Buggies, call, see and buy them of T. M. Reed

Dr. Main will move into his new residence this week.

Mrs. Wood of Longmont, Col., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Converse.

A. J. Johnson has the agency for the Banker's Life of Des Moines. See him.

Chas. Paulman of Boelus was the guest of L. N. Smith over last Sunday.

Ed Angier was another of our good friends who remembered the printer last week.

L. N. Smith has a three-row Erway cultivator and one Town's surface cultivator to sell or exchange for stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Landers of Arcadia were Loup City visitors last Friday, taking in the Masonic good time in the evening.

No better nor cheaper insurance can be secured than that offered by the Banker's Life of Des Moines. See A. J. Johnson for particulars.

Mr. A. Bergstrom was a pleasant caller at this office a few days since, enrolling himself among THE NORTHWESTERN readers. Thanks.

Don't forget the dances at Jenner's Park each Saturday evening, by those boss boys, James Johansen and Stewart Conger. The best of music and a good time guaranteed.

Bert Chase started a hospital at his home last Saturday, all of his children save one, being subjected to severe bilious attacks. Dr. Jones soon had them as bright as ever.

Drs. Davis & Farnsworth of Grand Island, Neb., are prepared to treat all forms of chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, Stomach disorders, Tumors, Cancers, Paralysis, Kidney diseases, etc. The doctors use, besides medicine and surgery, the x-ray, hot air baths, electricity and massage.

Banker Culley went down to Omaha last Saturday. He had predicted a tornado visitation hereabouts between the 1st and 5th of July, and a cruel friend suggested he had made the prediction with such assurance that he believed it himself and hid away to Omaha till all prophetic danger was past.

For the first time since our advent to Loup City, last week saw two of the old time charivaris, one exhibited at the St. Elmo, on the occasion of our friend Gus Lorentz' departure from bachelorhood, and the other a couple of evenings later on Oliver Howard. Tornadoes and earthquakes would not have been in it at the time.

Can't something be done with the dog nuisance about town? Pedestrians after nightfall have to combat any number of measly curs that come snarling and barking at their heels. They may be inoffensive, but it causes unpleasant sensations all the same. If a dog is worth anything to the owner, he is worth taking care of. If not, the marshal should take care of it for him.

On account of a motion having been filed by R. J. Nightingale, attorney for W. R. Mellor, before the county board, granting relief to citizens of Oak Creek, Ashton, Bristol and Scott townships, against the overtaxation of real estate in said townships for 1904 and subsequent years, the equalized values of the county cannot be published this week. Said motion will be heard on Monday next, July 10, at 1 o'clock p. m.
Geo. H. Gibson, County Clerk.

Don't forget that drinking and rowdiness is strictly forbidden at Jenner's Park at any and all times, and the dances are conducted on the best possible lines. The other evening some of the boys evidently imbibed too much spirits and in the exuberance of their unnatural stimulants made Rome howl on the streets, but we can assure our people that no fault can be attributed to the park management, as the exuberance was not acquired there, nor allowed to give vent to itself in that vicinity, but was confined to other territory. And by the way, a little of that goes a long way and the marshal should see to it that no repetition occur.

Special Ribbon Sale.

100 styles of silk ribbon, all the way from 25 to 50c per yard, will be sold at Johnson & Lorentz's for 10c per yard. All colors, widths and styles. Call and get your first selection. Yours for business.
JOHNSON & LORENTZ.

Mrs. J. I. Depew called last Saturday and guaranteed THE NORTHWESTERN to continue its visits to her good sister, Mrs. Papendick, at Rathdrum, Idaho. Thanks.

We received pleasant calls this morning from Messrs. C. H. Plambeck and (Ge.) Ritz, two of our good readers on the Ashton list, who were in town on business.

We received pleasant calls last Saturday from our good friends H. Hansen and C. F. Dethlefs of Ashton, who kindly remembered THE NORTHWESTERN financially.

Mr. John Oltmann, one of the enterprising farmers from near Ashton, enrolled his name among NORTHWESTERN readers last Thursday. John says corn in his section is in fine shape, and all crops look good.

Get prices from the Keystone Lumber Co. on Rock Springs, Canon City, Matland, Hanna and Monarch coal. Also eastern and western anthracite. The Keystone Lumber Co. is making a cut price on coal for June and July.

