We are sorter glad that we did our courting and love making before the Bulgarian blouse for girls came into "fashion". In the days of our "sparkling" the girls wore their belt at the squeezing line. We can imagine the embarrassing moment for the young man of today who places his arm about the girl's waist as indicated by her belt and attempts a squeeze.—Ex

John Peterson of Teeds Grove Iowa, under date of Sept. 23, in sending another year's subscription to the Northwestern, adds: "I find I can not do without the paper, as it keeps me posted on what is going on in Loup City and throughout the county. It was very dry here this summer, but we have had some showers here of late, but crops are not going to be as good as last year."

CLAP - TRAP

EVANGELISTS
Rev. Hammond, district superintendent of the Methodist church for the Kearney district, has ordered the Trinity Methodist church at Kearney closed, giving as his reason that the church is ruptured by internal dissensions and is a shame to the cause of Methodism. Trinity church is situated in the First ward of this city. Rev. Hammons also asked the conference to abolish the "clap-trap evangelists" and to depend upon the good old fashioned religion for saving souls. We always did admire Dr. Hammons for his good, sound sense.—Kearney Democrat.

SUPERVISORS PROCEEDINGS

September 17, 1913, County board of supervisors met pursuant to adjournment of August 13, with all members present, J. H. Welty Chairman, W. O. Brown, Dan McDonald, H. W. Long, Wenzel Revollinski, Thos. Jensen, Hiyo Aden, J. L. Pedler, Co. Atty and L. B. Polski, Clerk. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

L. Rein was instructed to buy a desk for use in his office. Denniston road petition was next up the Board finding that all the provisions of the law had been complied with and that said road was a public necessity on motion allowed the same; also allowed Felix Makowski damages to his land for said road $100, per acre as surveyed. Board adjournment till 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

September 18, 1913, Board met this forenoon with all members present. The Elsner road petition was next up and after due consideration the Board on motion disallowed the same. District treasurer's bonds of John Hell, Geo. F. Douglas, John Kwiatkowski and Thomas Jensen were approved.

Motion made, seconded and duly carried that the Nightingale Road Petition be allowed from the North end of said proposed road to the Southeast corner of South half of Northeast of 12-15-15 and that damages be allowed in the following amounts; H. F. Anderson $25; Minnie Hansel $75. Board ordered the Denniston road and road 103, on section 50-14-16 surveyed.

Claims Commissioner reported that they had allowed all claims, except claims of Wm. Aufrecht, S. H. Robinson and $4.00 of Klopp & Bartlett and deductions made for taxes.
