ALONG ROUTE TWO

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie visited at Clarence Burt's Sunday.
 About 80 attended the social at Don Holmes' last Friday evening.
 Don't forget the institute at the Wiggle creek church Friday Oct. 24.
 Jim McBeth's little girl fell and fractured her arm so the little one has to carry it in a sling.
 Mrs. Cash's new barn will soon be completed.
 John Peterson has been doing some good road work the past week.
 Ladies aid society met at the home of James McBeth Wednesday Oct. 22.
 Issi brothers have built a fine cave this fall. It is rat proof, being made all of cement.
 Don't forget the big day October 24, at the Wiggle creek church. Rev. Shirley will be there to lecture. The Farmers' Institute that convenes in the church on that day ought to have one of the largest crowds ever gathered on the Creek for this purpose. Every farmer should be interested and be there.
 Hans Deltz has been building a new granary this.
 George Stork has been out to Will Draper's doing some painting this week.
 Ed Obermiller has dug a cave on his farm.
 Allen Cash was autoling on Route 2 Tuesday.
 Liephart took a load of lumber out on his farm Tuesday.
 Brown's Tennessee Minstrels, opera house Saturday night of this week.
 If you like minstrel shows, go and hear Brown's Tennesseans at the opera house Saturday night of this week.
 Brown's Minstrels carry people and is classed among the best minstrel shows of the present day. See their parade in the afternoon.
 Furnishings and millinery sale at Mrs. Mathews beginning next Saturday. Everything worked, all first class goods.
 Wm. Schumann now has the agency of the Ford autos, vice A. C. Ogle, who had given up the agency.
