PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS TAKE OATH News in Nebraska INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF

Thousands of Visitors Throng National Capital to Witness the Ceremony-Procession the Short Speech Delivered by Chief Executive After Greatest Seen in Washington Since the Close of the Civil War. Taking the Oath of Office - Our Duties

Nation to the World and to Ourselv_s.

velt delivered the following speech: My Fellow Citizens:

ever before every nation that rises to greatness. Power invariably means the people.

No people on earth have more both responsibility and danger. Our cause to be thankful than ours, and forefathers faced certain perils which this is said reverently, in no spirit we have outgrown. We now face othof boastfulness in our own strength, er perils the very existence of which but with gratitude to the Giver of it was impossible that they should Good, who has blessed us with the foresee. Modern life is both complex conditions which have enabled us to and intense, and the tremendous achieve so large a measure of well- changes wrought by the extraordinary being and of happiness. To us as a industrial developments of the last people it has been granted to lay the half century are felt in every fiber of foundations of our national life in a our social and political being. Never new continent. We are the heirs of before have men tried so vast and forthe ages, and yet we have had to midable an experiment as that of adpay few of the penalties which in old | ministering the affairs of a continent countries are exacted by the dead under the forms of a democratic rehand of a bygone civilization. We public. The conditions which have have not been obliged to fight for told for our marvelous material wellour existence against any alien race: being, which have developed to a very and yet our life has called for the high degree our energy, self-reliance, vigor and effort without which the and individual initiative, have also manlier and hardier virtues wither brought the care and anxiety inseparaway. Under such conditions it able from the accumulation of great would be our own fault if we failed: wealth in industrial centers. Upon and the success which we have had the success of our experiment much in the past, the success which we con- | depends; not only as regards our own fidently believe the future will bring. welfare, but as regards the welfare of should cause in us no feeling of vain- mankind. If we fail, the cause of free glory, but rather a deep and abiding self-government throughout the world realization of all which life has of- will rock to its foundations; and fered us; a full acknowledgment of therefore our responsibility is heavy, the responsibility which is ours; and to ourselves, to the world as it is toa fixed determination to show that day, and to the generations yet ununder a free government a mighty born. There is no good reason why people can thrive best, alike as re- we should fear the future, but gards the things of the body and the there is every reason why we things of the soul. should face it seriously, neither

Much has been given to us, and hiding from ourselves the gravity of much will rightfully be expected from the problems before us nor fearing us. We have duties to others and to approach these problems with the duties to ourselves; and we can shirk unbending, unflinching purpose to neither. We have become a great na- solve them aright. tion, forced by the fact of its greatness into relations with the other na- are new, though the tasks set before tions of the earth; and we must be- us differ from the tasks set before have as beseems a people with such our fathers who founded and preresponsibilities. Toward all other served this republic, the spirit in nations, large and small, our attitude which these tasks must be undertak-

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Yet, after all, though the problems and from distant islands of the seas; where floats the emblem of the Republic. In the great parade there rode South. The president's old rancher wiry bronchos, made strange contrast schools. Rough Riders from San Juan Hill, volunteers from Santiago, jackies ular is distinction quite enough. Political clubs from East and West, militiamen from North and South, blue-clad veterans of the sixties, heroes of the Spanish-American war, miners from Pennsylvania, the entire legislature of the state of Tennessee, the president's neighbors from Oyster Bay-all contributed to the national character of the splendid pageant. There were waiting for the president when he emerged from the white house thirty picked men from the Rough Riders under Gov. Brodie. With the crack squadron A of the First Cavalry, U. S. Army, they formed his escort to the capitol. As they swung around the treasury building into Pennsylvania avenue a division of the G. A. R., with Gen. O. O. Howard and staff in the lead, which had been standing at salute, wheeled into the column, while the cavalrymen checked their pace to accommodate the slower footsteps of the aged veterans. A mighty wave of cheers swept along the avenue as the president's carriage came in sight. Throughout the whole route the president, with hat in hand, kept bowing in acknowledgment of the greetings. On his arrival at the capitol he was conducted to the president's room, in the rear of the senate chamthrongs that had journeyed to the cap- a vest of the panne braided in silver. tion before leaving for the White started. ital to greet President Roosevelt men | Mrs. Fairbanks wore a beautiful dress | House.

