Greedy-gut Charles, pioneer sack-holder on snipe hunting expeditions in Sherman county, has such a relish for snipe soup that he can not realize any other dish suitable for the human or divine.

The same news you read in the Northwestern each week is also read on the high seas. Where the Atlantic fleet is at target practice in the southern drill grounds, by Dr. C. F. Charlton, U. S. N. He is as much interested in the crop conditions of Sherman county and the news generally as any one here. The mail is taken to the fleet by one of Uncle Sam's tug boats.

The Sturtevant Vacuum Cleaner, the clean way to clean. See C. R. Sweetland or phone. He has them for sale or rent.

Jesse W. Dougal, a real estate man from Loup City, was in Aurora the first of the week. Mr. Dougal reports all members of the Hamilton county colony in that section doing well, the scientific methods of farming which they learned on high priced Platte valley land being well adapted to Sherman county condition.—Republican

The St. Paul Republican tells of a Howard county girl who had a terrible accident recently. She was sitting on the lawn and a mosquito bit her and she was unable to meet a social engagement that evening because she could not get her new skirt on over the bite.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Phillips and their children of Loup City visited last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. McCoy and her sister, Mrs. Loomis, and the D. A. Johnson family in north Aurora. The Phillips family moved to Sherman county from Aurora four or five years ago, since which time Mr. Phillips has been with the Loup City Mercantile Company, a concern owned by D. A. Johnson of this city and William Larson of Loup City. Since leaving Aurora, Mr. Phillips has bought and sold a couple of farms and seems quite well satisfied with his investments. He says crop conditions in Sherman county are pretty good this year.—Aurora Republican.

If you want a dray, phone A. L. Enderlee, Black 63, or leave your order with either lumber yard or E. G. Taylor. Best of service guaranteed.

Ex-Printer Brown, a newly acquired attache of the Quiz shop, drew $10 from the boss to send for his wife to come but later changed his mind and decided to go to his wife. He failed to notify Haskell and forgot to leave his keys. The Quiz man was considerably wrought up over the matter and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the errant Brown and he was picked up yesterday at York. Sheriff Sutton has gone after him and he will be brought back to answer to the charge of having obtained money under false pretenses. Similar occurrences have taken place in almost every print shop in the country and the craft will be interested to watch the outcome of this case.—Ord Journal.

Mogensen Does

Quick Work
S. P. Mogensen, the trainer of our Warren Miller, last Friday night at Scotia in a wrestling match with Mart Bly of Omaha, pinned Bly's shoulders to the mat the two first falls, getting the first in eight minutes and the second fall in thirty seconds.

Bagged Snipes
With Light
We have a good snipe story of a greengawk who, while in the east part of this county some time since, went down on the creek and held a sack for several hours to catch snipes as they came down the draw, attracted by the light back of the open-mouthed sack held by Greedy-gut Charles. It is a good one and vouched for by people who put up the old time game on the gullible jimpon weed. It showed what a darphool the guy was. We expect to give the story in full later.

"You may laugh, but if the light had been held right behind the sack, I would have bagged two or three snipes, as they whized by us."

Got Even B'gosh
The special train, leaving here Sunday morning, carried but seven passengers. One half of that number left the train at Comstock. The special was chartered by Loup City and the attraction there was a ball game between the local team and Scotia. Loup City has undoubtedly forgotten how they handed Sargent the lemon on the Fourth, when they sent only eleven people, nine of them were supposed to be the ball team. This evens it up, we opine.—Leader.
