A big fight is being made by Tom Dennison, the Omaha gambler, to keep from going to Iowa. If he is innocent, what is he afraid of.

The pops annually pass resolutions against the pass system, and then as greedily take every pass offered. Oh, consistency thou art a Jewell, indeed.

The attempt of the opposition to make political capital out of the new revenue law will end about as did their political buncombe on imperialism in the Philippines.

The Holt County Independent, published by a beefy pup and edited by the great Nebraska populist, Mike Harrington, is about the craziest political sheet in the state. One would think the thing was subject to the rabbits.

The Ord Quiz man, who has just returned from Los Angeles, where he has been in attendance on the Methodist general conference, gives this quiet roast of that country: "Anyone who will leave Nebraska to seek out a living in Southern California would prefer wind pudding to beefsteak."

Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary

A very pleasant gathering was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Conklin of Ashton, June 14th, it being their fifteenth wedding anniversary. They received many valuable presents, consisting of cut glass, chinaware and pictures. An elegant 7 o'clock dinner was served in four courses. The evening was spent in social entertainment until the wee hours of morning, when the guests departed, wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Conklin many happy returns of their wedding day. The following were the invited guests: Judge J. A. Angier and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Angier, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Taylor and Miss Nellie Hawk, Loup City; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown, Farwell; Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Vandecar, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kendall, St. Paul; Rev. and Mrs. Geo. Langstaff, Dr. and Mrs. L. I. Bogen, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Polski and the Misses Josie and Katy Polski, Mr. C. F. Beuchausen, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Trylor and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conklin, Ashton.

Loup City 4, North Loup 2.
The Loup City-North Loup game Wednesday was one of the prettiest exhibitions yet this season. From start to finish it was anybody's game, but finally ended in favor of Loup City by a score of 4 to 2. Space will not allow of extended mention, yet it was more worthy of it than any game so far played on the home grounds. The North Loup boys are a very gentlemanly lot of fellows, and are first class players. The score:
1 2 3 4 5 6 4 8 9
Loup City.....2 0 1 0 0 0 1 0—4
North Loup.....1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—2
Batteries—Loup City, Knight and Johnson; North Loup, Hill and Howard. Umpire—Mellor.

PROGRAMME

Of Commencement Exercises of Loup City High School.

Saturday evening of this week will be held the Commencement exercises of the graduating class of the Loup City high school. The class is composed of ten young ladies and five young gentlemen as follows: Misses Lillian Mae Conhiser, Irene Clara Gipsen, Etta Mabel Lofholm, Meroe Jaynes Outhouse, Katherine Coralene Leininger, Josephine Emeline John, Bertha Mead, Jessica Margaret Leininger, Vivian Mabel Nightingale and Ella N. Foster, and the Messrs. Leslie M. Sweetland, Theodore Frank Pilger, Otis E. Hiser, Raymond V. Kearns and Clarence R. Sweetland. The exercises will be held at the opera house, with the following program:

REV. JOHN MADELY
As will be noticed, the class has been singularly fortunate in securing State Superintendent Fowler for an address before the class on that evening and who will also present the diplomas to the graduates.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered the following (Sunday) evening, and a rich literary treat may confidently be expected. An interesting musical program has also been provided, the selections to be given by Misses Beth Zimmerman, Beatrice Nightingale, Laura Benschoter, Winnie Leach and Edith Angier, and Messrs Douglas, Leininger, Zimmerman and Johnson, with Mrs. R. P. Starr as accompanist.

Surprise Party.
A surprise party was given Miss Frances Sweetland last Friday evening at the pleasant home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Sweetland, by a number of her young friends. The young people met at the home of Miss Edna Daddow and went from there in a body to the home of their young hostess. Those present were: Misses Mary Gibson, Jessie Culley, Etta Lofholm, Ada Smith, Vergie Brown, Iva Henry, Bertha Mead, Edna Daddow, Lottie Gibson, Elva Zimmerman, Adeline Leininger, Meroe Outhouse, Ida Draper, Lula Lee, Emma Outhouse, Rosa Snyder and Zura Reed, and the Messrs. Verne Hulbert, Otis Hiser, Theodore Pilger, Leslie and Clarence Sweetland, Ben Swanson, Floyd Gibson, Arthur Brown, Willie Rowe, Eugene Henry, Arthur Reed, George Sharp Dwight McCombs and Romeo Conger.

Knot Tied in Romantic Manner
Married—Sunday, June 12th, by the Rev. F. D. Kennedy, Mr. Chas. E. Gillespie and Miss Mabel Owen. The young couple drove up to the parsonage, called the reverend forth, had the matrimonial knot tied without leaving the buggy and drove away again without alighting. Mr. Gillespie, we understand, is in the employ of Lawrence Smith on the farm, while his bride has been for some time a dressmaker in Loup City, coming here from Dannebrog last January. We wish the young couple pleasant sailing on the matrimonial seas.

Might Have Cost Dear.
Arthur Gilbert, employed at the St. Elmo barn, received what might have been a serious injury, last Thursday morning. He and a number of others were engaged in jumping, when he hurt himself inwardly, and was confined to his home for several days in consequence. Fortunately no dangerous complications followed.

To Treat Sightless Socket.
The 13-year-old son of Chas. Waika, mentioned in these columns as losing an eye from the explosion of a shell, last Wednesday, was taken to Omaha for treatment the following day.

Obituary.
James Wilber Hughes was born June 14, 1880, in Fairfield, Clay county, Nebraska, where he resided until two years ago, with his parents, brothers and sisters. Two years ago, he removed with his family from Clay county to this place, where he resided until death, June 6, 1904, aged 23 years, 11 months and 24 days. When 13 years of age he was converted and after baptism united with the United Brethren church. He was a most devoted son and brother. His father, mother, five sisters and two brothers are left to mourn their loss. They mourn that have no hope.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and family desire to extend their heartfelt thanks to friends and neighbors for their kindness during this trying period. "Inasmuch as you do it unto the least of these you do it unto me."
