If You Are Going To Need a Harness

You should call and examine our stock of Custom-Made Harness that we are manufacturing. We are using nothing but the Celebrated Thomas Devlin Pure California Oak Leather. None better made. This leather is tanned by the old process, with pure oak bark. That is why we can guarantee every set of harness we make. We have also a Dipping Tank for Oiling Harness, and by our method of heating the oil, we will guarantee to get more oil in your harness than you can rub in them in a week. We have the largest line of Saddles and Collars, as well as Harness, ever carried in your city. We also have a car of Buggies and Wagons that we expect to have ready for your inspection by March 1st. We handle a fine line of Hardware, including Stoves and Ranges, Barb Wire, Poultry Netting Wire from two to six feet high. We also have a line of Furniture that we are making extremely low prices on in order to make room for our Buggies and Wagons that are coming. We do all kinds of repairing Harness, as well as oiling. Give us a call, when you need anything in our line, and we will try to please you.

Richmond Cattle, who is in the supply department of the Union Pacific at Grand Island, took a flying trip up to Loup City over Sunday last to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nightingale, and his many friends returning Monday. You see, Richmond's wife is visiting in Omaha and he got tired of baching and came home to get some of mother's cooking.

The revival services at the Methodist church will close next Sunday, as we understand. The meetings have been well attended each evening and on Sundays the church was not large enough to accommodate all who wished to attend, especially in the evening. Rev. Cowell has done some excellent work, and has been ably assisted by Miss Wands, the singing evangelist, whose sweet voice has been a great asset to the success of the meetings. Tomorrow evening the Sunbeam chorus composed of little children, will be an event of rare interest. Don't fail to hear them.

The Ravenna Creamery Co., with headquarters at Ravenna, but who operate creameries in Loup City and Ord as well, made a report to the United States Census Bureau recently, which develops some interesting facts as to the volume of its business. The report covers the year 1904 and shows that the company has thirty-nine employees to which was paid in wages the sum of $16,813. The company paid to the farmers of their territory for cream and labor the sum of $140,000 during the year. The product of the company's three creameries was 800,000 pounds of butter, equal to about forty car loads.

The Rae Company will be at the opera house every night next week—April 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. Monday night, April 3d, two hundred reserved seats will be sold for 10c each, to advertise the show, and the balance of the house will be free on Monday night only. This is no fake or medicine show.

Dr. Long returned from Lincoln, last evening, where he has been for some time taking treatment at the Sanatorium in that city for rheumatic and heart trouble. He is not a well man by any means, but is rapidly regaining his usual health, and soon we trust, will be hale and hearty.

Good horses are becoming valuable property. Charles Miner sold his fine span of draft horses last week to W. H. Gunn, of Loup City for $325. It is said that an offer of $450 has been made for the big team of blacks owned by Ecklund Bros the pump men, but was refused.—Aurora Sun.

The English Shire stallion, formerly owned by Frank Otlewski, has been purchased by W. O. Brown, who will stand the horse at his farm, one and one-half miles south of Loup City, the coming season, at the following terms: $8 to insure with foal, and $10 to insure live colt. This horse is well known in this section and breeders will do well to see him before making other arrangements.

There has been several petty civil cases before Judge Angier the past few days, involving rentals of farms and disputes over rentals of business houses and like causes, but we do not believe it the province of newspapers to publish such matters, as they are liable on the face to cast wrong impressions abroad, unless the facts are set forth, which would occupy too much space, and as the matters are of moment only to those interested in such cases.

Notice.
We have for rent one 80-acre pasture, two 160-acre pastures and one 400-acre pasture. For particulars call on GUNNARSON & ZIMMERMAN.

Opening.
The ladies of Loup City and vicinity are cordially invited to attend the opening, on April 5th, 6th and 8th, and inspect a beautiful line of dress hats, upstairs at A. E. Chase's.

ANNA HUNT.
Misses Clara Criss and Winnie Miller are visiting at Arcadia this week.

Go to F. E. Brewer for strawberry plants, rose bushes, fruit and shade trees.

John Slayter went to Dawson county, Tuesday, to look after business matters.

Miss Winnie Miller of Lincoln, has been visiting relatives in this city the past few days.

Miss Mabel Cowling of Cleora, was the guest of Mrs. B. M. Gaster, the early part of the week.

Chas. Rettemayer and daughter, of Arcadia, are visiting Mr. Rettemayer's sister, Mrs. Chas. Conhiser.

Mrs. Geo. Gibson and daughter, Miss Mame, went to Grand Island, Tuesday morning to consult an eye specialist.

If you don't think Earl Thompson is an artist, look at the display of bottled goods in the window of Gaster's store.

A few days since, Henry Elsner received two fine specimens of elk heads, from a point some fifty miles south of Yellowstone Park, and has them mounted in the bar-room. One of the heads displays seven prongs, while the other has ten prongs. They are fine specimens.

