E. pulpit here next Sunday, morning and evening, while Dr.
Leeper is absent on a vacation to the west part of the state. He is said to be a good talker and you are cordially invited to come out and hear him.

Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Leeper left Monday morning by the auto route for a trip out to the Scotts Bluff country, expecting to return the latter part of next week. That they will have a most pleasant outing and vacation goes without saying.

Mrs. R. P. Starr left for Grand Island Monday morning, where she entered a hospital there for a slight operation. Word was received here Tuesday noon that she had passed successfully through the operation that morning and was resting easy.

We understand several of our auto drivers have had the stop watch put on them, with the result that they have exceeded the speed limit, and we may soon hear of a number who will be called upon to liquidate.

We are always glad when we hear of the old soldiers receiving increase of pension. One of the latest coming to our notice is that of Comrade Willis Fulliton, who has been notified of an increase of $1 per month, dating from July 9, 1912, making his pension now $19 per month. Good!

Our popular jeweler, Lou Schwaner, is now nicely at home in his new quarters, the remodelled Draper photograph studio, just west of the Gasteyer store. Lou has now about the neatest, nicest and handsomest place one could wish, and where his goods on display with splendid electric lighting system, makes it a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

While Frank Lorchick, Mike Kaminski and Ernest Rowe were going out to Mike Mazinkowski's, some six miles north of town. Monday, they dug out six young coyotes from a bank in the Dinsdale pasture. As the scalps of the pests are worth $1 a piece, it was a pretty good morning's work for the boys.

An editor is supposed to be ready at all times to be able to write in tip-top shape weddings, deaths, births, elope-ments, divorces, accidents, announcements, arrivals, departures, entertainments, receptions, parties, dinners, banquets, dances, base-ball and football games, picnics, police pickings, church bazaars, politics, etc., etc., and never skip the trolley. And yet the poor devil has such an easy time, as everybody says.

Three of the Odd Fellows from Loup City were signally honored at the dedicatory ceremonies of the new court house at Central City last week, J. W. Conger being made escort to the president of the Rebekah State Assembly, while Dr. Dickinson and O. F. Peterson were escorts to the flag. Pretty good for the Odd Fellows from this best town on earth.

As will be seen by notice in another place, the drug firm of Vaughn & Hinman was dissolved Tuesday, the 20th, Mr. Vaughn retiring and Mr. A.
D. Hinman taking over the whole business. Mr. Hinman will make Loup City his home and take personal charge of the business, of which he had heretofore been a silent partner. He is a man of affairs and had retired from the most of his business activities, but we are glad he is to make his home with us and become an active factor in our busy mart.

Mr. Vaughn has not as yet fully decided as to his future intentions, but the Northwestern, while regretting his retirement from the above firm, will yet hope he may remain with us and again engage in business here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cooper and Miss Marie Cooper arrived last Friday from their home at Mitchell, in the west part of the state and will occupy the Judge Moon home for the future.

Our people are pleased to have this estimable family return and make their home with us.