W. F. Mason left for the east today on a two weeks' business trip. He will have business at Omaha, Waterloo, Iowa, Chicago, Indianapolis, Danville, Ills, Louisville and Owensville, Ky., St. Louis and most of the other cities of the United States, and it will be a deuce of a job to send tracers after him, if by any chance he should get lost in transit.

"Brethern," said the venerable clergyman at the conference, "they tell us this money is tainted. But why should not money be born again? Why should it not be converted? Shall we close upon it the door of hope? Shall we not rather say that while the light holds out to burn the vilest money may return? Should there not be more joy over one dollar that repents than over ninety-nine that need no repentance? And the resolution to accept the money was passed with enthusiasm."

Phone A. T. Conger, W 20, when in need of a drayman.

Mrs. Dr. Marcy and children are expected home this week.

Mrs. B. M. Gasteyer went to Omaha on business this morning.

Miss Grace Haglin of Arcadia is visiting Miss Florence Nightingale.

The Northern Milling Co. handles best grades of flour and feed.

Quite a rain visited this section—just add any day you please, and you will be correct.

Mrs. Vic Johnson left for Aurora last Thursday morning to join her husband

John W. Long was on the sick list a few days last week, but is up and around again.

Rev. Raymeyer will preach for our German friends here next Sunday. Don't forget the date.

Get ahead of the flies by ordering your screen doors and window screens of LEININGER LUMBER CO.

Bro. Brown received his new typewriter, Monday, and is now learning to break the bucking broncho

For sale—One thoroughbred Jersey bull and one heifer. JOHN LOHLM Loup City, Neb.

Born, Sunday, July 2, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Pinckney, a bouncing baby boy. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

We received a pleasant call yesterday from our good friend, Geo. Holmes, of Bristol township, who was in town on business.

Word came from Sargent Friday that they were visited that morning by a two and one-half inch rain within thirty minutes time.

Landlord Erazim thinking we were short on fireworks money, remembered us the Fourth. We trust he had no reference to one evening last week.

The D. D. club was very pleasantly entertained last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Adamson. Refreshments of ice-cream, cake and fruit was served. A most enjoyable was had by all.

Lon Zink came home from a business trip west, Saturday, and Monday he and his daughter, Miss Mabel, left for Ogden, Denver and other points on an extended trip. They will be absent a couple of months.

Mrs. W. T. Owens and children left last Thursday noon over the U. P. for Belmont Wis., where they expect to visit till fall, as Mr. Owens informs us. May the good lady and little ones have a most enjoyable vacation.

The telephone company has been having all kinds of trouble with their lines the past few weeks on account of the very frequent storm periods, and like results are reported from all over the state on all telephone lines.

Ollie Howard and wife left for Sweetwater, last Friday, where Mr. Howard has a position in the mill at that place. Mrs. Howard will return in a week's time, to remain until Mr. Howard gets matters arranged for housekeeping there.

It used to be an old saw that it never rains in Nebraska, but it is far from truthful nowadays. In fact it is nearly a dime museum freak to find a day in present times when it does not rain plentifully, and by the way a little too much so.

Our Masonic friends on last Friday evening gave work in the master's degree, at the close of which the ladies of the Eastern Star surprised the brothers with neat refreshments of ice-cream, cake and fruits, and a jolly time was had by all.

Prof. R. W. Huffman and family left yesterday morning for University Place where they will make their future home, the doctor going into the practice of his profession as a homeopathic physician. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

The telephone company has received a new switchboard of 100 drops with which they will replace their old one. The old board will be placed at Ashton. The new switchboard is capable of handling over 500 subscribers, and is a beauty. It will be put in in a short time.

We received a pleasant call from Wm. Knutzen of Ashton last week. Mr. Knutzen is an enthusiast over his park, which is indeed a pride to the village of Ashton, and a popular resort for picnic parties and other social entertainments. Mr. Knutzen informs us that he will shortly erect a fine dancing pavilion in the park, which has all the other accessories of a well regulated resort.

Word reaches us that Gus Lorentz was married at Loup City, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. We were unable to learn the name of the bride who has given herself over to the protecting wing of our friend, Gus, but we will venture to say she is all right or she couldn't have captured Gus as he has been a product on the market for a number of years. We join the groom's many friends in this county in wishing himself and bride a happy and prosperous journey through life.—Aurora Sun.

