Next Sunday evening the Baptist people will begin a series of special meetings. If you do not happen to have time enough to come, just take some. There will be no cheap sensationalism to endure. We have the truth to preach, not as you and I imagine it ought to be, but as laid down by our Master, and, by the way, did ever anybody find anything equal to it? Come on, then, young and old, rich and poor, high and low, it matters not who. We invite everybody in general and you in particular, and we pledge ourselves to do you all the good we can. H. S. WOLD, Pastor.

The infant daughter of Henry and Vernie Baade died Monday, Jan. 2d. It was a frail little flower, and its bold on life from the first was but slight. The distracted parents request us to express their thanks to the many kind friends who aided them in their sorrowful experience.

Last spring the Loup City Township Board purchased the lumber in the old dume east of town for which said board paid $200. With this lumber two new bridges have been built and two repaired, the new lumber for which would have cost the township over $150, and the township has sold lumber to the amount of $149.85 and there is still a large amount of lumber left.

Whoever Heard of Hardware in a Harness Shop?

It is nothing uncommon to see harness in a hardware store but to see hardware in a harness shop is something new. However, we wish to say to the people of Loup City and vicinity that we have added a full and complete line of Hardware, including Tinware, Graniteware, also a new line of Turquoise ware and Cutlery, which we would be glad to have you call and examine, when in need of anything in that line. We are also increasing our Harness stock, so we can accommodate the public in anything in the Harness line. We are also putting in the finest line of Saddles ever shown in Loup City. Our line of Blankets and Robes are complete, which we are offering at a 10 per cent discount in order to close them out. We will also give some very low prices on what Buggies we have left, in order to close them out before getting in our spring shipment. Call and examine our stock, whether in need of anything or not, then when you do want to buy you will know where you can get the best goods for the least money.
