

If you are going to do any fencing this spring, remember I handle the Grand Island Field Fencing with barbed wire at top and bottom, which keeps your stock from creeping under or crawling over.

Respectfully, yours, P. O. REED.

We received pleasant calls last Friday from Conrad Koch and Alex Johnson, from near Rockville. Call again. Dr. Rav, D. D. will speak Thursday and Friday evenings in the German church. He will speak in English and everybody invited. A fine baby girl was born to A. W. Wilson and wife, last Friday morning, and A. W. steps mighty high. He has now two pair—kings and queens. Louie J. Bechtold of Schaupp Siding is the happy father of a bouncing baby girl, who came to his home last Sunday afternoon. Louie has now a boy and girl in his family. S. F. Reynolds will move his meat market into his building across the street from THE NORTHWESTERN office within the next two weeks, if the weather permits. He will also move his building off the corner and on to lots adjoining his market building, leaving the corner vacant for Mr. Cully to build thereon. Last Saturday Dr. J. H. Long was taken with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which by Monday had assumed such grave proportions that he took the B. & M. for Lincoln, where he will enter the sanitarium for treatment. The doctor thinks that he will be able to return home in the course of ten or twelve days. We trust he may speedily recover. As will be seen by reference to the columns of THE NORTHWESTERN this week, Attorney Robt. P. Starr has a number of important cases in the coming session of the district court. Mr. Starr is working up a fine legal clientele, and has the necessary energy, vim, push and legal ability to place him in the front ranks with his older brethren of Blackstone. We are always pleased to note the success of these younger members of the bar, and that with our friendship of long standing with the gentleman above named, makes it a much greater pleasure in this instance. According to appointment, published in last week's paper Elder A. T. Robinson preached at the Seventh Day Adventist church on Saturday afternoon last, and on Sunday afternoon and evening. Elder L. E. Johnson of Broken Bow preached on Saturday evening. One of the interesting events of the occasion of the visit of the president of the conference, was the ordination of Mr. R. L. Christensen as elder and Mr. P. H. Hayes as deacon of the Loup City church. Deeply solemn and highly appropriate services were had on the occasion.

Mrs. Will Fisher was on the sick list a few days. J. F. Kieffer moved on the Geo. Lee place, Tuesday of this week. D. C. Leach went to Grand Island Tuesday morning, over the U. P. Mrs. Judge Hunter who has been very ill for the past few weeks, is able to be out again. Miss Mabel Zink has accepted a position as stenographer in the office of Lawyer Starr. Wm Zimmerman and Vern Hulbert were passengers over the U. P. Tuesday, for Amoret, Mo. Union Pacific low rates to the Pacific Coast points March 1 to May 15, and April 15 to Oct. 31, 1905. George McFadden and W. O. Brown shipped a car each of hogs and cattle to South Omaha, Monday, over the U. P. Clifford Bone, living some seven miles west of town, and brother of John Bone, who died last week, is reported quite sick. Los Angeles, Cal; and return. One fare for round trip. Dates of sale May 20, 30 and 31 and June 1. Return limit 60 days from date of sale. Mrs. C. C. Outhouse, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is better at present. Her sister, Mrs. Hilsbeck of Thayer was here with her. The quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. The presiding elder, R. V. James Leonard, will preach at the church Sunday morning and at Wiggle Creek in the evening. The First National Bank will sure build their brick bank block as soon as spring fairly opens. Of this there is no doubt. We have seen the plans and they are magnificent, artistic and will make a building finer than any in this section of the state. T. H. Elsner has one of the finest robes we ever saw. It is made of ten coon skins, six of which he bought of Jim Burnett, the hides of the coons he killed over on the river a few weeks ago and four he bought in Omaha, where he had the hides tanned. The robe is a beauty. Last Friday evening the members of the Woman's Club again planned a pleasant departure, and invited their husbands to enjoy with them a surprise given on Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Leach before they go from our midst to their new home. The Club wished to show their appreciation of Mrs. Leach as a loyal club woman, and about sixty friends gathered for a social time that organization knows so well how to carry through. Music, games and delicious refreshments was the order of the evening, finally with the strains of "Auld Lang Syne," they concluded the "sangerfest" wishing their host and hostess all success in their new home. Right here we would put in parenthesis, that we must get in on the sideline somewhere with this society, for there are rumors of a musicale and banquet and other good things. But we have it; "our" wife (we two are one) can join the Club, and then we will get in on all the side issues and by proxy we can develop the gray matter in trying to follow parliamentary procedure and writing papers on "Greek art." Say can't we scheme?

Mrs. B. M. Gast yer returned last Wednesday, from Chicago, where she has been purchasing her spring line of dry goods. Speaking of her trip Mrs. Gasteyer said: "It was in many respects the most satisfactory visit I have ever made to that city. While there I was the guest of Mrs. L. E. Walworth, who was also entertaining her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harrington. The ladies are former residents of Loup City and doubtless their many friends will be pleased to receive the kind regards, with which they entrusted me. On my return trip I was again agreeably surprised to meet our old townsmen, Frank Cline, whom many will remember as having held the position of Union Pacific agent at this place a few years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Cline now live at Rawlins, Wyoming. Their friends will doubtless rejoice with them when they hear that they are now the proud possessors of an infant daughter, one month old." Grand Junction, Colo.; seems to be getting a good many of Sherman county's good people. Next week, Juergen Jens and his two sons, Fred and Henry, and his daughter, Mrs. C. Plambeck, and their families expect to leave for that country; They have purchased some seventy acres of land within four miles of Grand Junction, where they will make their future home. While we regret losing these worthy families, yet we give them our heartiest good wishes for their success in their new home. Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.
