The place to buy a good cloak is at the Loup City Mercantile Co.

The Loup City Mercantile Co. certainly have the cloaks this year.

Will Engle is busy these days remodeling the old W. S. Waite home.

C. J. Norsted left for Lincoln last Saturday to attend the State Fair.

Mr. Orrin Goodell returned to Humphrey last Friday after a visit here.

Jim Lee went Lincoln last Saturday where he has a position at the State Fair this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steen left last Saturday morning for a week's honeymoon trip to St. Paul, Minnesota.

W. S. Waite, wife and two youngest children went to Ord last Saturday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. A. W. Petersen returned to Aurora last Friday after a week's visit at home of C. O. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schuman of Ashton were here over last Sunday visiting at the homes of their sons.

Paul Heizer was up from Rockville Monday renewing old friendships at the route picnic.

O. F. Petersen and wife and Mrs. John Solms went to Lincoln Monday morning to attend the State Fair.

Miss Pearl Keeler returned last Saturday from her visit to the Pacific Coast, her mother having preceded her home about a week.

Miss Annie Christensen, who has been visiting for some time at the home of Werner Pritchau, left last Saturday for St. Paul.

Miss Lucille De Camp, sister of Mrs. S. A. Allen, is here stopping with her and attending school for the winter.

Mrs. O. E. Longacre went to Eagle Monday, called by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, wife of Dr. Longacre's brother.

Len Knapp and a party returned last week from a ten days' auto trip to Colorado, tenting out and having dadoodles of a time.

Earle Hancock left last Saturday morning to attend the military encampment at Lincoln and also to attend the State Fair.

Mrs. J. R. Gardner and little son Ray, went to Dannebrog last Saturday morning for an over-Sunday visit, returning Monday.

Miss Byrdee Needham and Miss Elida Lund left for Lincoln last Saturday morning to attend the State Fair this week.

Chris. Petersen left for Lincoln last Saturday to put in a year's study at the Nebraska School of Business, on a business and stenographic course.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Foss returned last Thursday from a week's trip up into the sandhills near Grace. They report crops looking fine up that way and had a most pleasant visit.

Rev. J. W. Zimmerman of Laurel, Neb., is here visiting his brother, A. L. Zimmerman, till about Sept. 10, when he goes to the U. B. conference at York. We understand he will transfer to Julian this state, after conference closes.

Mrs. Margaret Leininger, Miss Lizzie Leininger and Miss Nancy Harrod returned home last Monday evening. Mrs. Leininger from her visit with her daughter, Mrs. Houser, at Aurora, Miss Nancy Harrod from a visit with Chas. Leininger and family at North Platte, and Miss Leininger from her tour of the Pacific Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leininger and two sons, Harold and Forrest, were expecting to leave today for their home at Gordon, Neb., after their week's visit with old friends and relatives here. It would be mighty pleasing to us all, if they would conclude to return here, but no such good luck, as George has a fine lumber business at Gordon, and well worth staying with.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ohlsen and Miss Frieda Ohlsen returned home last Friday evening from across the Big Pond and visit to the Fatherland. They report a most pleasant time, and while we were sweltering with the intense heat of the summer, they were enjoying the cool and refreshing climate they found throughout Germany. We have seen none of them save John, but he has gained so much in avordupose that he is scarcely recognizable to his most intimate friends.
