

Latest Novelties in the Shops.

The shirt waist boxes in cretonne, which come fitted snugly away like bureau drawers into a case covered with the material, are now imitated in miniature affairs some four or five inches in height. These are designed for a baby's boudoir use. One drawer contains safety pins, another sleeve or bib holders and other silver trinkets, a third the wee socks, etc. The imitations, too, are covered with cretonne. Each small ornament is topped off with a bow of satin ribbon.

The incoming styles in rattan, willow and wicker furniture for the porch are altogether fascinating. These sets include reading table, tea stand and hamper, in addition to the usual complement of chairs, rockers and benches.

Many of the French sets come in a mixture of pale colorings which catch the eye at once as something extremely new. Other lovely outfits are stained or enameled in the palest of tints of lavender, pink, blue and the like.

A Pretty Linen Frock.

Linen fabrics are shown in almost numberless varieties and are both durable and smart. This pretty dress for a young girl is made of etamine in pale blue and is trimmed with white embroidery and novelty banding, the yoke being made of tucking and insertion combined. The waist is a simple one and is made over a fitted lining that can be cut away beneath the yoke when a transparent effect is desired, while the skirt is straight and tucked in groups, the fullness providing flare where the tucks fall free. To make the dress for a girl of ten years of age will be required 5 yards of material 27, 4 yards 32 or 3 yards 44 inches wide, with 1/2 yard of fancy tucking for yoke and 4 yards of embroidery for frill.

A May Manton pattern, No. 4440, sizes 8 to 14 years, will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents.

How to Clean Jewels.

Every little while all brooches, rings and such things that are in constant use should be brushed with a tooth-brush that has been dipped in eau de Cologne. If the setting is open it must be done from the back, and be careful not to loosen the stones. Then lay the things in a box of jewelers' sawdust, which has been slightly heated beforehand, and leave for an hour.

Gold chains may be washed in warm soapsuds, drying them on a soft towel by pulling back and forward. They may also be dried in sawdust and the particles can be blown or dusted out afterward. Be sure and get them dry, as they will be apt to become worn between the links if any dampness remains.

Party Gown for a Girl.

An attractive party gown for a girl of fourteen is of blue voile with full skirt shirred half a dozen times at the waist and again half way to the knees. The shirred waist has fancy reverses of white cloth embroidered in blue silk the shade of the voile, and the sleeves deeply shirred at the top have fancy cuffs like the reverses finishing them just below the elbow. A soft, white sash with long streamer ends completes a chic costume.

When the small maid shows a tendency to outgrow clothes, instead of letting out the hem of the skirt, when making the dress cut the waist two or three inches longer, then lengthen the frock by changing the belt.

Coquetry in Fur Stoles.

Stoles in every sort of fur still continue to encircle fair, slender throats. It makes little difference from what animal the soft, delicate covering is taken, and whether it be black, gray, brown or white. Neither does it seem to be a matter of great import whether the stole is long or short, broad or narrow, if it be of the circle form—that is the chief thing in regard to this bit of modishness for the fair one's toilet.

The next thing considered is the way that it shall be worn. Twice about the swan-like throat is the stole wound and then coquetishly one end is thrown over the left shoulder.

Homely Refreshments.

Perhaps it is because this is to be an economical season and many are not entertaining as elaborately as in previous years, or perhaps because fashions change a great deal in a short time; but many of the dainties served now at dinners are of simple and homely description.

One of the most popular is the school girl delicacy known as fudge. Broken-up fudge and cream candy are frequently served in place of French bonbons.

Table decorations are very simple, and green and silver are the favorite combinations. There is very little show of elaborateness in any of the entertainments. The predilection for home sweets has wrought havoc among the confectioners and caterers.

Smart Trimmings.

Fringe trimmings are considered the smartest mode of dress embellishment this season. Particularly effective are the fine silk fringes made to order with knotted headings; those of the sewing silk and twist variety are also greatly in vogue. Large fringed tassels are seen on many of the new model skirts and are a popular means this season of garnishing the elaborate evening wrap. Narrow strips of fringe insertion are attractively employed as piping at the edge of large tucks, and also in adorning the corsage. This style of trimming is commonly known as the "Tom Thumb" fringe, and when in white or delicate shade is especially chic and pretty for the embellishment of evening frocks.

Worth Knowing.

A good housewife will never allow anything to go to waste. Instead of buying dusters or window cloths she will make use of her discarded pocket handkerchiefs, scarfs and silk petticoats, and will find she has something better than she could buy anyway.

There is very apt to be a draft at the head of a brass or iron bed, and a little curtain of some pretty cretonne and will add to your comfort and improve the appearance of your room.

Use dark green blinds in a bedroom. It will prevent the glare so trying to your eyes.

Bedroom Hangings.

Nothing is prettier or more dainty for bedroom decoration than the upholstery dimities in the old English style. They can be got in many patterns and launder beautifully, so are more durable than a flimsy fabric. They may be used in the entire decoration of the room for bedspread, canopy, window hangings and dressing table covers.

At the windows it is prettiest to hang the curtains straight down each side with a full valance across the top. Cushions for chairs and corner seats can be made to match too.

Wear of Wedding Veils.

Wedding veils must be put on now so that nearly all of the hair shows, and give a long, narrow look instead of spreading at the sides. One of the most effective lately seen was a scarf about a yard wide and three and one-half yards long, edged with a little real lace. One yard of it was turned back at the top to make a short veil, with a long one under it. This was caught on to a half-wreath of orange blossoms, which is now the proper finish. Two very small ostrich tips are sometimes seen.