from the North, South, East and West, of brown velvet, trimmed with chiffon and white ermine. Her hat and gloves from the Philippines, from Porto were also white. Vice President Fair- of Indiana, became vice-president of came the Fifth band, artillery corps, Rico, from Hawaii-from every land banks, accompanied by the secretary the United States shortly after the stationed at Fort Hamilton, New of the senate and followed by the sen- marble-faced clocks of the senate York. This was first of forty bands ators and ex-senators, was next in chamber registered noon. governors of states, both North and order. Then came Speaker Cannon of the cabinet were ushered to their | Fifty-ninth congress to order.

showed that he was pleased. President Roosevelt advanced from administered the usual oath. The new

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

Vice-President Sworn in.

Theodore Roosevelt was on March | Yale, and his daughter, Mrs. Adelaide | the signal for another ovation, dur- | clip proceeded up the Avenue to the After taking the oath of office dur-, tury and a quarter of its national The 4 transformed from president by Timmons, were with Mrs. Fairbanks. ing which Mr. Roosevelt shook hands White House, where the president, af-Ing the inauguration ceremonies at is inevitably accompanied by a like chance into president by choice; from Mrs. Roosevelt was gowned in a se- with most of the notables who pressed ter his lunch, took position in the Washington March 4, President Roose- growth in the problems which are president through an assasin's bullet verely plain tailored suit of electric about the tribune. Then he was es- grand reviewing stand, surrounded by into president through the ballots of blue; the round skirt was trimmed corted back to the rotunda of the members of his cabinet, the diplomats in bands of lighter shade panne vel- Capitol and thence to the executive and other notables. Then, to the There were represented in the vet, and the short, modish jacket had chamber, where he held a brief recep- blare of bugles, the big procession

The first brigade was headed by Lieut, Gen. Wade, in command of the Senator Charles Warren Fairbanks, entire military section. After him in the parade. Sustaining their repu-

At that hour Senator Frye, presi- tation of being the most perfectly and the house of representatives. The dent pro tem., hammered the marble drilled body of troops in the world. friends, with lariat and chaparejos and instant the tall form of the vice presi- desk, and announced in set formula next followed the corps of cadets from dent appeared a swelling cheer burst that the senate of the Fifty-eighth the United States military academy. to the stiff-backed, pouter chested from the crowd. Mr. Fairbanks bowed congress was adjourned sine die; Naturally they divided honors with young men from the national military repeatedly before taking his chair. then he immediately called the extra- the future admirals from Annapolis. Secretary Hav and other members ordinary session of the senate of the who marched immediately behind, dressed in natty suits of navy blue, from Manila bay shared the plaudits chairs, and at their heels came Ad- Mr. Fairbanks was forthwith ush- the jolly jack-tar spirit fairly shinof the multitude with modest, every- miral Dewey and Lieut. Gen. Chaffee. ered into the chamber, the senate ing in their boyish faces. Then came he had about all the patronage he day soldiers, for whom the title Reg- Billows of cheers greeted Admiral members of the Inaugural committee the regulars, real enlisted men, five could take care of. Dewey, and the hero of Manila bay acting as his escort. He proceeded hundred of the Second batallion of to the rostrum, where Senator Frye engineers swinging along behind their John Sullivan received injuries from own band.

> two hours in passing a given point. In producing concussion of the brain. order to prevent disputes as to prehad only a company to her credit, men. was tenth in order.

Although soldiery was the chief feaavenue. There were about 15,000 in pleted. line. They seemed to be passing an | With an old army pistol as a weapon sticks.

about 2,000 all told of these two so- Nebraska. cieties.

The Commercial club of Seward will give a banquet on St. Patrick's day. L. G. Todd and wife, Plattsmouth, last week celebrated their golden wed-

Columbus is booked for a great deal of building this year. There is no boom; just a healthy growth.

Two spans of the Union Pacific bridge over Bear creek, four miles east of Beatrice, were taken out by the ice, completely tying up the Kansas division.

