Memorial Day Observed.
Memorial Day was well observed in Loup City, Tuesday, and all went off smoothly as per program given in the local papers. The services were held at the opera house, the building being packed to its utmost capacity. The stage was finely decorated with flags, flowers and bunting, and presented a most pleasing appearance. The music was an especial feature, being given by the choirs of both churches and a number of other people, giving a strong chorus. The address by Hon. Robt. P. Starr was one of the finest efforts of the kind we have listened to in years, showing careful preparation, deep thought and couched in beautiful word painting our friend Starr is so capable of giving. Mr. Starr is a well-read student of history and it was a pleasure to listen to his well-timed remarks on Tuesday, so appropriate to the revered occasion. Had we the space at command, we would with pleasure reproduce at least a synopsis of his best thoughts that graced the day, but that is denied. Suffice it to say they will be treasured up in memory's sacred chamber of the heart. At the close of the speaker's address, he, in behalf of the ladies of Shiloh Circle, presented each old veteran with an elegant bouquet of flowers presented by the ladies of the Circle, in commemoration of the day. Following the closing hymn, adjournment was taken to the cemetery, where the old soldiers took charge of the ceremonies and performed the last rites over the graves of their departed comrades, and the memorable day in the Nation's history was appropriately closed.

The Japs blew the last of Russia's fleet out of the water, last Sunday. At the same time the earth gave way in front of the new State bank doors, leaving quite a hole. Through this Admiral Toga sent a wireless, announcing the result two days ahead of the daily papers.

The supreme court has informed ex-Secretary of State Porter that he must put back the $800 of marks and brands fees he appropriated while posing in that office as the great populist reform official. How much better Porter's reform light would have appeared if he had put it back before he had to. Slowly but surely the grafters are being compelled to "put it back." Now, ex-Speaker-Judge(?) Sears, it's your turn. Will you do it?

H. A. Jung gave us a pleasant call yesterday. Mr. Jung is one of our bustling carpenters and is busy helping Billy Rowe turn off his big jobs of home building.
Jim Johnson yesterday bought the Jonas Hedges farm south of town. Mr. Johnson also sold his land in Logan township, but we have not learned the name of the purchaser.

W. R. Mellor was called to Lincoln today on receipt of news that ex-Gov. Furness, secretary of the State Fair Association, was dangerously ill. He had intended leaving today for a trip to Wyoming, but the telegram above took him to Lincoln instead.

R. H. Vinson came up from Grand Island last Saturday for a few days' visit with his wife and sister, who are doing photographic work upstairs in the new bank. Mr. Vinson is a fireman on the U. P., and a very pleasant gentleman.
The Memorial services were held at the opera house last Sunday, the address being given by Pastor Wold of the Baptist church in his happiest vein. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was small, more the loss to those prevented from being present.

The village trustees have granted the putting in of cement walks from Lonni Bechtold's corner to Judge Angier's residence on Cedar street, and they are being rapidly put in. The walk goes along the north side of the street to Will French's residence and from there to Judge Angiers on the south side of the street.

Thos. Burton was in from Webster township yesterday and says while some in his neighborhood are obliged to re-plant their corn, his is coming up nicely, not having planted till about the 15th inst. Tom is indulging in a broken toe on his right foot, one of his horses trying its left on the member. It was the smallest, but hurts as much as if the animal had selected a bigger one.

In the Matter of the Estate of Lorenzo Dow Her, deceased.
