Strong faculty, first-class equipment, an ideal town and strong courses. For rates and other information, address L. L. Epley, Superintendent, Broken Bow, Neb.
There will be a masquerade ball given at Jenner's Park, this evening in the Pavilion, and a most pleasant time is anticipated. Emery Knight and Frank Burleigh, the editor's only, will have charge of the affair, and the boys propose to do all in their power to make those who attend have the most enjoyable dance of the season. The admission price will be the same as usual.

W. G. Odendahl left on a business trip to Omaha Monday.
Substantial cement walks are being put in on the south of the public square.
Postmaster Owens is able to be out and is recovering finely from his recent illness.
Dr. Kearns has his new cement walk completed, and makes everything more homelike.
Miss Sarah Lofholm, one of Sherman county's best school ma'ams, is teaching in the Jens district.
A little daughter arrived the 11th instant at the home of Andrew Gray, nine mile south of Loup City.
Miss Beth Zimmerman left for York Monday morning, to enter school. Her brother went the Saturday before.
Mrs. Reed of Longmont, Col., who has been visiting the family of D. C. Leach, returned to her home last Saturday.
Hemphill Jones was up to Broken Bow last week at the fair, riding for Wm. Kramer, and is this week at the Rivanna carnival engaged in the same work.
Editor Perkins of the St. Paul Republican was in town Tuesday, and gave us a fraternal call. Bro. Perkins is making a good paper out of the Republican.
C. C. Cooper has a dandy show window in his grocery, made out of the premium china and glassware he is offering. B. M. Fancher did the artistic decorating.
We understand that A. L. Zimmerman sold the fine Hickman place last Saturday to parties from a distance, the consideration being $15,000. A pretty good deal.
Miss Edna Minchell left for St. Louis Monday morning to attend the exposition. She will be joined there by W. F. Mason and wife, and all will return after a weeks sight-seeing.
We received a pleasant call, Monday, from Mr. G. H. Whitman of north Sherman. Mr. Whitman makes a few visits to the hub each year, but he has a host of friends who are always glad to see him.
Some three weeks since, little Vance Holcomb, while playing with some companions, received a severe fall, from the effects of which he has since been confined to his bed with partial paralysis. He is, however, slowly recovering.
Rev. Madely returned from his vacation, last Thursday. The reverend is a severe sufferer from hay fever, and has been absent for some weeks in southwest Nebraska, in the hopes of finding relief. The country he visited gave some relief, but he is feeling poorly yet.
We received a pleasant call, Monday, from Chas. H. Tucker, one of our enterprising young republican farmers of Hazard. Mr. Tucker is the only republican out of all the relatives that he has that he knows anything about, as he says. He has an elegant chance to do missionary work in the future.
The editor of this paper and B. Brown have just finished a 36-page pamphlet for the Loup City Gun Club which was pronounced a daisy by our people, and we modestly trust that the gun club will not feel so good over it that they will forget to present the two officers with an easy chair each, in appreciation of the good work we have done them.
Dr. Long returned Saturday from his business trip to northwest Nebraska. The doctor was thoughtful enough to take with him some fine views of Loup city streets, buildings, residences, etc., and did some good advertising for Sherman county. There is good suggestion in this. Would it not be a good idea for our people to prepare a lot of views of our big ranches, fertile valleys, great wheat and corn fields, best residences, buildings, finest homes lawns, etc. and together with comprehensive descriptions of the county at large have them in pamphlets for gratuitous distribution? Think it over.
The Loup City Gun Club gives its first trap shooting tournament Sept. 27, 28. The club hangs up $200 in cash and a $60 Ithaca hammerless gun. Capt. Hardy, champion rifle shot of the world, will be here and give daily exhibitions. This will be one of the largest shoots ever held in Nebraska. Some of the best shots in the west are expected. The shoot will be held in the ball park and the admission will be free. Everybody is invited to attend.
On Tuesday of this week, B. J. Swanson sold a half interest in his shoe store to Emerson A. Smith. The gentlemen will, we understand, greatly enlarge the business, and as soon as the building now occupied by John Solms (who has bought the building now occupied by W. D. Hover & Co.) is vacated, move therein. The new firm will do a strictly cash business and will be known as the "S & S. Cash Shoe Store," indicating the way they propose to conduct business. These gentlemen are too well and favorably known to be further endorsed by us. Suffice it to say they will conduct the business on business principles, carry the best of goods and give the people the lowest cash benefit.

