DAILY & BREDTHAUER

Mrs. Flora De Camp of St. Paul arrived here last Saturday evening and will remain at her home with her daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Allen.

Will you sell your farm and take $1000 as first payment and make reasonable terms on balance? If so, I can sell it for you at once. For particulars, see J. W. Dougal, Loup City, Nebr.

Ten per cent off on house paints at the Loup City Paint and Glass Store.

On account of the rainy weather of yesterday (Wednesday) Litchfield postponed the opening of their two-days' celebrations till today and tomorrow, and to postpone it still further if the weather continues bad.

Last Thursday, Vic Swanson, Elmer Youngquist, A. J. Budler, J. W. Conger and Allen Cash went up to Pony Lake for a week's fishing trip. Just imagine the fish stories they will spin on their return.

S. F. Reynolds wants a car load of hens at once.

Mrs. Henry Lee drove over to Mason City last Friday with her uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs. John Meek, to visit with them till Saturday, when she was to go to Broken Bow. Hank went up today, both to return the first of next week.

S. Foss received word last week that his son, Frank, had arrived safely at Jaynesville, Wis., and was particularly well pleased with his new home, and had expressed his intention of making that his future home.

For sale—Cabinet sewing machine, good as new. Mrs. A. N. Cook.

W. R. Mellor made a hurried business trip up from Lincoln last Saturday evening, returning Monday morning. W. R. says he is so busy with the statistical reports of the fair's work that he must be right on the job every minute till finished, when he will come up often and stay longer.

Take your chickens to S. F. Reynolds. He pays the highest market price.

Down at Lincoln at the big Methodist conference, one preacher blamed the automobile for the lack of church attendance on Sundays. He claimed people went joy riding instead of attending divine worship. Of course, the Loup City autoists are among the number.

Leave orders for the C.L. McDonald dray at either lumber yard, or E. G. at Taylor's.

We regret to announce that A. N. Cook and family leave us next Tuesday for Avoca, N. Y., where they will probably make their future home. They expect to visit at points in Iowa enroute with relatives and friends. May kind fortune attend them.

For Sale—New Ford Roadster, slightly used. See car at Blaska's garage.

Dr. A. T. Charlton from Los Angeles who has been visiting his father and mother for a week left Saturday morning for Chicago, New York, Boston and Washington. He will visit the large hospitals while in the east, he will also visit his brother who is in the navy in the U. S. S. Panther. He expects to stop off again on his return to the coast a few days.

If you want good, prompt draying, call on C. L. McDonald, successor to Hagood.

J. W. Long left Wednesday morning for St. Louis and Louisville and Danville, Kentucky on business and pleasure, at Danville visiting his brother-in-law, Dr. Rawson, returning in about a week, bringing home with him Mrs. Jennie Rawson, who has been visiting there with her son a number of months.

Before buying your threshing coal call at Taylor's elevator and get their prices and see their coal.

The three-boss section of the editorial household visited at the home of Misses Minnie and Marcella Gilbert in Webster township last Saturday and had one of the most pleasant visits since coming to Loup City. It is like escaping from a prison into paradise to get such a lovely day's outing in the country, we should judge by the expressions of pleasure. All the same the editor didn't get altogether left on the fodder line. The hotels took pity on him.

Call and see the very latest in High Grade Pianos. Bring one along with you who can judge a piano. Why buy a cheap instrument when you can get the very best for the same money. H. M. ELSNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Hansen arrived last week Wednesday from their new home in Los Angeles, Calif., where they have been for the past eighteen months, and expect to remain for a week visiting relatives and friends, before returning to their ocean home. They are particularly well pleased with Southern California, so much so that Mr. Hansen has disposed of all his holdings here and will undoubtedly make that sunny clime their future home. They will next spring make a trip into Oregon and Washington to make an extensive visit to that part of the coast, but not with expectation of changing their location, however.

Go to S. F. Reynolds for old wheat flour.

Frank Grow returned from his trip to New York and Vermont on Monday of this week. From him we learn that his father, D. C. Grow, who was on the eastern trip with him, has purchased a fine farm of about 180 acres near Jeffersonville, Vermont, remaining while Frank came home to make arrangements for the family to move there within the next two weeks, where they will make their future home. While regretting the loss of this estate to the family and old residents from our midst, our people with one accord will follow them with best wishes for their future happiness and success in their New England home.

Having purchased the Jos. Kochanowski dray, respectfully solicited a share of your dray and transfer work. Prompt and careful attention given. Phone the elevator or either lumber yard. RUFUS HIDDLESON.

Rev. Dr. Leeper returned from the M. E. Convention at Lincoln Tuesday evening. He will not return to us but has been assigned to Columbus, a much bigger and more important charge. The new pastor for the church at this place is Rev. L. V. Slocum, who comes from Wisner. He will not be here in time to occupy his pulpit but Dr. Leeper will occupy the same for him in the morning. Dr. Leeper and family will probably move
