

R U Aware That U R Allowing

A Great Opportunity to pass every day that you do not visit our bank.

Success and Friends follow a bank account

We can prove this to you if you will give us a chance.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
of Loup City, Nebraska

W. J. Mason, Pres. H. B. Outhouse, Vice-Pres.
L. Hansen, Cashier

Your Medicine Cabinet

Should always be well Supplied. you never know the hour you may need something from it. Are you sure that you have all the articles that you require? And are you positive you know how to use what you have? Come in here to day and let us talk it over. We may be able to give you some useful hints. They are free. Bring a list of what you need and let us figure on it.

Swanson & Lofholm,

Coal! Coal!! Coal!!!

We carry two kinds of nut coal.
Try our
Pinacle Nut
and you'll use no other

TAYLOR'S ELEVATOR

Loup City Infirmary of Osteopathy
Dr. Jas. F. Blanchard
Physician in Charge

Office hours—8 a. m. until 5 p. m.
Rates for rooms on request.
Examination free, Phone No. 106

LUMBER

When in Need of COAL
or first-class
Lumber
of all dimensions,
We also have a car of Coke.
We also have a good line of Fence posts, ranging in price from ten to fifty cents.
Phone Red 29 and you will receive prompt attention

LEININGER LUMBER COMPANY

THE NORTHWESTERN

Subscription to the Northwestern is $1.50 a year Single Copy 5 cents

LOCAL NEWS.

Try F. E. Brewer for hail insurance. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Dr. W. T. Chase purchased a new Buick last week.

Special low prices on Plow and List Lays at Garner's shop.

W. S. Waite had business at Ashton last Saturday.

If you want to be treated right, insure in the St. Paul Fire and Marine of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. A. H. Hansel and daughter were Grand Island visitors last Saturday.

Complete line of goods that go to make up an up-to-date jewelry store at Schwaner's.

W. F. Mason and C. Bradley returned last Friday night from a few days' business in Omaha.

Select a nice parol and have detachable handle monogrammed, at Schwaner's.

M. A. Phillips is the proud possessor of a new Oakland auto, purchased last Saturday.

For Sale, one 8-foot Deering Binder with all attachments. Inquire of S. Foss, one mile west of Loup City.

Mr. Adrian Leeper, oldest son of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Leeper, is here from Montana visiting them.

The new Frederick has treated itself to a fine new bus and dandy team the past few days.

The Sturtevant Vacuum Cleaner, the clean way to clean. See C. R. Sweetland or phone. He has them for sale or rent.

It is claimed that Sherman county has about a half million dollars invested in automobiles so far.

Furniture, almost as good as new for sale at the Second Hand Store for 50c on the dollar.

The Misses Arlie Corning and Emma Rowe were Grand Island visitors last Friday.

If you want good, prompt draying, call on C. L. McDonald, successor to Hagood.

Miss Mabel Barnes from St. Paul is a new stenographer and book-keeper in the office of the First Trust Co.

If you want a dray, phone A. L. Enderlee, Black 63, or leave your order with either lumber yard or E. G. Taylor. Best of service guaranteed.

H. J. Johansen and wife, A. J. Johnson and wife, Mrs. C. E. Mellor and C. J. Tracy attended the funeral of Mrs. W. R. Mellor at Lincoln Tuesday.

Mr. Montague Worlock begs to announce that he is now prepared to receive pupils in singing and voice production both in class and private. For terms and further particulars apply either personally or by letter to Mr. Montague Worlock, Loup City.

T. D. Wilson and wife went to Ashton last Friday and left Saturday by auto for Ravenna, there to take the train for Morrill, Neb., where they are to spend the better part of the summer.

S. A. Pratt on Monday of this week went to Hazard to install a new pool hall at that place. He expects later to move to Hazard, and if so, instead of selling his residence property here will rent for the present.

Emil Cronquist and bride, formerly Miss Sallie Johnson of this city, left last Saturday for points east on their honeymoon trip, and will be at home at Holyoke, Colorado, July 1st.

Mrs. Joe Cording and little daughter from Litchfield were visiting for a number of days at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bennett, returning home Sunday last.

