The Epworth League met at the home of J. P. Leininger, Monday evening and enjoyed a very pleasant musical and literary program as follows: Instrumental selection by Mrs. Geo. Leininger, reading by Miss Edna Minshall; instrumental solo by Misses Meroe and Emma Outhouse; baritone solo by Charles Leininger; vocal selection, Miss Coral Leininger. Fruit was served, after which games were played. Misses Harriet Hayhurst and Jessie Leininger were elected to represent the League at the district convention to be held at Anstey, next week.

We are indebted to F. M. Henry of the Ravenna Creamery Co. for a fine sample of their creamery butter presented to this office last Saturday. The Ravenna Creamery company have a large and increasing number of farmers in this county who daily furnish them cream and thousands of dollars are thus yearly coming into the hands of our dairyman and farmers generally from this excellent company. We would advise our farmer friends to call and see Mr. Henry at the creamery building and talk "shop" with him and with profit to themselves.

Mrs. Wm. Brown and daughter, Miss Ethel, entertained a few young ladies at the Brown farm, last Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Edna West, of Boston, Mass. One of the main features of entertainment was pencil drawing, each one present being required to draw a picture of some one in the party. The first prize, a handsome vase, was awarded to Miss Lela Gee, and the booby prize, a tooth-pick holder, was given to Miss Reynard. Refreshments were served in picnic style under the trees, the waters being dressed in Chinese costume. All in all a very merry time was had by all.

The editor of this paper is grandpa again. He received a telegram from Cody, Wyoming, Sunday evening last that a cherub had been born to his first born daughter, Mrs. G. A. Phipps, that morning, but the happy father in wiring in the important event was too excited to say whether boy or girl, hence will have to wait the receipt of a letter to learn whether it is a future president or a future president's better-half. But the best part of the message was that mother and babe were O. K. Just notice our expansive smile over it all. Later—Letter received. It's a boy, and handsome, like it's grandpa.

Grand Island will have a Grand Harvest Jubilee on August 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19, inclusive. That city is noted for doing things on a big scale and the proposed jubilee this year promises to be the biggest thing ever held there. The G. W. Parker Amusement Company has been secured for a high class of entertainments. There will be ten big shows, three free shows, two first class bands, and in fact amusements galore every day. August 16 has been designated as "Ord and Loup City Day," and Loup City should and undoubtedly will send down a big delegation on that day. Let there be a big crowd go down to Grand Island and whoop it up for the Loup City Carnival and in return Grand Island will send up a bigger delegation when our Big Carnival Jubilee comes off.

The Union Pacific Railroad has just issued an illustrated booklet on the Lewis and Clark Centennial, which is a complete guide to Portland, the Exposition and the Pacific Northwest generally. It tells you of the shortest way to reach the Exposition city, what is to be seen en route, and of the return trip through California. Those who intend to visit the Great western fair will find in this publication a rare fund of information. Send two cent stamp in your request, and the book will be mailed promptly.
