If You Are Going
To Need a Harness

You should call and examine our stock of Custom-Made Harness that we are manufacturing. We are using nothing but the Celebrated Thomas Devlin Pure California Oak Leather. None better made. This leather is tanned by the old process, with pure oak bark. That is why we can guarantee every set of harness we make. We have also a Dipping Tank for Oiling Harness, and by our method of heating the oil, we will guarantee to get more oil in your harness than you can rub in them in a week. We have the largest line of Saddles and Collars, as well as Harness, ever carried in your city. We also have a car of Buggies and Wagons that we expect to have ready for your inspection by March 1st. We handle a fine line of Hardware, including Stoves and Ranges, Barb Wire, Poultry Netting Wire from two to six feet high. We also have a line of Furniture that we are making extremely low prices on in order to make room for our Buggies and Wagons that are coming. We do all kinds of repairing Harness, as well as oiling. Give us a call, when you need anything in our line, and we will try to please you.

Sheriff Williams was over in the neighborhood of the Haddix-Butler tragedy, yesterday, and found the people intensely wrought up over the case.

Pastor Wood was out on a missionary trip last week, preaching at Dannebrog on Tuesday evening, and at Balsora on Thursday and Friday evenings. A good interest was manifested at all these services.

W. J. Harrod of Ft. Collins, Colo., is visiting his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Leininger. Mr. Harrod formerly lived in the north part of Sherman county. He arrived some two weeks since, and has been visiting friends north. He may remain a couple of weeks longer.

At the regular meeting of the Eastern Star degree last Saturday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Worthy matron, Mrs. Carsten Truelsen; worthy patron, A. M. Bennett; associate worthy matron, Mrs. W. R. Mellor; treasurer, Mrs. L. Hansen; secretary, Mrs. W. T. Owens; conductress, Mrs. A. M. Bennett and associate conductress, Miss Ernie Oden-dahl.

The Saxaphona Quintette, the last of the entertainment course, gave a very good entertainment here last Friday night, and the opera house had the biggest crowd that has attended any of the course. We understand that our Methodist friends will have another course of entertainments this coming winter, and a much higher grade, the course costing them $150 in excess of the last.

Mr. P. Hoogenboezem will soon move to Spokane, Wash., and in another column announces the sale of his household effects and other property. We regret losing Mr. Hoogenboezem and his estimable family, but being one of the best painters in the country, he finds the territory here not large enough for his work and goes to Spokane where he will have a larger field of operation. We wish him all kinds of good fortune in the great west.

We received a pleasant call, yesterday from C. W. Gibson who was up from Litchfield on business. Chas. returned about a week ago from a three months' visit back to his old home at Tyrone Pa., to see his good mother, sisters and hosts of friends. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Marv. Charley was up to Washington to see the presidential inauguration, among other notable events, and reports his visit from first to last as being one round of pleasure.

E. G. Taylor, with his brothers, F. J. and C. E. Taylor of St. Paul, and several other business men of St. Paul, left for Paola, Kansas, Tuesday. C. E. Taylor is president of the Williams Oil Co., at Paola. This company own their land and machinery and now have seven wells in operation. We understand that more land will be purchased, if satisfactory arrangements can be made, and a new company organized. An independent refinery is now being built at that place.

The editor received a letter Tuesday morning, from his son, Frank Burchleigh, stating that he had enlisted in the army at St. Paul, Minn., and had been transferred to Fortess Monroe, Virginia, where he belongs to Co. 118 Coast Artillery, U. S. A. The letter, while a matter of surprise to us, yet not so much so, as he had expressed at various times his intention of going into the navy. He expresses himself well pleased with his surroundings and we trust the discipline he will undergo will be of the kind that will develop all the manhood in his nature and he will come out of the service with colors trying and nothing but marks of honor covering his discharge.

Wedding Bells.

Married, Wednesday, April 19th, 1905, at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bell, six miles west of Loup City, Miss Emma L. Bell and Mr. Ernest G. Cowling, all of this county, the Rev. W. I. Cowell of this city officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of invited guests, and after hearty congratulations from those present, a splendid dinner, prepared by the deft fingers of the hostess, was partaken of. The fair young bride is one of Sherman county's most popular teachers and a prime favorite among her host of friends, who wish her much happiness in her new life. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cowling of Elm township, and is one of our most enterprising young men. THE NORTHWESTERN wishes for the happy pair all the joys and few of the sorrows allotted to mankind. The presents were many, useful and valuable.

We see by the Ravenna News that the account of the narrow escape of a son of the late Julius Polenz, from an accident in the well in which his father was killed, was a fake, no such accident having not occurred.

If there is any one thing that tickles a newspaper-man nigh unto death, it is to be called upon to write up something to tickle the owner's vanity and then never receive the scant courtesy of "Thanks" from the one to whom said courtesy was extended.

We received a pleasant call on Tuesday from Mrs. Margaret Wilson, traveling deaconess of the M. E. hospital at Omaha, who is engaged in raising funds for building a new hospital in that city. She is being met everywhere with the most generous responses, and the purpose for which she is working is most laudable. It is expected the hospital will be finished by the first of December.

A genuine suprise party was given Grandma Moon, Tuesday, at the residence of S. S. Hover, it being the anniversary of her 85th birthday. There were present Mesdames Smith, Haney, Waite, Draper, Burns, Long, Gilbert and Gibson, whose combined ages were 488 years. The afternoon was passed in telling stories, singing, etc., and a jollier crowd never gathered under one roof. A choice dinner was served by Mrs. Hover and many kind remembrances of the anniversary were presented to the guest of honor.

There was a very good attendance and interest at the Scandinavian service at the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon. A goodly number of the Americans were present and helped with their presence and interest. At the close of the meeting a class was organized for the purpose of carrying on religious work for the Scandinavians in Loup City and vicinity. Mr. Gus Lorentz was elected secretary and Mr. Bergstrom was elected treasurer. There will be another Scandinavian service at the Baptist church next Sunday at 3 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.