Monday, Dr. Kearns accompanied by Mr. Larson, the telephone man, from Ord, took a drive up the river and secured the names of C. J. Tracy, U. R. Welsh and Mr. Wakenight for a new telephone line from Loup City into that section. There are several more of the good farmers up there who will take advantage of the line to get connections with it.

Henning Clausen of Washington township, was in to see us Saturday. He and Supervisors Brown and Schroll are a committee on bridges, and accompanied by contractor W. T. Gibson, were out last week looking over the county bridges, reporting no washouts and county bridges in good shape, needing very little repairs.

I. H. Winchell of Loup City, a former resident of this county, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday visiting among old friends. Mr. Winchell was on his way home from Omaha, where he had been with a shipment of sheep. Mr. Winchell is engaged in sheep and farming pursuits four miles northeast of Loup City.—Aurora Sun.

Chas. S. Gue of Shelby county, Iowa, was here last week visiting his uncle, D. M. Gue. He was looking over the county with a view of locating if he found a desirable opening. He is a very bright, enterprising young man and expressed surprise and pleasure at seeing so fine and productive a county, in what the people farther east are wont to designate "The arid section of Nebraska."

I. M. Tykwart, one of THE NORTHWESTERN'S good readers at Huxley, rented the Ogdenhall farm, a mile north of Loup City, and moved there on a couple of weeks since. Mr. Tykwart sprung a surprise on his many young friends a few months since, by taking unto himself a charming companion, and can now be classed with the Benedictine crowd. We welcome the young people to Loup City.

A very pleasant surprise was planned by the young folks on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Foss, a few evenings since. Numerous games were indulged in until the wee sma' hours of morn, after which a neat little lunch was served by the party, when they all departed for their homes thanking the host and hostess for the very pleasant time enjoyed by all.

The 13th annual meeting of Central Nebraska Educational Association will be held at Kearney, April 5, 6, 7. The executive committee has spared no effort to prepare a program that will in its features of entertainment, inspiration and instruction, meet the expectations of those who each year look forward to the meeting for something good. Central Nebraska High School declamatory contest, Friday evening, April 7th.

The Balfora items came last week after the paper had gone to press, hence their absence from our columns. They contained several items of interest in regard to school matters, viz: the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Wold 1st Sunday; the closing of the school on the 25th; the graduating exercises to be held the 29th inst., at which Attorney R. P. Starr will deliver the address to the class, and several other items of general interest. We trust correspondence from any point will arrive earlier in the future.

The musical entertainment at the opera house last Saturday evening, by the Misses Smith, instructors in vocal and instrumental music and elocution at York college, assisted by Miss Beth Zimmerman of this city, under the auspices of the Unity club, was a very enjoyable affair and well attended by our music loving people. The Misses Smith are artists in their line, while Miss Zimmerman showed marked proficiency in her vocal and instrumental education. The entertainment was highly appreciated by all.

John Thompson was in to see us last Thursday and informed us he had bought the celebrated Jas. W. Johnson horse and with "Kentucky Boy" will make a stand with the horses at Loup City this season. Mr. Thompson has now two of the best horses in this section, and farmers desiring good pedigreed stock will be pleased to note the above, which provides for their wants right at home. Mr. Thompson has rented the Wm. Criss barn, in the rear of the blacksmith shop, and will stand his horses there, beginning with this week Saturday.

W. D. HOVER & CO

A New Book

of Proverbs:

1. Hear! for of important things will I speak; and the opening of my lips shall be of what is technically known as straight goods.
2. Clothes were created to cover the nakedness of man, and to adorn him.
3. If thou wouldst but cover thy nakedness, get thee a broad-bosomed barrel; it will suffice for thy need;
4. But if thou wouldst be adorned, come thou now to Gaster's store, and thy good looks shall be increased an hundred fold; yea, and even the eccentricities of thy form shall be covered up by clothes judiciously constructed.
5. The commencement of wisdom is the desire to be well dressed.
6. As vinegar is to the teeth, and as smoke is to the eyes, so is a $7.77 suit of clothes to him that knoweth.

7. The wearer thereof shall surely become a dead one, socially, unless he possesseth much riches; in which case he can afford to wear whatsoever he blame pleaseth;
8. But he that hath but a moderate income of gold and currency must be attired according to the fashion of his time, or, verily, will he lose out.
9. A wise dresser becometh so by counsel of his tailor.
10. He that watcheth his apparel, guardeth his prosperity; for a man maketh an impression according to the amount of front he putteth up;
11. For, verily, it causeth him to stand upright in the presence of his fellows, with inflated chest and squared shoulders;
12. To take mighty steps, when walking about town, so that he cometh into contact with highplaces thereof.