Butter for a Bump.

While mothers' kisses are supposed to take the soreness out of all sorts of hurts and bruises, even this sovereign specific will not keep a bump from turning black and blue. If a bump is well buttered soon after it is made, the skin, it is said, will not change color. A woman who did not believe it, but tried it all the same, says her children have been saved many ugly marks by means of this simple and inexpensive remedy.

Economy.

"You've cut down my allowance" she said.

"Yes," he admitted. "I've been spending most of my time at the club recently, and I can't pay board in two places."

"Then you'd better stay home," she said, and he did. But presently there was the old complaint.

"You've cut down my allowance again," she said.

"Yes," he admitted. "I'm spending my time at home now, and my company ought to count for something." Then she didn't know whether to advise him to go back to the club or not.

Material Mourning.

Brown—Smith is down with brain fever.
Green—You don't say?
Brown—Yes. The doctor says if he recovers his mind will be a blank.
Green—Gee! But I'm sorry to hear that. He owes me $10.—Detroit Tribune.

Considerate.

The Lady—"Heavens! The boy has swallowed a piece of that lead pipe! Run! Run for the doctor!"
The Plumber—"Aw, never mind! I got a lot more in me grip, mum."

Natural Deduction.

Brown had just given Jones a cigar and after puffing away at it for a few seconds, Jones asked:
"I say, old man, where did you get this cigar?"
"That's one of a box I purchased on the quiet from a smuggler," replied Brown.
"Ah, I see!" rejoined Jones. "He smuggled them past the health officers."

Warning to Others.

The leap-year girl had reached the point where an interview with the young man's mother was necessary.
"If you will only say that I can have your son," pleaded the fair applicant. "I'm willing to wait for him forever."
"Very well," replied the maternal parent. "Just come around when the time's up and you can have him."

Information Wanted.

"Mamma," said small Harry, "when I grow up I'll be a man, won't I?"
"Yes, dear," replied his mother "but you must remember to be neither selfish nor lazy."
"Why, mamma," he asked in surprise, "do boys who are selfish and lazy become women when they grow up?"

Salesman Was Suburbanite.

The woman was doing her shopping. The counter jumper handed her a package and she slowly turned away.
"Do I need anything else?" she absent-mindedly asked.
"You have just bought some lawn," ventured the clerk. "Don't you think you will need some hose?"—Princeton Tiger.

Shop.

"That's a pretty noisy passenger you've got in there," remarked the man who was smoking on the front platform. "Is he crazy, or only drunk?"
"Neither one," said the motorman. "He's just got a flat wheel in his head."

Coming to the Point.

"You have been calling on my daughter for some time, young man. Why don't you come down to the business?"

"All right. How much are you going to leave her?"

Had Them Still.

The meek man, who had been unfortunate financially, was telling his troubles.
"My creditors took everything," he said; "house, lot, furnishings—everything!"
"Not your clothes, though?" said the man who enjoys other people's misery.
"Yes," said the meek chap with a sigh. "everything but my trousers. They—they were in my wife's name."

A Hard Fit.

"He's built in an awfully peculiar way, isn't he?"
"Yes, the only thing he can be ready-made is an umbrella."

HOW TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN ESCAPED DREAD CATARRH BY USE OF PE-RU-NA.

Catarrh Robs Women of Health and Beauty. Pe-ru-na Makes Women Healthy and Beautiful.

Miss Amanda Johnson.

Miss Amanda Johnson, Fairchild, Wis., writes:
"I write to tell you how much Peruna benefited me. For a number of years I had pain in my head around my eyes, and I thought it was because my eyes needed treatment, so I went to an oculist and had glasses fitted to my eyes and wore them for some time, but felt no relief whatever. In fact, I felt worse than before, and came to the conclusion that the trouble was not with my eyes, but with my head and that it must be catarrh. As so many of my friends had used Peruna with benefit for this trouble, I thought I would try it. I was not sorry that I did so, for in a short time I began to improve, and in four weeks my eyes were in splendid condition, my general health was much improved and all the catarrh of the head was gone. I was glad to get rid of this trouble and am glad to endorse such a good medicine as Peruna."—Miss Amanda Johnson.

Miss Flora Hauser, 1032 S. New Jersey Street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I think I must have been troubled with catarrh ever since I was very young, aggravated each time I caught a cold. This did not prove sufficiently serious to be obnoxious until last winter. Then my head and nose were so stuffed up that I felt I must do something. Peruna was recommended to me by a friend. I used it for four weeks and found to my relief that it cured me. I have not had a bit of trouble since. My head is clear, and I can safely affirm that Peruna cured me."—Miss Flora Hauser.

Hundreds of Women Cured by Pe-ru-na of Annoying Catarrh.

D. R. HARTMAN has probably done more than any other physician toward popularizing a means of escape from the facial deformities, such as watery eyes, twisted nose, offensive breath, dry cracked lips, due to the ravaging effects of catarrh.
He has made chronic catarrh a life-long study. His remedy, popularly known as Peruna, is the most famous remedy for catarrh in existence.
Probably there is not a man or woman, boy or girl, within the bounds of the United States that has not heard of Peruna. By far the largest majority have used Peruna.
The multitude of people that have been cured of chronic catarrh by using Peruna can never be known.