A Sad Accident.

A fatal accident occurred last Thursday to the 10-year-old son of W. F. Anderson, the new miller of the Loup City Mills, ending in the death of the little sufferer the following day. It seems that the boy, with a playmate, were climbing around the third story of the mill, and mounted to the top of a rickety step ladder, which gave way, throwing the lad down across the wood partition of a wheat bin on his stomach, injuring him internally. He lived till about noon on Friday, when death relieved his sufferings. The accident happened on the boy's tenth birthday, and arrangements had been made to give him a party that afternoon. The funeral occurred from the M. E. church on Sunday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of our entire people in the calamity that has befallen them. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson desire us to return their heartfelt thanks to those who so kindly befriended them in their sad bereavement.

Thrown From a Horse.

Little Alvin, the 10-year-old son of B. J. Swanson, was quite severely injured Monday evening by a fall from a horse, while herding cattle. While running, the horse stepped in a hole, throwing the boy with great force to the ground, rendering him unconscious. He was carried home and Dr. Main called, who attended the little patient, who at present is resting easier and will be up and around in a few days.

The village trustees have ordered new sidewalks on both sides of Main street from the public square west to the B & M elevator.

A. L. Zimmerman brought to this office, Saturday last, a fine bunch of timothy grown on his farm six miles west of town, occupied by S. Foss which was a beauty for a fact. Some of the heads were seven inches in length and the timothy stood some four feet and a half in height.

Last Thursday we were visited by a three inch rain, which flooded the lowlands below town, the ditches and sewers not being able to carry off the water fast enough, the road from the mill to the bridge south of town on Friday being wagon-box deep. It reminded the old settler of '96.

A letter from the editor's son, who is stationed at Fortress Monroe, Virginia, a member of Co. 118, Coast Artillery, accompanied by his picture in a natty suit of Uncle Sam's blue, was received on Tuesday. Frank depicts life at the fort as fine, with plenty of artillery drill, both with the big guns and short arm practice. He says he will get a furlough shortly and will see the sights at the National Capitol for his outing. He says he is enjoying good health and his picture shows him looking in tip top condition.

The Fourth as We Saw It

And as We Didn't See It.
"The glorious" was satisfactorily celebrated in this section of the country, so far as we have heard. At Rockville, a good crowd was present to hear R. P. Starr and a good time was had by all, barring one accident, that to a boy, whose name we did not learn, who was badly burned about the breast and one arm by the explosion of some small fireworks carried on his person. At Wiggle Creek, J. W. Long orated to a good crowd, and a pleasant time was reported. A number of our young folks went to Ashton, reporting a fine time. At Jenner's Park in this city, a large crowd was present all day and far into the small hours of the following morning, attesting the popularity of that resort. Judge Wall gave the address of the day, which was followed by games of all kinds, picnic parties and a dance in the pavilion which was crowded by the merry trippers of the light fantastic all the time. In the evening, Harry Jenner had intended making a fine display of fireworks, which he had provided for the occasion, but just about the time for said display, a plug in the water main across the street from Elsner's new house burst and he was called to fix the same which occupied his attention till after midnight and knocked his calculations over the fireworks display sky-high. Harry feels bad enough over the matter to atone for the disappointment of the people at large.

One Fireworks Accident Here

There was only one accident here on the Fourth to be marked up against the Heathen Chinese, and that was easy. Fred Gibbon, who works for A. J. Badler, was the victim, a portion of the explosive of a firecracker catching him in one eye. No serious injury.

Look Out for Village Laws.

At a meeting of the village trustees last Thursday evening the matter of fast driving and ball playing on our streets was taken up and the marshal was ordered to enforce the ordinances relative thereto. Also, the ordinance relative to shooting firecrackers and other fireworks within the corporate limits was called up and the marshal instructed to see that the ordinance was enforced. It would be well for those interested to look up the penalties attached to the reckless use of fireworks or indeed the use of same at any time save on the Fourth of July.

Here is a device that will take lice off the hogs when the farmer sleeps, and what better could the farmer ask? Drive a stake into the ground some place handy where the hogs sleep. Then wrap it with an old rope nailing well with No 6 nails, then saturate the rope with half lard and half coal oil twice a week, that is all the farmer has to do—the hogs do the rest. This device will prove so effective that the hogs will stand in line waiting for a chance to rub.