H. S. Nightingale went to Benkleman, Neb., last Friday, where he had a foreclosure case in the district court for Mrs. Kee and daughter of Washington township, returning home Tuesday of this week.

Judge Walter Moon returned last Saturday evening from attendance on a reunion of Iowa soldiers at Des Moines, going down to Iowa's capitol Monday of that week. It was thought that would be the last reunion of Iowa soldiers that would ever take place.

Dr. J. E. Bowman was called to York last Friday evening by the serious illness of his good mother, W. D. Zimmerman, accompanied by M. C. Mulick, driving him to Ravenna to take the train. He expects to go on to Omaha before returning, if the condition of the mother warrants it.

The county board adjourned last Friday evening about 9:30, after a most strenuous week doing dad's work for the county, Friday afternoon and evening being taken up in settling matters pertaining to the west bridge. It is expected everything will be completed this week on the west bridge contract.

The Odd Fellows here are feeling jubilant over the honors conferred on the lodge as a whole and on two members personally in that last week Dr. Dickinson received his commission as assistant surgeon on the commander's staff of the Cantons, with rank of captain, while R. D. Hendrickson received his commission as adjutant of the third battalion, 2nd regiment, of the same order, with rank of captain also. And they were honors worthily bestowed.

Quality considered, my prices are as low as found anywhere.

Schwaner, the Jeweler.

Fritz Leschinsky returned home from the State University last week for the summer vacation.

Lost—Raditor cap from auto. Finder please return to Frank Baska.

Second-hand lawnmower for sale by the editor.

Miss Minnie Gilbert was home for a visit over last Sunday, returning to her duties in Omaha Monday.

George Cramer arrived from Kanorado, Kansas, last Saturday noon and will again make his home in this city for a short time.

Clark Reynolds last week sold his farm in Washington township to W. Aufrecht.

House for Rent—Fenced insuitable for chickens. Apply to Henry Jenner, phone blue 12.

Mrs. A. B. Outhouse attended the funeral of the late Mrs. W. R. Mellor at Lincoln Tuesday.

With a big wind accompaniment, this section was visited by 15-100ths of an inch of rain last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ray Gardiner went to Dannebrog Tuesday noon for a two weeks' visit. Another lone widower to join the bunch.

New line of umbrellas, gold and sterling silver detachable handles now on display at Schwaner's, the Jeweler.

There will be services at 10 a. m. June 22nd, at the German Evangelical church.

Mrs. True of Lee Park, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. Benschoter, for a number of days, returned to her home last Saturday.

Miss Bess Sharp went down to Lincoln Tuesday morning to attend the state Sunday school association meeting.

Miss Hartman, a deaconess of the Methodist church, is expected to arrive this week to assist in the work of that church in Loup City.

Disks sharpened by either the cold rolling or cutting process at Garner's. Prices right and satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. J. L. Fort and little daughter, left last week for Almena, Kan., for a month's visit. Jesse makes the twentieth widower here.

Mrs. Rebecca Eichelberger of Aurora and little Mable Sandin of Marquette, are here visiting their daughter and grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Cowling.

Miss Theresa Dzingie is home on a three weeks' vacation from Omaha, where she is studying at St. Catherine hospital for a trained nurse.

Try the Ideal Bakery for Bread, Pies, Cakes and Pastry of all kinds. Special attention given to orders for parties, entertainments, 6 o'clock dinners, etc.

Dr. S. A. Allen went to Lincoln Tuesday morning on business connected with the publication of the State Dental Journal, of which he is editor. Mrs. Allen accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Taylor and daughter Lucile were St. Paul visitors Tuesday, Ed explaining they had not seen the twins yet, the second pair coming to bless his brother's home.

Albert Lowery, W. J. Heapy, A. L. Fletcher and G. W. Sweley, were a bunch of good fellows over from Litchfield Monday by auto on business.

While Sunday evening's rain gave Loup City only 15-100ths of an inch of moisture, along the line of Auston and Wiggle Creek, east and west, it is reported there was a downpour averaging from two to two and one-half inches.

Miss Mabel Daddow went to Gibbon Tuesday morning to visit her friend, Miss Grace Tracy, and attend an Epworth League convention there as delegate from the local chapter.

