Wonderful, isn't it? Dispatches appear in the dailies with big headlines to the effect that President Wilson actually writes on a typewriter himself, individually and alone, and thus made public his Thanksgiving proclamation.

Here is where Governor Moorehead and the great Bryan are at loggerheads. The governor gives it out that he is firmest state official running around making public speeches while the public pays the bill.

Last week we had an item that W. R. Mellor was here in training for the big K. of P. jollification and would remain till after the festivities, but just to make us out as guilty of fabrication he left a day or two later for a short trip to Chicago, to be back, however, in time for the eats and work, and now we suppose he will claim the "eats" he spoke of were those of Thanksgiving, rather than of the K. of P.

Germany is getting the American habit. Statistics show that marriages are decreasing, while divorces are increasing. Here's a chance for the anti-divorce people to send missionaries to the Fadderland.

And now it appears from best Jewish authority that Christopher Columbus was a Jew instead of a Spaniard, hence our Jewish friends are claiming away from Spain the discovery of America. That beats Spain.

One hundred and ninety-seven people lost their lives the past year in airships, and 368 have been killed in aviation mishaps since 1908.

Fourteen killed and 175 injured is the record of the season's football games. One less killed than last year.

CUTTING SCRAPE NEAR COMSTOCK

Saturday night of Nov. 22, at a dance near Comstock there was a bad cutting affray in which one Will Hefferman was slashed about twenty times over the face and neck from the results of which he came near dying. The deed was said to have been done by one of the Nukuda boys, Frank or Joe, and they were arrested and bound over to await the results of the injuries. The affray took place at the home of Charlie Kritz, about on the boundary line between Valley and Custer counties.