Miss Mabel Owens was awarded a verdict of $208 against the school district of Hickman, the full amount for which she sued. She said she was dis charged in mid-year without cause.

Lieutenant Roderick Dew, son of Colonel J. S. Dew of Tecumseh, who is in the United States army, being stationed at Vancouver barracks, Wash., has been ordered to the Philippine islands for service.

The "bucket shop" which has been operated for several months at Stella closed suddenly last week. The manager gives no reason. It is conceded

While resisting arrest at Fairbury which he died. He was struck by an Then came the state troops. To the officer, and in falling his head came number of 14,000 they occupied nearly in contact with the stone pavement,

Rev. W. E. Vann, for three years cedence each state contingent came | rector of the Episcopal churches of in alphabetical order, so that Ala- Tecumseh and DeWitt, has made the bama, with a single company of her announcement that he has accepted a Third regiment, led the way. Indiana, charge at Wadena, Minn., and that he Vice President Fairbanks' home state, will leave for that city by March 15. While digging a ditch in North Pasixth in line, while the president's pillion, Antone Nippe was stricken state, New York, with the largest with an epileptic fit and falling face quota, three full regiments and several | downward was suffocated in the mud separate bodies, totaling nearly 4,000 and water. He was found by some school children, who summoned help.

The local Knights of Pythias lodge ture, the civilian organizations form. | of Humboldt, at their regular meeting ing the second section of the parade voted a gift of $200 to James B. Davis, showed up strong in numbers. March- one of the leading members, who had ing in the open order affected by po- occupied a place as chairman of the litical clubs, they spread all over the building of their new hall, just com-interminable time, mostly wearing Captain Theodore Suebbes, 70 years top hats and twirling fragile walking old, a veteran of the civil war, committed suicide by shooting himself The Spanish war veterans followed through the brain at his home at the G. A. R. veterans, there being Wilkesbarre, Pa. He formerly lived in

The first potato special ever run in

must be one of cordial and sincere | en and these problems faced, if our friendship. We must show not only duty is to be well done, remains essenin our words but in our deeds that tially unchanged. We know that self we are earnestly desirous of secur- government is difficult. We know that ing their good will by acting toward no people needs such high traits of them in a spirit of just and generous | character as that people which seeks recognition of all their rights. But te govern its affairs aright through justice and generosity in a nation, as the freely expressed will of the free in an individual, count most when men who compose it. But we have shown not by the weak but by the faith that we shall not prove false to strong. While ever careful to refrain the memories of the men of the from wronging others, we must be no mighty past. They did their work less insistent that we are not wronged | they left us the splendid heritage we curselves. We wish peace; but we now enjoy. We in our turn have an wish the peace of justice, the peace assured confidence that we shall be of righteousness. We wish it because able to leave this heritage unwasted we think it is right and not because and enlarged to our children and our we are afraid. No weak nation that children's children. To do so we must acts manfully and justly should ever show, not merely in great crises, but have cause to fear us, and no strong in the everyday affairs of life, the power should ever be able to single qualities of practical intelligence, of us out as a subject for insolent ag- courage, of hardihood and endurance and above all the power of devotion gression.

Our relations with the other pow- to a lofty 'deal, which made great the ers of the world are important; but men who sunded this republic in the still more important are our relations days of Washington, which made among ourselves. Such growth in great the men who preserved this wealth, in population, and in power | republic in the days of Abraham Linas this nation has seen during the cen- coln.

Thinks "Ben-Hur" Great Book. | Everybody "Practical" No.

ber, where he began at once the signing of belated bills. At noon he entered the abode of the senate to witness the installation of Senator Fairbanks as vice president. This ceremony concluded, he proceeded to the stand on the east front of the capitol to receive the oath from Chief Justice Fuller and to deliver his inaugural address. Immediately upon its conclusion the president was escorted back to the white house, where, after lunching with the officials of the inaugural committee, he took his position on the stand in front to review the formal inaugural parade.

Inauguration Ceremonies.

