Each week numerous complaints reach this office of failure to receive their copies of the Northwestern. As we have a printed mailing list and no complaints were ever received at this office under the old postoffice regime, we insist that the fault does not lie with this office. However, we are ordering new copies each week and will see that you receive other copies in event of failure to receive yours at any time.

If you want a dray, phone A. L. Endler, Black 63, or leave your order with either lumber yard or E. G. Taylor. Best of service guaranteed.

Henry Ransink, on his farm on Route 2, has just had a new addition put on his home and fixed up more comfortably for the coming winter. Henry has had more or less trouble in receiving his Northwestern of late, but it is hoped will get it regularly hereafter. However, if you do not get your paper any week, let us know and you will receive an extra copy whenever it falls to come to you.

We were pleased to meet last Saturday Mr. Alvin Gould of Comstock, who left here some seventeen years ago to find fortune elsewhere. Leaving here, he went to Michigan, where he remained for some seven years. From there he went up into the Black Hills, later engaging in the cattle business during the bad years, in which he got the worst of the deal for a time, and latter settling at Comstock, where he is getting along nicely. This is his first visit here in seventeen years.