A. J. Werner of the Rockville State Bank was a Loup City visitor Monday night, returning home Tuesday morning. He did not tell us his business up here but blushed guiltily when we asked if a bunch of crinoline was the drawing card.

For Sale at a bargain, a new Minnesota sewing machine, a good press drill and a good Milwaukee Binder. The drill can be seen at O. Mason's Implement store. 7-26 R.F.D. 1. Mrs. Annie L. Cash, Phone 9520. Loup City, Neb.

J. W. Long went to Lincoln Sunday morning, driving to Ravenna to take the train, called there by the death of his aunt, Mrs. W. R. Mellor, which occurred at 3:30 that morning. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon.

"If I had my life to live over again, what changes would I make and why?" will be the subject for Sabbath evening at the Presbyterian church. A number of replies have been received to the above question, which will be given. Morning services as usual. Children's Day program at Austin at 3 p. m.

Miss Lizzie Leininger, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Leininger, went to Aurora yesterday, where the mother will remain for a visit, while Miss Lizzie, accompanied by her nephew, George Houser, will make an extended tour of the Pacific Coast states, going first to Denver for a few days, thence to Los Angeles to attend a big Sunday school convention, and from there leisurely home through California, Oregon and Washington and the northern part of the United States.

SHOES! SHOES!! SHOES!!!

How are Your Shoes?

Have you ever wore a pair of Shoes made of pure leather? You can buy that kind of the
Loup City Mercantile Company
Every pair guaranteed.

Special Price on Oxfords

For seven days commencing Saturday, June 21st, and ending June 28. Buy your Oxfords Now

No. 5366
Tan Calf Pump, Regular $3.50
On Sale $2.98

No. 6100
White Buck Pump, Regular $3.50,
Now $2.98

No. 7383
Black Patent Oxfords
Regular $3.50 Now $2.98

No. 3917
Black Patent a strap pump
Regular $2.50 Now $2.15

No. 7292
Ladies' black patent lace Oxford
Regular $3.50 Now $2.98

No. 6000
Ladies' White Buck Shoes $3.50

Our Store Will Close Every Evening at 7:30, Except Sat.

Loup City Mercantile Co.

GOOD ADVICE

Leave orders for the C. L. McDonald dray at either lumber yard, or E. G. at Taylor's.

Buy your wall paper at the Loup City paint store.

Sugar still $5.30 per 100 pounds, at Loup City Mercantile Co.'s.

Gooseberries for sale. See Mrs. John Lofholm.

Mrs. Laura Briggs visited her aunt at Arcadia over last Sunday.

Ed Manchester was down from Oak Creek interested in a school case.

Don't forget the bazaar to be given by our German friends next Thursday in the Herman Jung building.

Fritz Amick left Monday morning for Pool where he is going to grow up into a grangerman.

A. N. Cook was home over last Sunday from McCook, where he is employed by a nursery company.

George Wolfe and wife were over from Litchfield doing some trading last Saturday.

Sunday last was so hot that the thermometer had to go down cellar to cool off. Splendid corn weather, you bet.

Mrs. E. P. Daily went to Scotia last Saturday and Mr. Daily followed Monday morning to attend the wedding of their niece, daughter of Mr. Daily's brother.

Mrs. Harvey O'Bryan of St. Paul, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Benschoter.

Found—Pair of auto curtains, in front of the residence of R. J. Nightingale, in this city. Owner can get same by paying for this notice.

Miss Nancy Harrod left Tuesday morning for North Platte, where she will visit for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leininger.

Miss Francis Sweetland returned last Friday from attendance on the wedding of her brother, Leslie, at Bellevue.

Uncle John Chipos was over from Scotia attending District Court the first of the week, returning home yesterday morning.

Flies are Here, Hail Storms are Cming.
Insure against both
Our SCREENS do the work and our prices are right.

Keystone Lumber Co.

A complete line Furniture,
Rugs, Linoleum, Shades, etc.

DAILY & KREBS

For Paints and Oils go to
T. A. GZEHOVIAK
Hardware Store

I am prepared to do first-class repairing of all kinds.
Don't fail to come and see our fine china ware.