The broad plaza whose level surface stretches east from the national capitol can accommodate an army. For hours Washington poured its own population and a vast increment of visitors into the front yard of the seat of made by a little covered shelter, open Chief Justice Fuller, his snowy locks of the senate. at the sides, where the president was falling to his shoulders, pronounced the oath.

Justice John Marshall Harlan, who is protect and defend the Constitution of mony. almost heroic in stature, was the first | the United States." to catch the eye of the vast crowd. A second later he bowed and Flanked by the marshal of the Su- pressed his lips upon the open pages ministers of foreign countries. Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Fairbanks the plaza. For many minutes the about the Capitol. were next escorted to seats just out- jangle of sounds continued before the dren were with Mrs. Roosevelt, and gin his inaugural address.

Inaugurated March 4, 1905.

the door of the capitol, arm in arm | vice-president's first official act was | The doves, which are represented as with Chief Justice Fuller. Instantly, to call upon the senate's chaplain, the flying diagonally across the blue of from all parts of the eight acres of Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, to the dress, are of varying sizes, from all of its extra train crews and enhumanity, arose a prolonged, tumultu- | pray.

cus shout. Behind the president and Mr. Fairbanks then delivered his wings down to the size of a bee. his white-haired companion came inaugural address, and, at its con-James H. McKinney, clerk of the su- clusion, he instructed the secretary to white satin duchesse, embroidered government. Eight acres of humanity preme court, bearing a ponderous read the president's proclamation with roses of gold in the natural size spread fan-shaped from the focus Bible. When the demonstration ceased, convening the extraordinary session of the flower. The lace trimming was President Roosevelt was then design of bow-knots and marguerites to stand. Over toward the imposing the oath. President Roosevelt's voice escorted back to the executive cham- interwoven. facade of the congressional library it was easily audible at some distance ber, adjoining the marble room, preextended, literally a "sea of faces." when he repeated the formal declara- paratory to going to the east portico, There may have been only 50,000; tion prescribed in article II of the himself to take the oath of office. The been attempted. Walls, columns, winprobably there were nearer 100,000 in Constitution: "I do solemnly swear other distinguished visitors filed out dows and every nook and corner were sight of the president when he took that I will faithfully execute the office of the chamber in the order of official covered with greens and cut flowers, of president of the United States, and precedence, and went to the seats as-The imposing form of Associate will to the best of my ability, preserve, signed them for the president's cere- bunting, so that the thousands of

The Great Parade.

Experienced observers declared gowns and glittering jewels. that the procession beat all its prepreme Court and the marshal of the of Holy Writ. Again erect, he faced decessors, even that of McKinley's were thrown open at 8 o'clock, but District of Columbia, Justice Harlan the people, and for an instant perfect second inauguration. Not since the the president and his party did not led his colleagues, garbed in flowing silence held. A signal had been review of the Federal army after the arrive until 9 o'clock. They went imrobes of black, topped with satin skull flashed from the dome of the capi- Civil war has the Avenue seen so mediately to rooms specially prepared, caps, to their seats at the left of the tol to the navy yard, whence came many and such variety of soldiers. carpeted and decorated for their recepcheers resounded far and wide across vania avenue, and confluent streets was believed best to trespass no Sab- ticipate in his new office. Judge Kin-side the tribune. The president's chil- president could find a chance to be- dent Roosevelt and his escort, this midnight and turning the hall over time composed solely of the Rough to the populace to dance until day-Mr. Fairbanks' two sons, students at The conclusion of the address was Riders and Squadron A, at a brisp break had to be abandoned.

THE PROCESSION IN PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE.

The Ball.

12,000 persons at the ball.

the United States left Omaha on the Inaugural balls are the biggest so- Northwestern for Harrison, Neb., cial functions that occur in America. where the train starts on a two days' The evening's reception at the Pen- lecturing trip, running east to O'Neill sion building exceeded in grandeur'its | and making twenty stops of one half predecessors in the great edifice. hour each.