A. P. de Lyster's little son is on the sick list.
A. B. Outhouse has been on the sick list the past few days.
R. J. Nightingale was down to Ashton on business on Tuesday.
H. M. Smith, the new real estate man, took a run over into Iowa, this week, on business.
A. F. Sterzback and M. Zellers were up from Boelus Monday and favored us with a pleasant call.
Mrs. Ross and children, from Idaho are visiting the lady's sister-in-law Mrs. W. H. Hickman.
A. P. Culley is making arrangements to put in a cement walk around S. F. Reynolds' meat market.
The Baptist association meeting in session here closes this noon. Report will be printed next week.
Miss Olive Burch is clerking in J. W. Long's real estate office during the absence of Miss Long in the west.
For Sale—Pure-bred Poland China pigs and high-grade Shorthorn bulls. See Lawrence Smith for particulars.
County Clerk Gibson returned from his eastern trip, Tuesday noon, reporting having a most pleasant vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. T. Phillips of Columbus are in the city, the lady being treated by Dr. Long for inflammatory rheumatism.
All Old Fellow and Rebekahs and their families are cordially invited to attend the basket picnic in Jenner's Park Sept. 20, 1904. Bring a full basket and have a good time.
E. C. Thornton on Tuesday brought specimens of the finest onions to this office we have seen this year. He reports corn on his place will make a good 65 bushel to the acre.
We understand that John Solms has bought the building now occupied by W. D. Hover & Co., our popular furniture men, and expects to remove into same as the soon as vacated.
Loup City played ball at Ravenna yesterday, with the latter, resulting in a score of 3 to 0 in favor of the latter. It was a close game up to the seventh, being goose eggs all around, when an error or two gave the game to Ravenna.
Work has begun on the new bank building north of the NORTHWESTERN office, and we understand it will be of brick 50x100 feet and two stories in height with a basement. It will be built by Mr. Culley and Draper brothers.
A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Edna Daddow in honor of her 15th birthday, last Saturday evening, at her home. A most enjoyable evening was had by those in attendance, who were: the Misses, Mary Gibson, Lula Lee, Beatrice Nightingale, Jessie and Adeline Leininger, Jessie Culley, Lena Smith, Vergie Brown, Merce Outhouse, Tony Erazim, Rose Mulick, Bertha Meade, Elva Zimmerman, Frances Sweetland, Emma Outhouse, Ada Smith, Lottie Gibson, and Marjorie Mead. Messrs. Emery Knight, Martin Price, Theodore Pilger, Otis Hiser, Leslie Sweetland, Frank Daddow, Roy Slater, Eugene Henry Arthur Brown, Floyd Gibson, Herbert Nightingale, Herman Ohlsen and Frank Burleigh.
Hymeneal.
Married, in Loup City, Neb., at high noon, Wednesday, Sept. 14, 1904, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dubry, Judge Hunter officiating, Miss Mae Dubry and Mr. Fred Smith of Benedict. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dubry and is one of our most highly respected young ladies. Mr. Smith comes here from Benedict, bearing the reputation of an honest, industrious and steady young man. In the organ pealed forth the strains of a wedding march played by Mrs. Chas. Rowe. The bride and groom entered the parlor, supported by Miss Rosa Rowe and Mr. Charles Rowe, and paused under an arch of lace and evergreens, constructed by Mr. Dubry. After the ceremony and congratulations, the guests, led by Mr. and Mrs. Dubry and the newly wedded pair, were seated around a table sumptuously filled with the choicest viands, the bride presiding over the cake, presented by her oldest sister, Mrs. Wm. Rowe. The bride was exquisitely attired in a costume of silver grey and white, while the groom wore conventional black. The presents were numerous and elegant. Mr. Smith contemplates building and residing in Loup City. We bespeak for the couple a happy and prosperous life.
Lazy Koreans.
It is hardly an exaggeration to say that the Koreans are the laziest people on earth. All day long they lie about the streets smoking their gigantic pipes. A native pipe is a six-foot length of bamboo with a metal bowl, and is carried tucked into the neckband and down the trouser leg. All work of very nearly every kind is done by the women, who occupy perhaps the most degraded position held by the sex of any nation. The unfortunate female population is collectively a beast of burden and denied even the most elementary recognition as human beings: A Korean girl has no name; she is merely known as "Daughter of So-and-so," her father.

A Sad Case.
Last Monday morning, a young man named Marion Zink was taken to the hospital for insane at Lincoln by Sheriff Williams, and was accompanied by his uncle, A. Zink, and a brother, Clarence. It was necessary to strap his arms to his side to prevent his doing violence to those about him. The facts relating to the young man's dementia are as follows: It seems that he was in Denver when he showed first signs of insanity, a few weeks since, in attendance on a religious meeting where he persisted in disturbance. The police were notified and he was locked up. He was only able to say he had an aunt in the city, whose address he could not give, and to give his own name. He was later taken to his aunt and turned loose, she taking care of him till his uncle and brother, Alonzo and John Zink, accompanied by their attorney, Judge Wall, could arrive. They found the boy badly beaten and bruised, undoubtedly by police or prison officials, but could not fix the guilt on the brute or brutes, owing to the officials shielding one another. Mr. A. Zink informs us that the poor boy was beaten over the head and thrust into a cell bleeding and covered with blood and left there without attention, sweltering in his own gore till morning. When arrested he was peaceable, but since has been more or less violent, and incoherently speaks of three men beating him. He seemed less violent as the days passed, and the belief is strong that to his treatment while in prison is due the violence of his dementia, and that kindness will at least in time make his case a mild form of insanity, with hopes of ultimate recovery.

Everybody or most everybody, knows the Round Oak Stove. We can give you plenty of testimonials as to its superiority. In its new, up-to-date dress it is the handsomest stove on the market, and in tight fitting, fine workmanship and "business" it excels all others. Do not mistake other stoves for the genuine. Look for the name on the leg, "ROUND OAK." It is the stove you have always heard about. We will be pleased to explain it fully. Respt. yours,
