Has Speaker Rouse refused to accept that little $3 per day over and above his regular constitutional salary as a member of the lower house? If not, does he as an employe report to a committee room when on duty and dock himself so much per when not warning the padded cushion of the official chair?

A bill has been introduced in the Nebraska lower house abolishing the heche coche coach. It took four brave members combined to introduce the measure "by request" of various woman clubs. The first thing you know, a bill will be forthcoming preventing by statute the horrid male from kissing other men's wives. Are the social functions of men to be wholly abridged?

Judge Wall was home from Lincoln over last Sunday. The judge is still one of the leading members of the upper house, as is always the case, and he may be depended upon to look out in the very best manner for the interests of his constituents, and the people at large. The only kick we have coming is the fact that the reports accredit him to Buffalo instead of Sherman county, and we are going down to Lincoln in a short time to kill or cure the reporters of the bad habit.

Some special interest was caused in the lower house of the legislature last week over a bill by Representative A. V. Cunningham of Hamilton prohibiting the playing of football in Nebraska. Riddle was the chief weapon used against it, but the bill came near passing, being defeated by only a very few votes. The result was hailed by a host of delight from the students of long-haired State University students who use more muscle than brains in their university course. Tally one for A. V. Cunningham in his effort to do away with the brutal, dangerous game.

The severest weather of the present winter occurred last Saturday night, while the coldest was on Sunday night. Saturday a blinding snow storm came from the south, the wind later changing to the north. Blowing a fierce gale all night, the thermometer thermometer registering 30 below Sunday and Sunday night was still and intensely cold, the government bulb going to 32 below, registering three degrees below the preceding coldest period which was 29 degrees to the bad. The B. & M. abandoned its track wholly on this branch Saturday and Monday, while the U. P. managed to flounder through Saturday, after a fashion but gave up Monday unable to find trackage below the drifted snow, and moreover managing Monday morning to knock the trucks from under one car and wreck the platform of a passenger coach while bucking snow. It was not until yesterday that trains began running with any regularity.

The divorce problem inoculated the state senate this session, but when it reached the proper committee it struck an obstruction it could not overcome, and faded away. When men and women become angels of perfection, when life is the great heart and center of all connection, when men and women cherish each other and are faithful to their vows, when brutality and churlishness and selfishness in man, and wantonness, extravagance and evil traits in woman are swallowed up in the purity and sanctity of home making, there will be no divorce, no need of divorce laws, but so long as the contract exists, no matter how stringent the laws, how hedged in the marriage contracts, unmarried people will escape their hideous, sickening environments and get into freedom desired no matter what the cost. Marriage without love, women particularly, is legal prostitution, the worst form of penal servitude, a slavish condition from which every fibre of her being revolts.