There were in the neighborhood of The business men's gold medal contest took place at Laurel last week. Mrs. Roosevelt's ball gown was There were thirteen contestants. made of a special weave of a new Clinton Price, from the grammar deshade of light blue silk with figures of partment of the schools, was awarded doves in gold tinsel. The shade has first place among the High school conbeen named "Alice blue," in honor of testants and a gold medal.

the president's daughter, who select Grain still continues to pour into ed the material at the St. Louis fair. Omaha for delivery at the gulf ports, and in spite of the fact that the Missouri Pacific has called into service two inches between the tips of the gines, it has been found necessary to turn 400 cars of grain over to the Mrs. Fairbanks wore a gown of Burlington to be redelivered at Kansas City.

W. H. Enhart, a farmer who resides near Pacific Junction, was in of Brussels point d'applique, with a Plattsmouth to find, if possible, some trace of his 17-year-old daughter. The girl left home for the purpose of vis-The decorations of the ball-room iting friends in Plattsmouth, but it outdid anything that ever before has now develops that she did not call on the parties whom she intended to visit.

WASHINGTON-Joseph J. Langer palms and ferns, flags, banners and of Nebraska, consul at Solingen, Germany, has resigned. He asked that guests might look with interest upon his resignation take effect March 1. something else of beauty than dazzling but the president has extended the time until the 15th, thereby permit-The doors of the Pension building ting Mr. Langer to reach the United States before his resignation becomes effective.

Washington dispatch: All of the Nebraska members, save Judge Kintribune. After a brief pause, Count the boom of a ten-inch gun, first of There were between thirty-three and tion, and a half hour later the grand kaid, will go at once to Nebraska upon Cassini, the Russian ambassador and twenty-one, fired in honor of the newly thirty-five thousand men in line. For march commenced, President and adjournment of congress. Mr. Burkett dean of the diplomatic corps, mar- inaugurated chief executive. The three hours the mobilization pro- Mrs. Roosevelt leading. All festivities will, of course, have to attend the shaled forth the ambassadors and tension was broken, and a roar of gressed along First street, Pennsyl- closed sharply at midnight, because it short session of the senate and parbath principles. Thus the usual prac- kaid will visit in Pennsylvania and Ahead of the parade proper Presi- 'tice of the president's leaving at | West Virginia a few weeks,

A message from Senator Dietrich was received by Commander Payne of Silas A. Strickland Grand Army of the Republic post No. 13. Hastings. stating that he had secured for the local post a complete set of the records of the confederate and union armies. This set contains over 100 well bound volumes and will be installed in the post library.

In the Nebraska state penitentiary there is a prisoner whose time expires March 24, but who has made application to be allowed to remain longer. The heroine is Mrs. Worsbaker, sentenced for seven years from Dakota county for shooting. When the announcement was made to her that she had fifteen months' good time to her credit and that she would be released March 24, the woman objected seriously to leaving the establishment.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Methodist Episcopal church

Ayad A. Ghazuli, an Egyptian, en- "We live in a practical age," re-	WITH A WOMAN'S ANSWED	I reply that he laughed to himself, for-	1 GOOD JOKE ON A WIT.	imparted to the audience. He merely	of Hartington it was decided to build gaged in the work of the medical de- marked a West Philadelphian. "For		I watting for the time being the old		vaved his hand gracefully and re-	a new church to cost at least $1000
partment of the University of Cincin- years I've noticed the sign of a man	and a state of the second terminist	adage: "He laughs best who laughs	For Once Famous Raconteur Found	gretted that severe hoarseness made	having the most modern equipment
nati, has applied to the publishers of who advertises to do practical horse-		1 1	HA HAD NOTHING TO SAV.	The imposervice for min to traditions the	for heating, seating and lighting.
hat, has applied to the publishers of who advertises to do practical horse-	of Her Husband.	It was 3 o'clock in the morning	It was once given to Borough Presi-	companyNew York Press.	Governor Mickey has signed house
"Ben-Hur" for permission to translate shoeing. Now, a Woodland Avenue	She is a club woman with a sense	It was a o clock in the monthing	dent Littleton to take the wind out of		roll No. 3, providing for six supreme
the work into Arabic. Mr. Ghazuli barber has himself down as a practi-	of humor, but the other day when she	when he was aroused by the violent	the sails of a man who is famed far	Was Very Much Alive.	court commissioners. F. N. Prout, ex-
has translated a number of works, in- cal hair-cutter. Napoleon always	decided to attend a federation session	ringing of his door bell. Supplug into	and wide as an after dinner speaker.	When visiting one of the primary	etterner general has has here here attorney general, has been mentioned as one to be appointed. Judges Duffie and Fawcett of Omaha are considered
Hur," which he describes as "one of those who wielded the razor were not	of evil and cautioned him to be espe-	I was torn open quickly read and then	1011e Occasion no mas enpeter	ab it into their more generally cancel,	available, although it is concoded that the most instructive and interesting practical in those days. The sign of	cially careful of the children. He	the hushand kicked himself back to	Speak unectly after mit. Littlet	i, us usual, us a memori or eno seneor	Umaga can have but one of the place books of this age," in the Egyptian the practical toothpuller is yet to an		bed as a recollection of his question	banquet. Mr. Littleton's speech was	plasing L sold:	The third may be selected from the church of which he is a member. pear."-Philadelphia Record.	guessed they would be all right, then	in his message to his wife impressed	wholly serious and had not an anec	closing i-said.	western part of the state.
	remarked, jocosely: "If you get wor-	itself upon his sleepy consciousness.	dote in it. He was armost at the	wen, ennaren, jou nave a nonauj	News has been received of the death
Royal Women in Feud. Slur on Married Legislators.	ried you might telegraph."	I How ronly was in one word!	10, 11 when the lamous raconcear en	WT	in California of Mrs. Henrietta Pfeif.
	In the evening of her second day		tered the room. Mr. Littleton bowed	Decoration day. from all in uni-	fer, formerly a business woman of
The present czarina and the dow- Congressman Adams, the bachelon			to him.	504.	West Point.
ager empress do not merely look ask- representative from Pennsylvania, is	tologram to how hughand:	Diamanda and Cambida Boote	"I trust," said Mr. Littleton, "that	"What do you do on Decoration	Arrangements for the encampment ance at one another. They have been the man who introduced a bill for the		Er Cor Dochorn of Missouri who	the distinguished gentlemen who has	day?"	of the Grand Army of the Bonubly at open war for years. The latter establishment of a whipping post in	The messenger how came with the	used to wear cowhide boots while in	iust come in whi pardon me n'i nave	"Decorate the soldiers' graves," said	to be held in Grand Island May 17, found it very hard to surrender first the District of Columbia. The meas-	disnatch just as the man was about	Leengnood noone bee boon on 9	Theshabacu on mo domant -		18 and 19, have been completed.
place among the women of the em- ure is in line with President Roose-	to retire He read it smiled and	visit to Washington, where old friends	guilty to theft of his latest story, but	"Why do you coorsto their graves	In the damage suit brought in the pire, but of course had to do so. This velt's recommendation on the subject.	then nenned this answer'	were glad to see that he sticks to the	I am sure he will agree with me that		district court of Dodge court was especially irritating to the im- but Mr. Adams has small hope of	"They're all right. Why?"	same kind of foot covering. An un-	it was too good to keep.	This was 'a sticker but finally one	B. Palmer against the Union Pacific perious dowager, inasmuch as the wo- favorable action by the house judi-	"I guess that will hold her for	monted addition to his makoun was	Then Mr. Littleton sat down. The	litt'e fellow held up his hand.	railroad to recover at one Pacific
man who displaced her hates every- ciary committee. "Every last mem-	awhile" he said to himself and then	acon in the shane of two hugo dig.	distinguished gentleman sat down		railroad to recover $1,999 damages thing in the way of display, cares ber of that committee is a married	he went to had	and stude It has been hinted that	also. It was really all he could do.	Well, Sh, why is it.	caused by a train near Ames a year naught for court intrigue and is al- man," says the Pennsylvanian, "and	The falt as good over what he con	mond stads. It has been marte	He had no means of knowing what	Because they are dead and we	ago the jury found no cause of action
	He left so good over what he con-	the boots and Beins de Let the	one of his stories had already been		The case was tried last term and most painfully shy. [they are all afraid to report my bill."	sidered to be the shrewdness of his	mourse.			resulted in a disagreement.